STARTING FROM HERE.

For nearly five years practically every individual and every community in the United States has been caught in the grip of the worst depression yet known. Starting in 1929—but we are quite familiar with the details. Furthermore, all of us are "fed up" with the depression by now.

Isn't it about time that we as individuals and as a community, turn our backs to the past and look more hopefully and confidently toward the future? Aren't we in danger of thinking and talking so much about what has already happened that it may warp our viewpoints? We believe so. And who is there to say that a smile and an optimistic outlook are not genuine aids to achievement?

We are now approaching what used to be the merriest season of the year—Christmas. Why not make it an outstanding Christmas—a starting point from which to build? Why not accept our present responsibilities with a smile and celebrate the holiday with even more gusto than in days gone by? Let's all turn in and generate an enthusiasm that can well be the beginning of real progress for everyone?

Let's have a return of the old-fashioned Spirit of Christmas. Let's do everything possible to please the children—to give them the merriest holiday of their lives. A new little toy will mean many a happy hour to the child. And the grown-ups in the family—all will appreciate a remembrance of some sort, no matter how small that remembrance may be. Keep in mind too, that it's the giver who is made happiest in the exchange of gifts!

Let every home in this community have a Christmas tree! Put it up early—and let it twinkle with sparkling decorations and lights. Let there be a light or two in the windows and doorway of your home—shining every night to wish each visitor and passer-by a Merry Christmas.

Starting with Christmas, 1934, let every person in Centre Hall young and old, help to usher in a New Era of Cheer!

FUSSEYVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. James Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bogdan spent Monday evening at the Calvin Bostorf home.

Rev. Zaag called at the S. T. Swartz home Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Walker from Altoona, visited friends and relatives in this vicinity, Saturday.

C. W. Swartz, of State College, was Saturday caller in town.

Mrs. Arthur Holderman spent Sunday afternoon at the Charles Wynne home at State College.

The many friends of Mrs. Paul Wilson learned with regret of her death at the Centre County hospital, Monday.

On reaching their camps in Seven Mountains at the beginning of the present deer season, a number of clubs were surprised to find the camp had been robbed of many easily removed articles. The Pottstown camp was cleaned out of dishes, cooking utensils and bed clothing.

Deaths

YEAGER.—Mrs. Ruth (Tripple) Yeager, prominent in the affairs of Bellefonte, died at her home on Spring street, Monday afternoon, following complications.

Funeral services will be held at her late home this (Thursday) afternoon, and burial made in the Union cemetery.

Her marriage to Harry C. Yeager took place in 1900. The husband and two sons—Malcolm W., of Perth Amboy N. J., and Jack at home, survive. Also, two sisters, Mrs. Mary Geisinger, Bellefonte, and Mrs. G. W. Kerstetter, Harrisburg. The parents of the deceased were William and Macada Wilson Tripple. She was prominently connected with the D. A. R. and other county-wide and local organizations.

GORDON.—John F. Gordon, faithful employee of the Titan Metal Company and a well known resident of Bellefonte, died at his work Tuesday morning of last week when he was stricken with a sudden heart attack.

He deceased was born June 2, 1872, at Hollidaysburg, making his age 62 years, 6 months and 2 days. He was the son of Henry and Mary Clark.

On March 9, 1895, he was united in marriage with Miss Mary Clark, who survives, along with the following children: Samuel F. Gordon, Bellefonte; Mrs. Pearl Fya, Runville; Mrs. Effie Sunday, Zion; George E. Gordon, Lewistown, and Ruth Gordon, at home.

WILSON.—Mrs. Jennie Wilson died at the Centre County hospital, on Sunday, from pernicious anemia, at the age of 22 years, 11 months and one day. Funeral services were held from the home near Colyer, with burial at Boalsburg on Wednesday.

The deceased was the daughter of B. F. and Gertrude (Shope) Neff, and was born in Harris township. She is survived by three children, namely, Dean Theodore, Bety Ann and Jane Marie; also by her parents, and three brothers and sisters: Joseph Neff and Mrs. Leslie Houser, State College; Miss Ella Ishler, Pleasant Gap; Mrs. Evaline Hart, Cokerton; George, Howard, Benjamin, Ruth and Chester Neff, Shingletown.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

A twelve-ton steel girder, 75 feet long, was manufactured at Milton to be used in a bridge at Millinburg. The truck carrying the girder was routed over roads without sharp curves.

The choir of the Evangelical church will present a Christmas Cantata entitled "Bethlehem Echoes," on Christmas eve (Monday, Dec. 24), at 7:45 o'clock. Pictures of Bethlehem will be shown in connection with the service.

Miss Elizabeth Bartholomew, on Thursday, went to Altoona to visit with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bartholomew, and Saturday Miss Helen Bartholomew, accompanied by Mrs. C. D. Bartholomew, and daughter Jean, and Miss Doris Moltz, motored to the Blair county metropolis and brought her home with them.

A searching party was led by Deputy Sheriff John A. Bower to South Potter township and into the home of Harry A. Stringer, on Friday. Their efforts brought forth thirty-two bottles of home brew, nothing else. At the office of Squire Sack, Stringer pleaded guilty and was sentenced to pay a fine, which with an equal amount of costs summed up to $20.00.

