One X in the Party Column will do the trick. Mark it thus:

DEMOCRATIC

HOW THE CHILD LABOR LAW, PASSED BY REP. LEGISLATURE, PERMITS 51 HRS. WORK, $3.00

In an address in Philadelphia, George H. Earle, Democratic candidate for Governor, spoke on child labor in that city, and among other things said: "My opponent is making speeches about how the Republican Party has legislated in past years for the interests of labor. He points with pride to the Child Labor Act of 1915 and the Women's Labor Law of 1913. "He says nothing about the shameful conditions prevailing today in Pennsylvania as far as women and child labor is concerned. "Before my opponent does any more pointing with pride to the 'labor record' of the Republicans he had better read the sweatshop report submitted to the 1933 Legislature which revealed the most horrible conditions with respect to women and child labor. "I'd like to read one paragraph from the sweatshop report which by the way was signed by Mrs. Pinchot, the governor's wife, and Judge Horace Stern of this city, one of the outstanding jurists of our State. "The paragraph reads: 'The testimony taken by the Committee showed young girls and boys working as many as 51 hours a week, or even more, and their strained faces and frail bodies furnished mute evidence of the inadequacy of the law which permits such conditions. "And these children, the sweatshops report showed, earned about $3 a week for their 51 hours of labor. "That's the kind of Labor Law Mr. Schnader is proud of. That's the kind of Labor Law he intends to continue on the statute books of Pennsylvania because he has publicly stated that he proposes to continue the labor policies of the Republican Party."

OLD AGE PENSION BLANKS DISTRIBUTION TIMED BEFORE GENERAL ELECTION NOV. 6
The Mothers' Assistance board served as trustees to administer the old age pension law in Centre county has been engaged for several weeks in dispatching application blanks to a large number of persons in the county who have made application, regardless as to whether they are entitled to a portion of the fund or not. The distribution has been timed prior to the general election, but no decision will be made until after the election. Many of the applicants will discover that getting an old-age pension after the election will be more difficult than securing an application and encouraging words before November 6th. The question not yet decided is whether a citizen over seventy years of age must be a pauper to participate in the fund. Applicants who have sons or daughters also wait until it is decided what construction will be placed on "indigent."

It must also be kept in mind that at present there is no available cash to be applied to old-age pensions. Applications may be presented to any member of the board at any time. The names and addresses of the board are as follows:
Mrs. Frank Gardner, State College; Mrs. Evelyn Young, State College; Mrs. Arthur C. Dale, Bellefonte; Mrs. Edna Hassinger, Millheim; Mrs. Rose McGirk, Phillipsburg; Mrs. George Raines, Phillipsburg; Mrs. W. Scott Crain, Port Matilda.

Whatever else you do, next Tuesday, don't fall to vote for your interests—and that means the Democratic ticket.
Down with everything that smacks of the old order. It's the New Deal or chaos! Vote Democratic.
Vote for Don Ginzery for Congress and your cheering for the New Deal will be effective.
The election of E. J. Thompson to the State Senate will greatly aid Governor George H. Earle pending over the proposed measures he is advocating to reduce taxes on real estate. With no active minority in the Senate the Governor would be greatly hindered in bringing about the reforms he has in mind.

George H. Earle promises to reduce the taxes by 50 per cent and proves conclusively that this is possible and that it will be done. Mr. Earle has pledged himself to levy in-home tax upon the people of Pennsylvania so that all shall bear a fair share of the tax burden. This income tax levy will be used exclusively for school purposes and thus will relieve the property owners of at least one-half of his tax burden.

John L. Holmes is a candidate for a seat in the lower house in Harrisburg for the sixth time. During the five regular sessions and four extra sessions he served he collected over seventeen thousand dollars. Not so had a salary and extras especially so when he was able at the same time to care for the several enterprises he is interested in at State College, his home town.

