GOOD APPOINTMENTS.

If the entire personnel of the next governor's cabinet is to be of the calibre of that part of it with which this community has had intimate acquaintance, it will be a body of strong persons. We refer particularly to his selection of Charles J. Margiotti as attorney general and Warren Van Dyke as secretary of highways. Mr. Margiotti's appointment has spectacular aspects. Six months ago he was a candidate for governor. Incensed at what he termed to be a stacking of cards against him, in the primaries, he came out for Earle in the general election. His appointment of course, is therefore a reward for that action, but it brings into the position one of the bar leaders of this state whose name, in large portions of the state, is almost a household word. The appointment of Mr. Van Dyke is without doubt the most deserving reward for loyalty to an apparently lost cause and sticking everlastingly to a task that seemed to be futile. If it were not for the Warren Van Dykes of this state there would be no Democracy in Pennsylvania. A short snap of the arm could land a pebble back in the days when Mr. Van Dyke seemed to be the only state-Democrat in Pennsylvania. He took organization positions and made much of them when some people almost laughed at him and wondered why a man could be so foolishly loyal. His allegiance to his party was never motivated by the hope that he might some day get something out of it. He was a true Democrat and his elevation now to a position which perhaps more than any other in the state government calls for integrity and efficiency is none too rich a reward for what he has contributed to his party in this commonwealth.

Deaths

KRAPE.—Charles Alonzo Krape died in the Centre County hospital from complications, having been ill for several months immediately prior to his death. It was the second attempt to aid him in the hospital named. The death occurred early Friday morning. Interment was made at Spring Mills on Monday forenoon in the Spring Mills cemetery, Rev. L. V. Leshor, of the Aaronsburg Lutheran charge, and Rev. Seth Russell, of the Spring Mills Methodist charge, officiating.

Mr. Krape was the son of George and Anna (Best) Krape and was born in Clinton county, November 3, 1859, making his age 75 years, 29 days. He had lived at Spring Mills for fifty years, where he had been engaged in the creamery business, served as postmaster, at the same time conducting a shoe store. At the time of his death he was living retired.

He is survived by a widow who before marriage was Miss Bertie Fetterolf. There were no children, but Miss Delois Morris was taken into the home when a small child. She is now teaching school in Doylestown. There also survive the deceased two brothers, Alfred P. Krape, Centre Hall, and Howard C. Krape, Middletown, and two sisters, Miss Chestle Krape, and Mrs. Florence Rearick, both of California.

GENTZEL.—Death claimed a well-known resident of State College on Thursday morning when Mrs. Ella May Gentzel, wife of John B. Gentzel, 132 South Allen Street, died after an illness of more than a year. Death was due to a heart condition.

Mrs. Gentzel was born in Potter township, January 22, 1871, making her nearly 63 years of age. She was the daughter of Joseph and Agnes Shires Shirk, both of whom preceded her in death.

The deceased was married in January, 1890, to Mr. Gentzel. She was a member of the State College Lutheran church and had made her home in State College for the past twelve years.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Gentzel is survived by two sons, Roy and Gilbert, of Maple Park, Ill., and on sister, Mrs. Tamer Kerns, of near Potters Mills. Nine grandchildren and one great grandchild also survive.

Mrs. Harry Burris and Mrs. Daniel Bloom, both of near Centre Hall, are nieces of the deceased.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 2 p. m. from the Goodhart funeral parlors in Centre Hall, and later at the Penn Hall Lutheran church, with Rev. J. F. Harkins officiating.

KERN.—Harry Kern, a resident of Bellefonte, died suddenly, presumably of apoplexy, while seated at a table in his home drinking a cup of coffee. Mr. Kern had just entered the house, apparently in good health.

Deceased was born and reared near Linden Hall and was aged 64 years.

He is survived by his wife, Jane (Morrison) Kern and the following children: Harry, Jr., Mrs. Melvin Dry and Robert, all of Bellefonte. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Jeanette Auman, of Millheim. Burial was made at Bellefonte on Friday afternoon.

HOY.—Miss Anna Harris Hoy, one of Bellefonte's most prominent women civic leaders and a highly respected citizen of that community, died at her home Monday of last week.

Although she had been ill for some time her general condition was not considered serious until recently when she gradually grew weaker until the end came.

Miss Hoy was the daughter of the late Judge Adam and Louise M. Harris Hoy and was born in Bellefonte 59 years ago. Her father, Judge Hoy, was appointed president judge of the district in 1883, by Governor Pattison.

CONFER.—Milford E. Confer, of Loganton, R. D., died suddenly on Wednesday morning of last week at 10 o'clock, of a cerebral hemorrhage. Mr. Confer was assisting in building a lime kiln on the farm of E. E. Douty, when he fell to the ground. He was dead before help reached him. He was 65 years of age. He is survived by his wife and four daughters and two sons; Mrs. Jennie Gilbert, of Wolfs Store; Mrs. Dora Belle Lowery, of Tyrone; Mrs. Sarah Confer and Mrs. Laura Confer, of Smulton; Foster Confer, of Loganton, R. D., and Forest Confer, at home. The remaining sisters are Mrs. Dora Heller, Lock Haven; Mrs. William Searfoss, of Millburg; and Mrs. James Gunsalus, of New Cumberland. Funeral services were held Saturday morning in the Green Grove Evangelical church, conducted by Rev. L. A. Fulman. Interment was made in the cemetery adjoining the church.

