SENATOR JOHNSON ASSAILS ADVERSARIES OF NEW DEAL

Those who caviled at any activity, those who for political reasons have sneered at every effort, the timid and ultra-conservatives who have trembled at every advance, have resurrected at every forward step the bogeyman of unconstitutionality, declared Senator Hirma W. Johnson in his Labor Day speech, at San Francisco. "Many of them," he continued, "now constituting themselves the self-appointed guardians of the Constitution, are lugubriously crying against what they are pleased to call assaults upon and violations of that instrument. So long as they deemed the Constitution the shield and the buckler of the sacrosanct right of exploiting the few, their voices were unheard in this land. "We are not blind to the errors that Democracy may commit, but the people's government has the right of determination and this right must and shall be preserved. In what has been done in the last two sessions of Congress to alleviate the horrors of an economic debacle, no individual has for one instant thought of a dictatorship. Some of the Roosevelt policies have been frankly experimental but at least a titanic effort is made. The sum total so enormously overbalances that with which we may have disagreed, that the debit side in real accomplishment has been negligible. In a vigorous defense of the relief aspects of the New Deal, Senator Johnson said: "It is an easy matter to cry out against vast expenditures of money. It is not difficult to snarl at methods of disbursement and talk of the day of reckoning. But, with vast throngs hungry without fault on their part, I ask the honest who are critical—what would they have done?"

EARLE SENSES PINCHOT'S DEAL ON P. S. C. CONFIRMATIONS

Governor Pinchot's blunder in refusing to include humanitarian legislation in his special session proclamation is scored by George H. Earle, Democratic nominee for Governor. Earle declares Governor Pinchot accepts the promises of Republicans who killed social legislation in 1933, that they will favor it in 1935. "Professing belief in platform promises," Earle declared, "the Governor is evidently afraid to put to the acid test of performance the pledges of the political converts." Governor Pinchot's special session proclamation limiting the Legislature solely to the consideration of unemployment relief and old age assistance, contains 23 words. His explanation of why he changed (Continued foot of next col.)

The deceased was a daughter of William and Jane Dunlap Raymond, and was born on the farm now occupied by Earl Frazier, in Potter township. There survive her three children: Charles, Phillipsburg; Joseph, Erie; Clark, Harry and Mrs. Beyer, Tyrone. Also two brothers, James W. Raymond, Centre Hall, and David, of Sunbury, and twenty-two grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

She was twice married, first to Edward Corman, Coburn, and after his death to Mrs. Rhodes. Three children survive, also her mother, now living in Aaronsburg, and these brother and sisters: Horace Stover, of Youngstown, Ohio; Mrs. Bessie Zerby, also of Youngstown, and Mrs. Electa Showers of Lock Haven.

MAINE ELECTED DEMOCRATIC GOVERNOR, ON MONDAY

For the first time in its history, Maine re-elected a Democratic Governor. Governor Louis Jefferson Brann is an apostle of the New Deal. "As Maine goes, so goes the Nation," Republicans have long been chanting.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Pearl Brown (nee Ritter) of Bellefonte, is seriously ill at her home with hopes for her recovery being slight. She is a sister of Edward Ritter, of Centre Hall.

Miss Jennie Thomas went to Aaronsburg on Tuesday to visit her cousin, Mrs. Cyrus Bower. Miss Thomas accompanied her sister, Mrs. W. V. Reitz, who was on her way to Lewisburg to visit Prof. George M. Kunkel of the Bucknell engineering group faculty.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred L. Bowersok, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Florence, on Tuesday returned from a few days' visit with the former's sister, Mrs. Wm. Felding, and family, in Staten Island, New York, and informed the writer that the trip to the island was a most delightful one. Mr. Felding is a former Potter township youth and now is on the police retirement list.

Mrs. William Fredrick, of Holton, Kansas, is in the east since the latter part of last month, visiting with her daughters, Mrs. Silvin, at Avis, and Mrs. J. M. Coldron, Centre Hall, being at the latter's home at the present time. Mrs. Fredrick lives in the drought-stricken area in Kansas where all vegetation has been fairly cooked. Her garden, she related to friends, is without a single green sprout. On coming East, the fields in Pennsylvania bearing profitable crops, and gardens covered with vegetables and greens, were termed grand and glorious sights. She will remain in the East for several months and on her return will visit with two sons—one in Ohio and the other in Illinois.

There is nothing certain as to whether or not Mrs. Cordelia Brice Pinchot, wife of the present governor of Pennsylvania, will be a candidate to succeed her dutiful husband, Gil. Cordelia is out to gain what she can by filing petitions, but her lack of anything approaching success as a candidate in her congressional district on two occasions will no doubt prompt that "still small voice" to say, "Cordelia, it's no use."

his mind between July and September on the question of social legislation, requires 750 words.

Last July, the Governor declared that if he called a special session of the Legislature he would throw the call "wide open" on social legislation, so that the people would get "their money's worth."