PENNA. RECEIVED $678,000,000 FROM FED. GOVT. IN 19 MOS.; $12,000,000 IN HOOPER TERM

"Not all the threats of the old gang; not all the cheating they can do; not all the votes they can buy; not all the lies the professional politicians can tell and not all the money they can raise can prevent the establishment of Franklin D. Roosevelt's New Deal in Pennsylvania," Charles J. Margiotti, noted Pittsburgh attorney, declared in addressing a mass meeting of adherents of the New Deal in Pennsylvania. Mr. Margiotti continued, "If you elect George H. Earle as your Governor no money or power or influence will make him forsake you. He is the candidate of the people and will be a real Governor to all people and not for the select few." Mr. Margiotti declared that he had heard the Republican propaganda to the effect that Pennsylvania had been discriminated against in the matter of Federal funds. He said further that Pennsylvania had received more than 678 millions of dollars during the 18 short months in which President Roosevelt has been at the head of the Government and that he wished to compare this expenditure with the $12,000,000 this State had received in four years under President Hoover. The attorney stated that the Federal Government had received from the State less than $300,000,000 and that this had come from income taxes levied upon those best able to pay and from liquor and commodity taxes which he declared, are luxury taxes and do not come from the pockets of the average working man.

If elected to the legislature, John W. Decker will aim to represent alike all sections of Centre county, and will not permit outside interference in designating which roads are to be improved and which are not. We have a beautiful illustration of the present method in the selection of the Sinking Creek road, through Potter and Gregg townships, being selected for improvement under the Pinchot program, to the exclusion of another much used parallel road. The only reason the public has ever found for the designation of this particular road, one scarcely used at all, is the fact that the Hon. Less Shaffer, representing Millheim county in the Legislature, owns a farm along that road. A dicker Holmes in addresses admitted he dicker and claims to be an expert in the art. But it looks, judging from the bargains he got, as though he was a second rater, even as a dickerer.

William Schnader, when appointed Attorney General of Pennsylvania, had fourteen attorneys of his general staff, and the payroll of the Attorney General's Department was $124,620 annually. Now the Attorney General has a staff of forty persons with a payroll of $217,000 Schnader is traveling over the State telling the people he is for an economical administration.

Pinchot is for Reed for U. S. Senator, and, if elected, he hopes to furnish evidence to an investigating committee that will force the Senate to throw him out, as they did Vane. And then, should Schnader be elected governor, the bargain believed to be struck between Schnader and Pinchot will come through. That bargain provides for the appointment of Pinchot to the Senate by Schnader. Another reason why Schnader should not be elected governor.

REED SAID VETERANS ARE LOAFERS AND FREE BOARDERS
Herman Schwartz, Philadelphia County, Commander of the American Legion, calls upon every veteran in the State to join in the battle to defeat Senator David A. Reed. In a statement issued to veterans, Schwartz attacked Reed as a "foe of the veterans" who "has expressed his contempt for them, has voted against measures that would have aided their disabled and needy, and has opposed all efforts to compensate them for the losses and handicaps they incurred in service during the war." "Every veteran who takes pride in the uniform he wore will vigorously oppose the election of Senator Reed," the statement read.

"When Senator Reed said that American soldiers were 'loafers,' that disabled men in hospitals were probably 'staying to get free board,' that the hospitalized disabled were 'gold bricks' and 'shams,' he proved his contempt for the veteran and his unworthiness for public office." "When Senator Reed opposed measures sponsored by veterans' organizations that would have benefited the disabled and needy veterans, he proved his disregard for their rights and his unworthiness for public office."

CHILDREN ESCAPE FATAL INJURY IN AUTO ACCIDENTS
Billy Young, aged 4 years, while playing on Thomas street, Bellefonte, Thursday morning, ran in front of a car operated by J. Willard Barnhart, Jr. Mr. Barnhart was going slowly and was able to stop his car promptly. The child received slight injuries.

Kenneth Lucas, aged 10, of Millersburg, escaped serious injury when struck Thursday afternoon by a car operated by Mildred Holt, of Millersburg. The child suffered a fractured hand and body bruises.

PINCHOT, GOVERNOR OF PENN., HAS NO RESPECT FOR TRUTH

Pinchot, governor of the great State of Pennsylvania, has no respect whatever for the truth. Repeatedly during the campaign now on, as in former political campaigns, the governor has made false and misleading statements which he could not have followed knowing at the time to be false but that did not deter him. The latest misleading statements by the governor were made in an address in Erie where he made it appear that George H. Earle was largely interested financially in the Sugar Trust, and that every time a citizen used a spoonful of sugar he was paying tribute to Earle, the Democratic candidate for governor.

