This represents an unusual exception to the usual summer decline. Sales for the first seven months of 1934 were reported by the company as $129,612,367, compared with $97,443,464 for the same period in 1933, an increase of 33.1 per cent.

RECOVERING IN HOSPITAL FROM MAULING BY BIG BEAR

Earl Vonada, seriously injured a week ago Sunday night when he was attacked by a bear at Woodward Cave, is recovering nicely at the Centre county hospital. Mr. Vonada's pocketbook which he was carrying in his hip pocket at the time of the attack, shows two perfect holes through the leather, the cards and the bills, inflicted by the teeth of the late Bill, the 500-lb. brute, who was the aggressor in the attack.

Mr. and Mrs. Lick Mowery, of Burnham, spent Sunday at the Milton Kline home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Swartz, of State College, were Sunday callers at the Swartz and Fortney homes.

Deaths

BECK.—Charles Snyder Beck, aged 84 years, of Nittany Valley, died at the Centre County hospital Thursday morning as the result of uremic poisoning. Mr. Beck had been in ill health for some time and two weeks ago came to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Hannah Kelley, his only survivor, in Bellefonte, and Sunday prior to the death was taken to the hospital. The body was taken to Snydertown where services were held in the Lutheran church, in charge of Rev. Mr. Keller, assisted by Mr. Beck's nephew, the Rev. Willis Hartsock, of Altoona. Burial in the Snydertown cemetery.

A COMPARISON.

William Feather, Cleveland business man, returns from a trip to Europe with the remark that, in spite of the depression, "this country is living on a plane that Europe will be lucky to reach in another generation." Compared with France, Germany, and England, he says, the ordinary man in the United States is living, if not a life of luxury, at least a life of comfort. Conditions in England are better than those on the continent; but even there "the plain people do not know, as they never have known, a living standard comparable to what we find after five years of devastating depression."

Here is something worth remembering. It does no good, Heaven knows, to try to minimize the effects of the depression, to try to pretend that there has been little real hardship. But, it doesn't hurt to remember that, when all is said and done, we are still luckier than most people. The American standard of living is a heritage which, even the depression hasn't wrecked.

MISS WANDA BROWN IN CHARGE OF WELCOME DANCE, L.H.S.T.C. Miss Wanda Brown, of Spring Mills, was a member of the committee in charge of the welcome dance held at Lock Haven State Teachers' College the other Saturday, in the college gymnasium. This dance, sponsored by the college Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A., is held each year that the incoming students may become acquainted. Music for the dance was furnished by the Lyric orchestra. Other members in charge of the dance were: Ellen Louise Rooke, Weissport; Trafton Buchanan, of Renovo; Michael Danko, of Central City; Walter Wilkinson, of Spring Mills.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Pasture fields never looked better in Pennsylvania than they do this fall.

The Millheimers are champions! And no one is happier than Manager "Win" Gramley.

James Clark, of Philipsburg, died as his automobile struck a bridge culvert between Philipsburg and Clearfield.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Delaney attended the Bloomsburg fair on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Spayd, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Dutrow and son Albert also made the trip to Bloomsburg.

An examination for the position of fourth-class postmaster at Windburne will be held at Philipsburg and applications are to close October 15. The compensation for the last fiscal year was $1190.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Mitterling made an auto trip through New York state beginning of this week, commemorating their twenty-seventh wedding anniversary. Mrs. Paul Zellers and Mrs. Bruce Knarr conducted the Mitterling restaurant for them during their absence.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Bradford and three of their younger children, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bradford on Sunday motored to Danville where they lunched with Miss Isabel Bradford, daughter of the former couple, now taking a course in nursing in the Geisinger hospital.

The tool house in which the station men on the L. & T., at Centre Hall, kept their equipment, was razed and carted away. The building stood east of the local station and was in very good repair. Similar structures were removed at other points and new ones built, one at Spring Mills.

Güyer Grove, east of town, is trying to solve a problem that presented itself to him a few days ago. In gathering sheaves of corn to be cut into ensilage, a stone the size of a man's fist was found in one of the sheaves. The puzzling feature is how a corn binder would pick up a stone and especially a sand stone on a limestone ridge.

Business is improving, at least with R. T. Hess, the Holland heating plant salesman. A sale of a vapor air gravity system was sold to A. L. Emery, Centre Hall; another to Mrs. Catharine Armour, Bellefonte, and a third to Dr. F. W. Pierce, State College, and the plant in the George Coon home also in State College, will be modernized. These sales were all made during the recent past.

One of the best equipped homes in Georges Valley is that of John W. Vonada, who lives on the south side of that valley and conducts the farm on which he lives and owns. Mr. Vonada recently installed a Delco lighting system with which the dwellings and barn are lighted. Preparing for comfortable living this winter, Mr. Vonada is about to have a Holland vapor air gravity heating system installed by the representative, R. T. Hess, of Centre Hall.

LOCAL MERCHANTS TO STAGE PRIZE CONTESTS

"Better Light—Better Sight" Activity Offers Four New L. E. S. Approved Reading Lamps to Four Winners.

Local department stores, furniture stores and other merchants who sell lamps are staging four weekly prize contests to acquaint Centre county residents with the latest developments in home lighting and the "Science of Seeing." The first contest closes at midnight Saturday, October 6, and the details are given in an advertisement which appears in this issue of the Centre Reporter.

"Many improvements in home equipment have come about in very recent years," states a representative of the local merchants' group. "Most of us can remember, for instance, when the old-fashioned coal stove was the best known means of home heating, although it heated only one room. Today, a central heating system, operating from the cellar, warms not just one room but all of them. The radio is another outstanding example. A few years back, when we finally did tune in a station on our hand set, one of us donned a pair of earphones and listened—while the other members of the family sat around wondering what the program was all about."

"Until a few months ago home lighting was an almost neglected subject. Then scientists who became interested in it made a number of remarkable discoveries—and the 'Science of Seeing' was born. It is the purpose of this contest, which is most fascinating and educational, to show how the application of the Science of Seeing aids in minimizing eye strain and fatigue. It points out all the discoveries that have been made."

Each week's contest winner will receive one of the new table lamps that have recently been developed and approved by the Illuminating Engineering Society for reading and study. Copies, blanks, and a special bulletin which explains the "Science of Seeing," may be secured from all stores that are displaying the "Better Light—Better Sight" cards. Judges for the local contest are Earl K. Stock, Charles Brachbill and Cecil Walker.

Russell F. Stein, of State College, who struck and killed William G. Rearick of Whiteburg, as the latter stepped from his car to the highway, is expected to be relieved from blame in the accident.
