

Spring Mills

A Collection of Newsy Happenings and Personalities from Gregg Township's Metropolis.

A steel girder struck Herb S. Smull, of Smulton, one the foot while working over Penns Creek which is being rebuilt new from the piers up. An X-ray picture revealed one of the larger bones in the foot to be broken.

A marriage license was issued to Chester R. Huey and Miss Ellen Huss, both of Spring Mills.

Two young couples of Spring Mills were recently married, the announcement of which has not been previously mentioned.

Chester Huey and Miss Ella Huss were joined in wedlock on Wednesday of last week by Rev. Fred Griesing, at the Evangelical-Reformed parsonage, in Aaronburg. The groom is a son of Gordon L. Huey, tenant on the Walker farm, west of Spring Mills, and the bride is a daughter of Mrs. Cora Huss and the late George Huss. The young couple will live with the bride's mother, in the western section of Spring Mills.

The other couple is from Georges Valley, Spring Mills, R. D. The groom is Miles Lingle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lingle, and the bride Miss Elvina Ackerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Ackerman.

Both young couples have the best wishes of the scribe and their friends and acquaintances, many of whom weekly peruse this column.

The Vocational school soccer team is scheduled to play its first regular game of the season on the new athletic field here on Friday evening, the opponents being the team from the Logan Vocational school. The local team played two practice games—one with Rebersburg and one with Boalsburg, winning both of them. The fans here expect them to make a good showing in Friday's game. The series this season will consist of but eight games for each team.

Dr. and Mrs. George C. Thomas have been spending some time at their camp along Penns Creek in the Welkert district. They had as guests during the past week Dr. Thomas' brother, Dr. Charles Thomas, and wife of Sunbury. It was the Sunbury's noted physician's first outing since having been struck by an auto and seriously injured some months ago. On this trip he used crutches for the first time. Although the recovery is somewhat slow, it appears to be leading to permanency.

Harry McClenahan is employed on the construction of the bridge over Penns Creek. The work is said to be progressing in a satisfactory manner.

The Harry A. Corman property, formerly owned by T. M. Gramley and now occupied by J. A. Wagner, is being repaired. The work is being done by James Kerstetter, who is also contemplating giving the G. Calvin King property a coat of paint on the exterior.

The callithumpians succeeded in capturing Mr. and Mrs. Harry Condo, a few evenings ago, and giving them a truck ride, accompanied with plenty of music (!). The couple are living with Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Condo, parents of the groom.

The Past Tempers Association will meet in the K. G. E. hall, Tuesday evening, October 16th. The association covers four counties—Centre, Clinton, Lycoming and Clearfield.

The Spring Mills band, a musical organization of between thirty and thirty-five pieces, yesterday (Wednesday) evening was in the line of march in the parade prior to the opening of a festival given by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, in Lock Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Isenberg and two children, and the former's mother, Mrs. Jennie Isenberg, of Altoona, were guests of Mrs. Annie Smith on Sunday. The elder lady, a sister of Mrs. Smith, remained here for a more extended visit, while the other returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Erdley visited among friends in Harrisburg over the week-end.

C. A. Krape was taken to the Centre County hospital Sunday afternoon. He seemed unable to recover from a relapse following an attack of pneumonia. He is said to have suffered excruciating pain in his lower limbs in connection with other ailments.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wingard and daughter, Gloria, and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Carson, motored to Lock Haven, on Sunday, where they visited with Walter Wilkinson, a senior in the Lock Haven State Teachers' College.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lee and their charming young daughter, Miss Betty, made an auto trip to Allentown, Reading and Bethlehem, where they visited among relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wagner visited with their son, Theodore Wagner, in Williamsport, on Sunday.

Mrs. W. H. Bressler, who had been seriously ill, continues to improve.

Mr. and Mrs. John Raybold, of Altoona, visited at the Robert Musser home, where a birthday dinner was given in honor of Mrs. Raybold, formerly Gertrude Musser.

Mrs. Harold Holler, Brosie Holler, and two children, Randolph and Madeline, visited with the Scott McMurtrie family on Sunday.

Mrs. Carl Myers, of Milroy, spent the week-end at the parental home of her husband.

Messages received by his family here from Glenn Long, who entered Franklin and Marshall college as a freshman, indicate he is getting along fine with his school work. He is taking a course in business science and economics. On being given a test he qualified to play in the college band. The young man is a cornetist, having played that instrument as a member of the Spring Mills band.

Mr. and Mrs. George Krape and Mr.

and Mrs. Willis Fisher, of Johnstown, also Mrs. Harry Bell and daughter, of Sunbury, visited Mr. and Mrs. G. C. King. The former and Mrs. King are brother and sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bailey and daughter Nancy, on Sunday, autowed to Middleburg and other points in Snyder county, to view the wreckage following the flood of Sunday a week in that section.

Mrs. Lettie (Ross Goodhart) Williams, formerly of near Spring Mills, but now a resident of Barnes Corners, New York, where she is postmistress, accompanied by her son, John Goodhart, on returning from Pittsburgh, visited with Mr. and Mrs. G. C. King and other friends about here. She had expected to meet a cousin, Robert Ross, and his daughter, Miss Esther, of Wichita, Kansas, here, but arrived too late, the Rosses having left earlier for Washington, D. C., where Miss Ross visited with the private secretary to former Vice-President Curtis. Mr. Ross, by the way, when a young man, back in the seventies, spent considerable time with Mrs. Mollie Ross, mother of Mrs. Williams, in Centre Hall.

Mrs. Ross at that time lived in the property now occupied by William Walker, on West Church street.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Kennelly, of Shamokin, visited with the former's brother, Robert Kennelly.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Finkle, of Zion, were Sunday visitors of Mr. Finkle's sister, Mrs. Mabel Smith. Mr. Finkle, while living in Zion, conducted a barber shop at Pleasant Gap.

Boys and girls, former graduates of Gregg Township Vocational School, are well represented in institutions of learning seeking higher education. A list carefully compiled is presented:

Vernon Godshall '30, taking a course at Penn State in Dairy Husbandry; he is a member of the livestock judging team which placed third at Spring field, Mass., last week. He will complete his course at mid-year.

Lewis Tigen '32, is taking a course in agricultural chemistry at Penn State and is a Junior. He is an active, studious young man and is making a good scholastic record.

John Zubler '33, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Zubler, has selected a course of Agricultural Education at Penn State, this being his Sophomore year. He is preparing to become a Vocational Agricultural teacher.

Jane Campbell '33, daughter of Mrs. R. P. Campbell, Penns Cave, is a student in the Liberal Arts Course, Penn State; a sophomore.

William Campbell, '31, a brother of Miss Jane referred to above, is a Penn State Junior in the course of Animal Husbandry.

Glenn Long '34, son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Long, enrolled in the Freshman class, Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, in a course of Business Administration.

Heber Rishel, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Rishel, Farmers Mills, a product of G. T. V. S., is a graduate of Penn State and is now Agricultural Supervisor in the schools of Hopewell township, Bedford county, with 145 pupils in the high school. While in college, Mr. Rishel made a record for himself in track and cross-country, and was captain of the cross-country team last year. G. T. V. S. has the distinction of being the only high school in the State to furnish two captains for this team, the former captain having been B. E. Decker, now teaching in the schools of Edinboro, located near Erie.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Shaeffer, of Milroy, spent last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Skiles.

The son born to Mr. and Mrs. John W. Decker has been named John Sherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Russell Condo and family spent Sunday with Prof. and Mrs. C. M. Watts at their camp at Hammerly's Fort.