The truth, as stated by H. Edgar Barnes, counsel for the George H. Earle (Sr.) estate, that Mr. Earle, the candidate, has no interest in the Sugar Trust as stated by Pinchot, but he does have some interest as a stockholder in the Pennsylvania Sugar Company, one of the important independent sugar companies in this country.

Candidate Earle's income from this company is $916. per annum, as divided on stock. Of this sum $490 is his share from dividends held by the Earle estate, and $426 is from dividends on stock he holds in his own name.

Mr. Barnes, counsel for the Earle estate, makes this statement: "Mr. Earle has no other personal financial interest in the Pennsylvania Sugar Company."

"He resigned as sales manager of the company in May, 1928, but has continued as vice president of the company without any salary for purely sentimental reasons because of his father's identification with the concern."

"I want to say that the maximum holdings of the late Mr. Earle in the Pennsylvania Sugar Company were the 2130 shares now held by his estate."

Mr. Earle Sr. became interested in the Pennsylvania Sugar Company when he was appointed receiver of the concern in 1906 and by proceeding under the Sherman anti-trust act freed the company from the domination of the Sugar Trust. Since that time the Pennsylvania Sugar Company has been one of the important independent sugar companies in this country.

"I am counsel for the Earle estate just as I was counsel for the late Mr. Earle, and as I am Mr. Earle's attorney today."

"It is with the greatest reluctance that I have discussed the affairs of my clients. I have done so only to refute the absolutely untruthful and malicious statements of Governor Pinchot."

MATIS SUE FOR $121,000 DAMAGES FROM P. R. R. CO.

Charles J. Margiotti, prominent Pottsville attorney, will represent the plaintiff in the Centre county civil court when the Matis family seek to gain damages of $121,000 from the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

The case will involve the death of Mrs. John Matis and three of her children in a crash at Oak Hill last December.

The statement filed with the prothonotary and released revealed that Matis will claim that the train was being operated in a careless and negligent manner and was traveling at a high speed in an effort to make up time. The train was thirty minutes late at the crossing.

Matis will ask $25,000 for injuries to himself including permanent disability, destruction of automobile, $500; death and loss of services of his three children, $15,000; death of wife, $25,000, and burial of wife, $500.

In a second action Earl Matis, son of John, will seek $30,000 for himself and $10,000 for his father for the loss of his services.

A third claim is being brought by Miss Helen Matis and her mother (neither were in the car at the time of the accident) and amounts to $25,000.

Theodore C. Jackson, Esq., Phillipsburg, former Judge A. R. Chase, and Bolton and Bolton, of Clearfield, will assist Margiotti, while Kelley and Johnson, Phillipsburg attorneys, will represent the railroad company.

STONER—KEEFER

At the Lutheran parsonage, on Sunday, Paul Sylvester Stoner, of Newville and Miss Mary Jane Keefe, of Pleasant Hill, were united in marriage by Rev. S. F. Greenhoe. The bride comes from a former parish of the Rev. Mr. Greenhoe.

Some of the Republican candidates for Senate and Legislature continue their attempt at deception to the very last days of their campaign, especially do they do so as to their part in producing legislation involving appropriations. They threw out their chest and boast of the appropriation made for welfare, regardless of the fact the appropriation legislation they voted for is barren—cannot produce. The blind can vouch for this. Some of them got one check others two, others three, and more, none. By the first of December the aged, now hoping to realize on legislation, will find there are no funds to draw from. But the candidates keep on boasting; keep on attempting to deceive to the last.

LOCAL "HIGH" SOCCER HOLDS STATE TO SCORELESS TIE

The Centre Hall high school soccer team became eligible to compete for the county championship with Rebersburg by playing the strongly rejuvenated State College team to a scoreless tie, last Thursday, at State College. By virtue of this tie score the local club assured itself of the championship for the western division of the county league.

