THOMPSON KNITTING MILL, LEWISTOWN, TO REOPEN WITH 200 WORKMEN

Shut down and boarded up for the last eight years since the sudden death of Andrew Thompson, head of the firm, the old Thompson Brothers knitting mill located in Lewistown will be reopened within the next ten days under new management, according to a recent announcement.

The mill and equipment was purchased by Mrs. Helen McCartney, of Reedsville, at present superintendent of the Millfin Hosiery Mill at Millroy, for a group of several New York men, it was said. The final transaction was completed a few days ago and the deed turned over to Mrs. McCartney.
The purchase price was not named, but it was said on good authority to have been $15,000.

Mrs. McCartney announced that electricians and other mechanics were to start work at once in renovating the mill and the installation of necessary machinery in place of the now obsolete machinery in the plant. It is believed that production can be started within the next ten days or two weeks.

The local plant was operated by the Thompson brothers, Walter and Andrew, in connection with a similar mill at Millroy and employed 250 persons.
During the war and following the war the Thompson family established a fortune with their product.

While Mrs. McCartney would make no statement as to the number to be employed, it is believed that the plant will give work to at least 200 persons once under way.

SPRING MILLS YOUNG PEOPLE.

The community young people's organization, representing the churches of Spring Mills, held its first meeting in the Methodist church Sunday evening.
Judging from early response and interest shown on the part of the young people it would seem that the organization is destined to contribute considerably to the life of the community.

Rev. Russell of the Methodist church has been appointed counsellor of the group, by the Ministerium. Adam Condo has been elected secretary-treasurer.

The age limits of the group are 14 to 25 years. The meetings are held Sunday evening in the various churches of the town.

Motion pictures of the World's Fair at Chicago will be exhibited in Grange Arenada, Centre Hall, Saturday evening of this week, beginning at 7:00 o'clock, under the auspices of the Vogt Motor Company, dealers in Ford cars in this place. The picture will emphasize "Ford and a Century of Progress." For further details read the display advertisement on last page of this issue.

Note that the thank-offering service which had been announced for November 25 in the Presbyterian church has been postponed until December 2 7:30 p. m.

Deaths

LANE.—Mrs. Bertha May Lane died on Sunday at the home of her son, Thomas Lane, in Aaronsburg, where she was born December 2, 1865. Services were held at the home Wednesday evening, and Thursday the body was conveyed to Tyrone, the former home of the deceased, for interment. Rev.
Lesher of the Lutheran church was in charge of the services.

The deceased was a daughter of Noah and Sara (Mowery) Litzell. She was twice married—first to Mr. Beau-ver and later to Harry Lane. The surviving children are George and Harry Beaver, Youngstown, Ohio, and Thomas Lane, Aaronsburg.

There also survive her two sisters and two brothers, namely, Mrs. F. S.
Tomlinson and Mrs. F. J. Stover, Aaronsburg; James C. Litzell, Plainfield, Illinois.

Mrs. Lane was aged 65 years and 15 days.

BREON.—Mrs. Emma Breon, widow of Perry H. Breon, died at the home of her daughter, Bessie, wife of George I. Barnes, in Webb City, Missouri, according to a telegram received by Clayton H. Homan, in Centre Hall.

The body arrived in Bellefonte Wednesday afternoon and was conveyed to Centre Hall by Undertaker F. V.
Goodhart, where interment was made immediately upon arrival by the side of the remains of her husband who died in 1915.

Death was due to an affection of the thyroid gland.

The deceased is survived by two children—Morris Breon, of Newport News, Va., and Mrs. Barnes, at whose home the death occurred. There also survives her a half-sister, Mrs. Annie (Roush) Detwiler, Spring Mills.

BOYER.—Mrs. Emma Royer, aged 70 years, wife of Joel S. Royer, died at her home in Zion Monday night of last week with complications. Her husband survives, with one sister, Mrs.
Frank Clevestine, of Zion, and two brothers, Otis Garbrick, of Dakota, Illinois, and Roy Garbrick, of Centre Hall. Funeral services were conducted at the Zion Lutheran church, Friday afternoon, in charge of the Rev.
J. Paul Keller, assisted by the Rev.
James Musser. Burial was made in the Zion cemetery. Mrs. Royer was an active member of the Lutheran church.