The Wallace Gates State highway project in the Lewisport Narrows is nearing completion. Both lanes of concrete have been poured and the bridges erected. The center lane of asphalt is being constructed as rapidly as material can be produced at Nagney. The concrete roadway thru the narrows is now open to traffic. After the center lane is laid the ferms will receive attention.

The defunct Penns Valley Banking Company, this week, paid its 17 1/2 per cent, payment to depositors. This, however, does not mean that the institution has liquidated seventy-five per cent. of its indebtedness, since none of the stockholders profited in any of the five instalments.

Centre Hog-Corn Control Association to Pay Out $2769.60, December 4

C. H. Campbell, treasurer, has received the initial Corn-Hog payment checks which he will distribute to contract signers at their headquarters in the First National Bank, Centre Hall, on Tuesday, December 4, from 9 until 12 A. M.

The initial payment to twenty-eight contract signers in Centre county totals $2769.60—$957.60 for corn and $1812.00 for hogs.

There are 31 contract signers in the county, of which 23 have contracted corn and hogs—four hogs only and four corn only. Contracted corn acreage is 205.4 acres and contracted hogs are 389.5.

The total payment to all contract signers will be $7,943.39 less expenses of the county association, and will represent payment of 30 cents per bushel on an estimated yield of 7374 bushels of corn and payment on 1146 hogs.

Contracts expire December 1st, but before the final payment is made the supervisor for the County Association will have to make a final check to see that all have fully complied with their contract and must so certify to the chief of the Corn-Hog section at Washington.

NEW REGULATIONS ON HOG PROCESSING TAX

New regulations have been issued on the Hog Processing Tax which will be of interest to everyone engaged in slaughtering, or rehandling or otherwise preparing pork products for market or to any hotel, restaurant, club, hospital, or similar establishments. The outline of the new regulations as contained in a telegram received by the Scranton District and released locally by F. G. Hoffer, Deputy Collector of United States Internal Revenue, whose office is located in the new post office building at Bellefonte.

The telegram follows: (Under regulations Secretary Agriculture effective November 1, 1934, producers or feeders not considered first domestic processor with respect to sales or exchanges of carcasses or edible hog products to persons engaged in reselling, rehandling or otherwise preparing such products for market or any restaurant, hotel, club, hospital, or similar establishments. In such cases first domestic processing means the initial act of the person, restaurant, etc. which involves the preparation of such products for further distribution or use. Preparation for further distribution or use includes any operation connected with receiving, handling, storing, cutting, rendering.

Under the new regulations the exemptions are as follows:

"The producer who sells directly to or exchanges directly with the consumer not more than three hundred (300) pounds of the products derived therefrom, during any marketing year, is unnecessary to effectuate the declared policy of the Act. Accordingly, I do hereby exempt from the processing tax, hogs processed by the producer thereof who sells directly to or exchanges directly with the consumer not more than three hundred (300) pounds of the products derived therefrom during the marketing year. Provided, however, that if the producer processes hogs produced by him and sells directly to or exchanges directly with the consumer during any marketing year, products derived therefrom in excess of one thousand pounds, he shall be entitled to the foregoing exemption, but shall pay the processing tax on the excess above 300 pounds, restored to a live-weight basis.

Provided further, that if the producer processes hogs produced by him and sells or exchanges more than one thousand pounds of the products derived therefrom, during the marketing year, he shall not be entitled to the foregoing exemption."

foregoing exemption." Processors subject to processing tax should secure blanks and make a remittance for same on or before the last day of the following month in which the slaughtering was done

MATIS VS. P. R. CO. DAMAGE CASE SETTLED OUT OF COURT FOR $30,000 FOR ALL CLAIMS

The case of John Matis vs. the Pennsylvania Railroad company which went on trial beginning of last week in the Centre county court, came to an abrupt close Wednesday afternoon, when it was agreed to settle out of court. According to the information furnished the amount of the settlement was $30,000, divided as follows: John Matis, $15,000; his son, Earl, $10,000 and his daughter, Helen, $5,000.

John Matis' $15,000 was divided as follows: to him for personal injuries, $7,000; for the death of his wife, $5,000; and for the death of his daughters, Dorothy and Marie, and son, John, Jr., $1,000 each.

Earl Matis, one of the survivors, was awarded $4,000 through his father, for loss of services, and $6,000 in his own right, or a total of $10,000.

For injuries sustained by Helen Matis, John's sister, the jury awarded $2,000 to her mother, Mary Matis, and $3,000 to her in her own right, or a total of $5,000.

The original suit brought by Matis against the railroad company was for slightly more than $125,000 in three separate cases, the first by John Matis; the second by Earl Matis and his father and next friend, John Matis and John Matis in his own right; and the third by Helen Matis by her mother and next friend, Mrs. Mary Matis and Mary Matis in her own right. The case of John Matis was on trial when it was announced that a settlement had been effected, presumably by Attorney Charles J. Margiotti, of Punxsutawney, who is said to have been interested in the case, but did not appear in court, with the railroad officials in Philadelphia.