The Centre Hall team, hitherto undefeated and untied this season, was unable to crack the excellent defense of the College town boys, and had many anxious moments when they were hard pressed by the College's passing attack. Both teams had opportunities to score but failed in the pinches. The defensive work of Reish, Coldron and Homan, local fullbacks and goalies, was outstanding in preventing any State scores.

This Friday the local team will play the last regular season game at Boalsburg, where a very hard game is anticipated. Boalsburg, after a rather dismal beginning is coming to life as evidenced by their 2 to 0 victory over Hubersburg last Thursday.

The county championship series will begin Tuesday, November 6, at Centre Hall. The second game will be played at Rebersburg, Friday, November 9, and the third game, if necessary, will be played on some neutral field.

Thursday's results:
Centre Hall 0; State College 0 (two extra periods.)
Boalsburg 2; Hubersburg 0.

Standing of Western Division

| Won | Lost | Tied | Pts. |
|---------------|------|------|------|
| Centre Hall | 4 | 0 | 12 |
| Boalsburg | 2 | 3 | 0 |
| Hubersburg | 2 | 3 | 0 |
| State College | 1 | 3 | 1 |

DEMOCRATS ENTHUSED SATY NIGHT BY NOTED CAMPAIGNER

The word picture of Governor Pinchot drawn Saturday night by Adrienne Bonnelly was elucidating and necessarily highly amusing. He held his audience to attention to the last word, as he unfolded the duplicity of the governor, the messenger boy Reed, and Attorney General Schnader, the latter the Republican candidate for governor. The speaker was the campaign manager for Margiotti at the primaries, at which time he collected 200,000 independent Republican votes.

The occasion was a Democratic rally in the Court House at which former Judge Eliza Orvis acted as chairman. The court house was filled to capacity.

Other speakers were the local candidates and Dr. Howard G. Reynolds, an appointee of Governor Pinchot on the Penna. Milk Control Board.

ANOTHER ACCIDENT AT OLD FORT INTERSECTION

Mistaken calculations of an auto driver resulted in his car crashing a woven wire fence and into the T. F. Delaney barnyard at the intersection of the Easttown road and the State highway No. 52, close to the Old Fort. This driver, John Coyle, of Phillipsburg, did what a number of other drivers did heretofore—failed to note the intersection sign and was driving at too high speed to stop at the stop sign, consequently he dashed over the highway and through a fence. The net result was a wheel torn off the car and minor dents. None of the three occupants were injured. The accident happened at about 6:30 o'clock Saturday evening.

Many accidents have happened here, but fortunately the injuries to passengers have been extremely light. If any. It appears the Highway Department should erect adequate warnings of the approach of a very dangerous intersection, instead of the conventional T.

$45,000 FIRE IN PHILIPSBURG EARLY FRIDAY MORNING

One of the most damaging fires in recent years in Phillipsburg gutted the huge Hoffer and Brown building on Front street early Friday morning, at an estimated loss of $45,000, partially covered by insurance. The blaze, which was of undetermined origin, started in the basement of the Maurer hardware store and was discovered by Robert Kennard, Phillipsburg jeweler, at about 2:40 o'clock. Heroic rescue squads of Phillipsburg firemen were responsible for saving the lives of the occupants of the seven apartments in the second and third stories of the big structure.

The tenants of the building were caught like rats in a trap, being unable to use the Front street stairway for the thick cloud of smoke that enveloped the blaze and filled the rooms and hallways of the structure. The firemen rapidly raised ladders to the upper stories and aided the frightened and scantily clad tenants to escape to safety on the street below.

POMONA GRANGE MEETING.

A special meeting of Centre County Pomona Grange will be held in Logan Grange hall, Pleasant Gap, Thursday evening, November 8th, at which time the fifth degree will be conferred in full form by the State College grange degree team.

Fearing snow by Wednesday, the State road men are erecting snow fences.

GRANGE HALLOWEEN PARTY PROVES BIG SUCCESS

The Halloween party held by Progress Grange last Friday night, was largely attended. Games, guessing contests, music, and the masked parade featured. Prizes awarded were: For the largest family, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Runkle and their sixteen little "pickaninnies;" for the fatest person, Mrs. George Ralston; for the tallest person, Hayes Ralston; for the best dressed couple, Mrs. John Rudy and Vesta Blausler; for the most ridiculous, Mrs. Earl White and Mrs. John Blausler. Fred Slack guessed the nearest to the number of grains on a large ear of corn; Thomas Delaney the nearest to the number of seeds in a small pumpkin. Refreshments were served.