Recently there have been rumors in political circles of a deal between the Governor and representatives of the Mellon, Grundy, Atterbury Republican Organization whereby the Governor's appointees on the Public Service Commission are to be confirmed by the State Senate.

UNION COUNTY FAIR PLANS GOING RIGHT AHEAD—SEPT. 18 TO 22—DAY AND NIGHT

The Finest Array of Grand Stand Attractions Booked, Featuring Century of Progress Revue.

With the Union County Fair grounds completely renovated, painted from main entrance to the last live stock barn, inside and out, and the grounds cleaned and beautified, a real old time successful fair is going right into the assured success it deserves. No expense has been spared in giving the patrons every comfort necessary, new and clean, rest rooms, a day nursery for children, a Kiddie Park with all the special entertainment features for the young ones, a much larger display of commercial exhibits, farm implements, and a big auto show, all housed under one big tent pavilion will be new features this year.

The county agricultural displays will be greater than ever, the school and women's exhibits intensely interesting and educational, and the Fat Live Stock show an added feature, with the grand parade on Thursday morning.

Polks, generally are beginning to realize that this is a county fair, the oldest county fair in the State, with the finest grounds, and fastest race track in the country, where on Wednesday and Thursday the best in the 2:14 class will compete for the added purses. Many special events are listed for each day starting with Children's Day, Tuesday, when all the school children in the adjoining counties will participate in contests, including Gym teams, high school bands and orchestras, Glee clubs, and the big school parade of floats, etc. Tuesday will feature in addition to the local events the first program of the professional circus acts, gathered from the best in the outdoor thrills, including such well-known acts as the Four Vespes, the Royal Pekin Chinese Troupe, trained animals, funny clowns, and each evening direct from California The Hollywood on Parade Revue, and Cervonee's International Band.

Especially of interest this year, in addition to the many entertainment programs will be the wonderful display of Home Demonstrations by local merchants, who have gone to great expense in arranging for their displays and exhibits. The main exhibit hall will be completely decorated, giving the true appearance of an Exposition, worthy of going many miles to see.

Awards Made at Encampment & Fair

The Centre County boys and girls enrolled in vocational work have had the most successful fair this year since they began taking part in the Junior activities of the Grange Fair.

A larger number took part in the various activities planned especially for them. They also exhibited more and better items made as a part of their school work.

The large exhibit of a "Farm Layout" was especially well done. This exhibit, built for the 1934 State Farm Show, was made by the boys and teachers of the Gregg and Harris Township Vocational schools and the County Supervisor. The project books showed some real work and were even better than previous years.

The winners in the Senior Project contest are as follows:

Dairy—Earl Ripka, Roy Ripka and Harry Baylets, all of Harris Twp.

Potatoes—Thomas Ross, Harris Twp.; Richard Feltenberger, Gregg Twp.; Randall Ertel, Rebersburg H. S.

Sheep—Robert Campbell and Leonard Ilgen, of Gregg Twp.

Oats—Harold Yarnell, Paul Zimmerman, Bellefonte H. S.; Walter Daughenbaugh, Howard H. S.

Corn—Fred Homan, Harris Twp.; Theodore Ishler, Howard H. S.; Dean Ziegler, Gregg Twp.

Garden—Allison Musser, Gregg Twp.; Harold Klingler, Harris Twp.; Dave Lane, Port Matilda H. S.

Miscellaneous—Blair Ververy, Howard H. S.; Norman Sunday and Harold Young, Harris Twp.

The first place winner in the above received, in addition to the regular prizes, $2.00 each. This extra prize was donated by the Centre County Bankers' Association.

The judging contest is held each year by the County Agent and the teacher of Agriculture of the county, and was unusually fine. A larger number of boys took part than was expected, showing the increased interest in this type of thing.

The winners in the livestock contest were as follows:

First, Thomas Ross, Harris Twp.; 2nd, Ellsworth Stoner, Gregg Twp.; 3rd, Robert Corman, Gregg Twp.; 4th, Wallace Shiler, Gregg Twp.; 5th, Charles Harter, Jacksonville; 6th, Alice Foust; 7th, Henry Dunkle, Harris Twp.; 8th, Leroy Comley, Harris Twp.; 9th, Frank Bailey, Harris Twp.; 10th, Reuben Adams, Port Matilda.

Names of winners in the shop contest appeared in an earlier issue.

The girls in the Home Economics groups at Spring Mills and Boalsburg exhibited only a few of the typical projects of the past school year. They attempted to make a show of the different types of work being offered in their schools, rather than bring a lot of exhibits which really had no direct connection with the various courses being offered.

Ribbons and cash prizes are being distributed to all winners.

DOLLARS AND CENTS

YOU can have a telephone on the farm for as little as $2.00 or $2.50 a month, according to locality. That's not much, is it? But what's more important, a telephone often saves more than its cost! It saves trips. It helps you buy and sell at a profit. It brings valuable news. It saves precious minutes when you need help in a hurry. It's worth dollars and cents to have a telephone. Nothing does so much for so little!