O'CONNOR.—Charles F. O'Conner, after having been a patient in the Centre County hospital for a month, died there on Friday morning from heart and kidney trouble. He was aged thirty-six years. The body was brought to the Goodhart morgue and prepared for burial, and Saturday afternoon was shipped by rail to Cleveland, Ohio, for interment.

The deceased was a member of the transient camp at Colyer. He was a man of reserved manner, and little is known of his past. The body was claimed by a sister, Mrs. Detarmo, who made provision for payment of the undertaker's services and transportation of the body.

This is the third death to have occurred at the transient camp since its formation early last summer.

the same week, within the borders of Classis, one at Howard and the other at Kratzerville.

GRADE PUPILS TO HOLD INDOOR CARNIVAL AND CIRCUS

Pupils in the grade schools will hold an indoor carnival and circus, in the local high school building, Friday afternoon and evening of this week.

Features of the main show are music, songs, recitations, plays and other attractions. The circus has the following side shows: Fortune telling, art museum, "Green Pig," "Sweetest Thing on Earth," and "Seven Ways Girl's Go Wrong."

There will be candy, ice cream and pop corn for sale—all home-made.

An admission fee of 25c and 15c will be charged; all under the age of 12 admitted free. Come and enjoy yourself, and while doing so you are also helping the school.

BRIDGE PARTY.

Mrs. George H. Stover, on Monday evening of last week gave a bridge party at her home in Centre Hall to a number of her married and single friends. During the evening refreshments were served.

PROGRAM OF ANNUAL MEETING C. C. AG. EX. ASSOCIATION

The annual meeting of the Centre County Agricultural Extension Association will be held in Logan Grange hall at Pleasant Gap on Saturday, November 24.

The meeting will start promptly at

This program will show many activities of the Agricultural Extension program in Centre county.

Jacob Smith, a collector of delinquent school taxes in Scranton, charged and convicted of embezzlement, was sentenced by Judge Fleming to a prison term of five to ten years and a fine of $7,000. Smith coughed $48,000.

EAST END LOCALS.

The following news items are reprinted from the Millheim Journal:

An LWD project, employing fifty-two laborers, two foremen and a timekeeper, will begin on Monday when work on the road in Pine Creek Hollow from the mouth of the hollow will commence. This road was started by CWA labor last winter and will be finished under the supervision of the Department of Forests and Waters by laborers taken chiefly from the direct relief rolls in the section nearest the job.

B. F. Heckert and son, B. F., Jr., and Jean Hosterman, of town, and Miss Esta Musser, of Madisonburg, motored to Pittsburgh last Thursday and were guests for several days of Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Moore. Mrs.
Heckert, who had spent a week in that city, returned with them on Sunday.

During the absence of Mr. and Mrs.
T. A. Auman from their home in Rebersburg, Miss Martha Boal, of town, kept the home going. Mr. and Mrs. Auman visited Ralph Gramley, at Potyfort, Luzerne county, from where they went to Scarsdale, N.Y., to be with their son, Rev. Russell Auman, and family.

The buildings of the CCC camp in the Woodward Narrows are being dismantled. The material will be salvaged and made available for use in other CCC camps. This camp was but recently vacated by about two hundred occupants who moved bag and baggage to Sinnamahoning.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Wagner and daughter, Betty, of Millheim, early Tuesday morning departed by automobile for Miami, Florida. The condition of Mr. Wagner's health demands a milder climate and they expect to spend the winter in the land of sunshine.

A. B. Mingle, Coburn merchant, disposed of his merchandise to the Eastern Sales System, Philadelphia.

Mrs. George W. Long, of Penna Cave, was a brief caller on Wednesday, and while here stated that her daughter, Mary, now Mrs. Howard Ruenig, Ridgeway, was improving somewhat physically. Within the past year she underwent three operations —in January, June and October. Her husband is connected with the department of Forests and Waters.
