

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Eight-inch clear ice was cut from the Booser, now Flink, ice pond beginning of this week.

The Centre Hall volunteer fire company will meet in the council chamber, Monday evening, February 4.

The senior class of the local high school will hold another of its popular bake sales on Saturday. Deliveries will be made.

A small property occupied by Albert Meyer, in Centre Hall borough, was sold by R. D. Brislin, et al, to Max Herr, last week.

The 4-H Club of Centre Hall will hold a box social at the Earlstown school house on Friday evening, Feb. 1. The patronage of the public will be much appreciated.

A new tomato, named "Penn State," has been released to growers by Dr. C. E. Myers. It is almost as early as the Erlana, and has several superior qualities, one being a small shallow core.

A detour sign was erected early Monday morning at Old Fort, directing traffic east over Route No. 45, via Lewisburg. This is due to Route 322, at Potters Mills, being closed on account of road construction.

The dwelling house owned and occupied by E. S. Bennett, at Runville, was destroyed by fire Sunday night. The fire was discovered after Mr. Bennett returned home from church. The loss is partly covered by insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schrader, of Cleveland, the latter a sister of Mrs. Ralph Johnson and Mrs. J. J. Barnick, both of Philipsburg, passengers on the Ward liner Mohawk, rammed off the Jersey coast, and reported lost, were later rescued and taken to New York City.

The large frame barn on the James Andrews farm, near Julian, was destroyed by fire one night last week, together with all its contents, entailing quite a heavy loss. No one was at home at the time. The origin of the fire has not been determined as yet.

From the Millburg Telegraph: Miss Agnes Geary and Roy Jamison, of Centre Hall, spent the week-end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Jamison Rufus Jamison, a student at Susquehanna University, Selingsgrove, was also a guest of his parents at the same time.

The following were guests of Miss Laura Runkle, at the Centre Hall hotel on Sunday, where a chicken dinner was served: Calvin Runkle, Sr., and sons Sylvester and Calvin Runkle, Jr., of Shamokin; Carl Runkle, Sheriff of Snyder county, and chauffeur, "Bob" Dieffenderfer, Middleburg.

Every bed, except three or four, in the Gelsinger hospital, Danville, was occupied during last week, as was reported by Miss Isabel Bradford, a nurse in training there, who spent the week-end with her parents here. Nursing, she says, continues to become more attractive as each week passes.

The "Big Boys" auto parts company, Sunbury, Friday evening entertained a number of dealers who handle the product of the company. The gathering was attended by Messrs. J. S. Booser, James Foust, Centre Hall; Millard Shreffler, Pleasant Gap; Layton King, Bellefonte; and Charles Miller, Millheim.

Miss Harriet Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Smith, Centre Hill, was a member of the ticket sales committee for the Birthday Party for the President. Her name was inadvertently omitted in printing the names in previous issues of the Reporter. The young lady assumed her duties nevertheless and was active in soliciting.

Miss Margaret Delaney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Delaney, of nearby Centre Hall, is chairman of the music committee for Vesper services at the Lock Haven State Teachers' College, where she is a student. The committee together with the Vesper Leaders committee and the College branches of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A., plans the Sunday evening services for the student body.

While splitting wood at his home in Potter township, a portion of a hard knot hit the by axe in the hands of Daniel Fohringer struck him in the right eye, bruising the surrounding tissue of the eyeball, but doing no injury to the eye itself. Mr. Fohringer's physiognomy had the appearance of that of a man who had either talked sass, to his wife or to a neighbor having a husky son.

Two building lots purchased in the Bartholomew Addition, at the E. R. R. station, lie between his home on the east and the property of A. P. Krape on the west, and are not the two fronting on the stone quarry road, as previously stated. E. E. Zettle intends building a bungalow on the most western lot, and is ready to begin excavations for the foundation as soon as weather conditions become more favorable. Mr. Zettle is a carpenter and it is presumed he will do much of that class of work himself.

Tuesday evening of last week the young people's organization of the Reformed church enjoyed a "sliding party" on Grange park hill. At a later hour they journeyed to the Mrs. Della Reiber home and partook of elaborate refreshments. Those present were Jean Dinges, Geraldine Bradford, Evelyn Bradford, Bertha Bradford, Lois Paeker, Harriet Smith, Ruth Reiber, Anna Mae Martz, Cathryn Martz, Bob Wetzel, Ralph Arney, Alfred Reish, Woodrow and Robert Bradford, Robert Gerhart, Ralph Paeker and Donald Goodhart.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Gertrude Ishler has been ill from grip.

There were 44 patients in the Centre County hospital at the beginning of this week.

The Centre Hall borough council will meet in regular session Monday evening in the council chamber.

The children of the late James C. Barger take this method of returning thanks to friends and neighbors who gave assistance during the last illness and time of the funeral of their father.

The General Synod through the district synods and the classes, has instructed the Board of Foreign Missions of the Reformed Church to raise an offering of $200,000.00 to pay off all debts on her Foreign Mission works.

On Monday George H. Stover was able for the first time in about two weeks to be at his office. He was tied up with a bad case of grip. During his absence from the coal, feed and grain house, Miss Kathryn Goodhart, his bookkeeper, was in charge, and the truck operators did the delivering as usual.

Fred Stover, tenant on one of the Edward Durst farms along the Old Fort-Boalsburg road, is confined to bed at this time from a heart affection. He has been subject to heart attacks for several years, but the present attack is more severe than any experienced before. Mr. Stover is a World War veteran, was overseas and engaged in war activities with an engineering corps. His present condition is thought to result from exposures during the conflict.

The senior members of the local L. T. L. on Monday night, were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Vogt, parents of Betty Vogt, one of the members, and Friday night the junior element will hold a regular meeting with Miriam Brooks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brooks, where entertainment other than the scheduled program will be provided. These meetings, held monthly, are looked forward to with great pleasure, and with them the anticipation does not exceed the realization.

The Centre Hall Choral Club, on Sunday afternoon at 4:30, sang several numbers in the large auditorium at Rockview Penitentiary. Their attendance, of course, was made up of prisoners who came to hear them from choice. The chaplain, Rev. Laurie, stated the attendance was almost one hundred per cent, due to the fact no doubt, that a number of them had previously heard individuals of the group sing for them. The club was represented by about twenty of its members, with Mrs. Alberta Krader as leader.

CROOKS WORK IN THE dark

Adequate street lighting is one of the best safeguards against crime. It is a definite aid to the police. Moreover, the cost of good street lighting is little, compared with the price you would have to pay for dark streets.