The committee desires to thank everyone for their hearty cooperation in making the evening a success.

Rev. Zang Holds Religious Service at Treaster Kettle Camp.

When Rev. Zang and his helpers entered the recreation hall at the Treaster Kettle Camp to hold the second religious service on Sunday evening, they were surprised to find that since the last service the men had been busy improving their choir corner. It is now provided with hymn book racks that showed excellent craftsmanship. One of the men had arranged attractive displays of evergreens. The service was well attended.

SEARSON HORSE SALE SUCCESS

The sale of western horses, on Monday, by James D. Searson, was an entire success, all animals, twenty-one horses and four colts, having been sold with the exception of a bay team of two-year-olds, for the sum of $2354.50.

POULTRY SPECIALIST TO GIVE DEMONSTRATIONS NEXT WEEK

The attention of Centre County poultrymen is called by County Agent R. C. Blaney, to nine meetings arranged in as many communities in Centre county to be held in poultry management demonstration farms next week. The proper marketing and handling of eggs is one of the big problems of Centre county poultrymen. John Vandervort, poultry extension specialist of State College, will show various types of packing cases, methods of packing, discuss storage of eggs, also the most economical feeding methods to follow this coming year.

The schedule of meetings is as follows:
Monday, November 5—Chester Eves, Stormstown; 1:30 p. m.
Monday, November 5—Guy Stearns, Lemont; 3:30 p. m.
Wednesday, November 7—Cloyd R. Brooks, Centre Hall; 10 a. m.
Wednesday, November 7—Ed. Houtz, Bellefonte; 1:30 p. m.
Wednesday, November 7—Herbert Schneek, Howard; 3:30 p. m.
Thursday, November 8—Maurice Miller, Madisonburg; 10 a. m.
Thursday, November 8—O. B. Shawver, Millheim; 1:30 p. m.
Thursday, November 8—Thibben Zuber, Spring Mills; 3:30 p. m.
Friday, November 9—Hobart Thompson, Phillipsburg; 10 a. m.

These demonstrations will be held at the above farms and all poultrymen are urged to take advantage of these meetings.

FORMER POTTER TWP. BOY TELLS OF CALIFORNIA FLOOD

George W. Page, a former Potter township youth, now living in Los Angeles, California, sends the Reporter a Herald-Express, Los Angeles newspaper, date of October 18th, telling by word and picture of the most recent flood in that State. George writes to us as follows:

"I am sending a paper with a little news of another flood here in California, at the same location as on New Year's day of 1934, but not quite as bad as then—but bad enough. The water in the streets of Los Angeles in several sections was over the curb. This country is just floods, then earthquakes. You will notice an article about a 'quake in Long Beach in this paper—but we live here, anyway. You will remember about me in connection with the flood of 1928 when the St. Francis dam broke and around 600 or 700 lives were lost—George W. Page, 133, Weller St., Los Angeles, Calif."

GILMORE—HOSTERMAN.

John Eugene Gilmore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gilmore, of near Millheim and Miss Sarah Mae Hosterman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Hosterman, of Coburn, were united in marriage at the parsonage of the First Evangelical church, of Williamsport, last Friday by the Rev. Homer Heislery.

ULRICH—ANDERS.

From the Millheim Journal it is learned that F. S. Ulrich and Mrs. Maude Anders stole a march on their friends by slipping quietly away Tuesday morning, to Camp Hill, Pa. where they were married by the Rev. E. C. Tribley, of the Lutheran church.

Mr. Ulrich, an employee of the Hosterman and Stover Co., took his bride, upon their return Tuesday night, to his home on East Main street.

Mrs. Ulrich, who has been a resident of Millheim since early summer, is the mother of Mrs. Nell Burger.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS.

HAPPENINGS OF LOCAL INTEREST FROM ALL PARTS

Christmas cards, in any amount, at reasonable prices; at my home at any time.—Helen Blitner, Centre Hall.