Robert Warner, son-in-law of C. W. Reesman, of Camden, N. J., came to Centre Hall late Friday night and on Sunday returned home, taking with him the Reesman car. He spent most of his time on the Bartholomew farm, tenanted by Dan Bloom. Mr. Reesman, by the way, was confined to bed up to Friday since which time no word was had from him.

The incubators in the former Hockman hatchery, near Centre Hall station, were recently purchased by H. L. Watson, Montgomery Co., who removed them to the Garrett planing mill, Rebersburg, where they will be entirely rebuilt for resale. Mr. Watson is well acquainted with incubator construction and is also a salesman of that product. While in Centre Hall he was stopping with the Rishel family.

While on their Thanksgiving vacation, Miss Alice Foust and a girl friend from West Chester State Teachers' College, motored to the home of the former's father, Charles Foust, at Centre Hill, where they spent Saturday. A dinner was prepared for them by Mr. Foust. Emory Floray, a close friend of the family, was also a dinner guest. Miss Foust was graduated from the local high school in the class of '34, and is now continuing her education at West Chester.

Saturday morning, between the hours of 10:30 and 11:30, Bettie Jane Herman, daughter of Howard Herman, who has long made her home with the F. B. Herman family in Altoona, broadcast direct from the radio studio on the third floor of the William F. Gable Co. building. Several invitations were sent to residents of Centre Hall inviting them to come to the studio to see the child perform. The young Miss, on a previous occasion, in a contest won a prize for performance on musical instruments. The little girl with her grandmother, Mrs. F. B. Herman, visits with Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Colyer, relatives.

TRANSIENT CAMPERS GIVE EAR TO SERMON AND SONGS

Rev. Seth Russell, pastor of the Penns Valley church, of the Methodist church, preached the sermon at the Transient Camp, near Colyer, on Sunday evening, where services similar to those held a number of Sunday evenings previous were conducted. Rev. J. W. Zaag was also present, as were also a few young people from his (the evangelist's) and the Methodist church, who sang hymns and several selections. Up to Sunday night Rev. Zaag was the only local minister to volunteer to hold services at this camp. From reports his efforts have been appreciated. The attendance has been very fair as to numbers, the conduct excellent and attention most respectful.

The young people who furnished the music for Sunday evenings services were Misses Loll Huss, Geneva Huss, Edna Zaag, Alice Spzyker and Kenneth Frank.

CAN SURPLUS MEAT FOR YEAR-ROUND USE

These crisp fall days are busy butchering days. Canning meat when butchering is done provides a variety of meat for use throughout the year, says Miss Eleanor J. Smith, home economics extension representative.

Pork, beef, veal, lamb, mutton, chicken, soup stock, and by-products of butchering, such as sausage, liver, and tongue, may be canned when available. All the edible parts can be utilized; nothing need be wasted or eaten just to keep it from spoiling.

Canning meat saves time because it is preparation of food in advance for busy persons, unexpected guests, and rush days.

Canning meat also saves money because a good supply of meat may be furnished for the table throughout the year from home-grown products.

Canning meat promotes health, for at butchering time there is so much good fresh meat on hand that families may be extravagant and eat so much meat that the diet will be unbalanced.

Phone or write the Agricultural Extension Office in Bellefonte for a copy of Circular 153, "Canning Vegetables, Fruits and Meats."

Clifford S. Heinz was recently elected president of the Pennsylvania Sabbath School Association, succeeding James A. Lansing. Mr. Heinz is a member of the H. J. Henz Company, of Pittsburgh.

STATE TOURNAMENT TO DECIDE NEW CHAMPION

One of the interesting features of the 1935 Pennsylvania Farm Show will be the Farmers' Horseshoe Pitching tournament on Thursday evening January 24.

Steward Straw, Clearfield county, title winner in 1931, 1932 and 1934, will be the judge.

Each county is entitled to one representative who will be the winner of the county contest, or in case he does not enter, the runner-up in this same county tournament. Frank Dean, Pine Grove Mills, will represent Centre county in the State Tournament. Ralph Knarr, Centre Hall, was the second place winner in this county.

The player provides his own shoes which must satisfy the specifications approved by the National Horseshoe Pitching Association.

Players will be bracketed and will pitch 25-point games. The losers will enter the consolation series. After the first bracket the losers are automatically eliminated from the competition with the exception of the third place contestant in the winners' series who pitches a 25-point game with the consolation winner for third place in the tournament. Games on the winner's side, beginning with the second bracket, are for 50 points, while the games in the consolation series are 25 points.

The two successful contestants in the semi-finals pitch for the championship, the best two of three 50-point games deciding the winner.

Members of the State Emergency Child Health committee from all parts of the state were invited to confer with the Governor, the president of the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania, and the chairman of the State Emergency Child Health Committee, in behalf of the health of the children of Pennsylvania, at a meeting sponsored by the Pennsylvania Emergency Child Health Committee on Wednesday, December 12th, from 10 to 5 o'clock, in the forum of the Educational Building, Harrisburg. Those from Centre Hall who attended the gathering were Mrs. F. V. Goodhart, Mrs. Edgar Miller, Mrs. C. H. Light, and Miss Elizabeth Bartholomew. Several others in town held invitations, but did not go, although interested in the movement. Miss Helen Bartholomew was at the wheel of the car that transported the group to the capital city.
