At the Moderne Beauty Shop in Centre Hall, on Friday afternoon, December 7th, will be given a demonstration wave. Ladies of the town and vicinity are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Goodhart and Mr. and Mrs. W. Kerlin attended a concert given in Milton on Tuesday evening by the Symphony Orchestra, made up of musicians from Milton and Sunbury.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Sachis and two children Kenneth and George, Jr., of Washington, D. C., were guests of Mrs. Sachis' mother, Mrs. Margaret Godshall, from Thursday to Sunday afternoon.

Miss Anna Jane Musser was a Thanksgiving day guest of her aunt, Mrs. F. V. Goodhart. The young lady is a senior in the Mill Hall High school, where her parents lived when she entered high school.

A cow belonging to Claude Wert, west of Tusseyville, on route 322, was hit by an automobile driven by Mr. Stewart, of Lewistown, on Saturday. Both hind legs of the animal were broken.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bickhart, Abner Jones and John Ellis, all of Chester, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Martz during the past week. The gentlemen in the party joined a group of local day hunters, in a chase for the wily buck deer.

Mrs. Margaret Godshall and daughter, Miss Eva Bailey, motored to Altoona Friday where they were guests of the former's brother, Arthur Kilina. On returning on Saturday they stopped off at State College with the son of Mrs. Godshall.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Reifsnnyder, daughter Shirley and Miss Lois V. Reifsnnyder, of Millheim, motored to New Market, Va., Friday, and returned Sunday, accompanied by Miss Jennie K. Reifsnnyder, who spent the month of November there, the guest of Rev. E. T. Bollinger and mother, Mrs. M. E. Bollinger.

While Mr. and Mrs. Clay W. Reesman, of Camden, N. J., were guests of the Bartholomew family, Mr. Reesman became ill, threatened with pneumonia, and was obliged to return home by train over the Main line, on Tuesday. A telephone message received on arrival in Camden to the effect that he stood the trip fairly well.

Lloyd Kerlin and sons, Frank and Gus, of Harrisburg, spent Saturday with the hunters in Seven Mountains. The first son named is a supervising principal of one of the Harrisburg high schools and was therefore obliged to be in the capital city Monday morning, which accounts for the short hunting session.

The annual alumni banquet of the Centre Hall High school will be held Saturday, December 22nd, at 7:00 P. M., in the local high school building. The banquet will be served by the High School Athletic Association at a cost of sixty cents per plate. A program is being planned by the committee in charge, appropriate to the occasion.

Daniel I. Lutz, janitor at McAllister hall, Penn State College, was hit by a car driven by W. C. Cramer, a young man of State College, while walking on the road a short distance of the State College boro line, on Saturday evening. Severe contusions and minor lacerations resulted. He is said to have stepped directly in the path of the car.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ebright and daughter, Miss Betty, were Thanksgiving day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer R. Kraybill, Rheems, Lancaster county. Miss Evelyn Kraybill, a roommate of Miss Betty at Penn State, accompanied the Ebrights to the Lancaster county home. They also called on Mrs. J. E. Spangler, formerly Miss Margaret Luse, the chief attraction being Baby Spangler.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Delaney over the Thanksgiving vacation to see "Grandma" Gunshall, who is not in very good health at this time, were Charles Gunshall and wife and grandson, Richard Gunshall, Miles Gunshall and wife, of Lock Haven; Mark Robb and wife, of Wilkesburg; Miss Mae Hartman, of Reading; Miss Margaret Delaney, student of State Teachers' College, Lock Haven.

I. A. ("Bob") Sweetwood, who eleven years ago removed with his family from Centre Hall to Norris-town, came up to Centre Hall the latter part of last week to visit former associates. Mr. Sweetwood, since leaving here, has been engaged continuously in highway construction work—so continuously, in fact, that in eleven years he has missed but two days' work. He reports the Sweetwood family all well, and busy.

Miss Jane Campbell, Penn State '37, on Thanksgiving day entertained a few of her college chums at the home of her mother Mrs. R. P. Campbell, Penna. Cave. The young ladies were Miss Laura Lodge, McConnellsburg; Mary Ellen Ealey, Somerset; and Miss Lou Davy, Allentown. Her cousin, Paul Campbell, State College, a law student; her brother, William Campbell, also a Penn State student, and the remainder of the Campbell family, also surrounded the board.

During November seventy-five corporations in New York distributed nearly $43,000,000 in dividends over and above the rates previously prevailing. More than $34,000,000 of this went through the extra dividend route. At the same time there were many corporations which resumed dividend payments, announced stock dividends and paid something on account of dividends previously deferred.

CAR OF MISSING STATE COLLEGE J. OF P. FOUND IN W. VA.

The Oakland sedan belonging to D. E. Wentzel, a State College justice of the peace, was found on November 16, at Princeton, West Virginia, but there is no clue of the whereabouts of Mr. Wentzel who disappeared from his home two days prior to the finding of the Oakland. No reason can be discovered for his leaving home.

Red Cross Report Next Week.

A report of the Red Cross drive in Centre Hall with a list of the members contributing, will appear next week. Any who care to do so may still contribute to the cause.

The Junior class promises you an evening of real entertainment. All public support will be appreciated. Admission: adults, 25c; children, 15c.

Will Rogers Picks A Story For This Spot

By WILL ROGERS

THE Worst Joke I heard today was told to me by another Englishman, but it's a good Burglar Story. A Burglar was robbing a house as quietly as possible, but his shoes were not padded and they were making a noise. He had just reached the door of the bedroom when he heard a woman's voice, "If you don't take off your shoes when you come into this house there is going to be trouble! Here it's been raining for three hours and you dare tramp over my carpet with your muddy feet! Go downstairs and take 'em off!" He went downstairs without a word, but he didn't take his shoes off. He went into the night again and the Pal who was waiting outside for him saw a tear glisten in his eye as he replied, "I can't rob this house. It's too much like home."