Mrs. W. H. Strohecker and Miss Ruth Reiber visited friends in Philadelphia the past week. Miss Ruth drove the Strohecker car.

The number of law enforcement officers in the forests during the hunting season will be very much increased under a policy adopted by the Game Commission.

A card received at this office from Roger T. Bayard, of Tyrone, says that he and Mrs. Bayard are making a tour of the Gulf States, and that for two days and nights they were in New Orleans.

Mrs. Walter Yocum, of Lewistown, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Klinefelter, near town, during last week, and in company with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Fred Klinefelter, Jr., called at this office.

Mrs. Eugene Lee, of State College, formerly Miss Elizabeth Bierly, of Rebersburg, continues to be popular with her set in her home town. As proof of this the young people tendered her a variety shower at the home of her parents.

Friday afternoon Miss Cherry Jodon drove to Johnstown and brought back with her Hughes Brininger, and Saturday the couple went on to Selinsgrove where they witnessed a football game on the Susquehanna University field.

A. E. Mingle, of Coburn, is preparing to discontinue the mercantile business he conducted for a number of years and become a representative for the Equitable Life Insurance Co. of New York. He is now an appraiser for the Home Owners' Loan Corporation.

Rev. C. C. Shuey filled appointments on the Penna Valley Lutheran charge for the pastor, Rev. S. F. Greenhoe, on Sunday. Rev. Greenhoe, on Saturday, following the funeral of A. E. Kerlin, one of his members, had a relapse, and on Sunday was obliged to be in bed.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Mitterling on Friday took the day off to make a trip of business and pleasure combined to Williamsport. They were accompanied by their daughter, Miss Miriam. Mrs. J. M. Coldron and Mrs. H. E. Fye had charge of the Mitterling cafe during their absence.

Two cars were damaged to the extent of about $100 a few nights ago in a crash near Martha Furnace when a machine driven by Mrs. William Harter, Willowbank street, Bellefonte, and a second auto operated by Russell Weaver, Julian, R. D. 1, sideswiped. None of the passengers were injured.

Those who seek recreation in the mountains and do so by driving automobiles are cautioned against driving on roads where this sign is displayed: "Emergency Fire Trail—Vehicle Trespass Prohibited." The roads so marked will be found to be roads recently constructed by CCC camp workers and are designated as Citizen's Conservation Corps roads.

Rev. John F. Harkins, pastor of the Grace Lutheran church, State College, on returning from Savannah, Georgia, where he attended the convention of the United Lutheran Church of America, was very favorably impressed with the convention city. The gathering was attended by 550 delegates and as many visitors from all parts of the United States and Canada.

William Gruenwald, of South Dakota, who held a satisfactory sale of western horses at Centre Hall Monday of last week, departed for his western home by auto, last Thursday, accompanied by his brother, Walter Gruenwald, and wife. Mr. Gruenwald informed the Reporter he had two mules and a horse left unsold at his last sale, and that these animals are being taken care of on the Ginterich farm west of town. Anyone interested in the purchase of any of these animals, should see Bruce Arney or George Lohr.

Approximately three hundred members of the Eastern Star attended the annual District meeting held at Williamsport on October 25th. One of the many inspiring addresses was given by the Worthy Grand Matron, Florence A. Plummer. Among those who attended from the local Chapter of the O. E. S. were: Minerva Keener, Ruth Wetzel, and Gladys Brooks. Also Theress Decker, of Spring Mills, and the following from Millheim: Lida McCloskey, Irene Cummings, Hattie Hinds, Kathryn Smith, Winifred Masek, May Gramley, Mabel Marsh and Kathryn McMullen.

The foundation for a three-story business block to be erected by Morris Fromm in State College is now being laid. It is the largest building operation in sight in the college town. On Friday the first injury to a workman occurred when the earthen walls of a ditch, caved in, firmly holding Harry Gearhart, of Pine Grove Mills, until released by workmen. Isaac Emery, who was engaged at work close to Gearhart, was one of several men who quickly released the unfortunate man. The injuries sustained consisted of many body bruises caused by the "squeeze."
