

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

It is reported Eugene Colyer purchased a restaurant at sheriff's sale in Lewistown.

Miss Ruth Zanz, a student at Penn State, spent the week-end at her home in Centre Hall.

John Bohn, now living on Hoffer street, will occupy a part of the Mrs. Annie Homan property, beginning April 1st.

Miss Jennie Bartholomew, who fell and broke her hip in December, shows slight improvement, but still requires the services of a nurse.

An infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Murphy, Pleasant Gap, passed away at the Centre County hospital, Thursday, six days after its birth.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McClenahan and young son, on Sunday, visited with Mr. and Mrs. William Orren, parents of Mrs. McClenahan, in Yeagertown.

The E. E. Zettle and F. K. Frank families take this method of returning thanks for kindnesses shown them by friends during their recent bereavement due to the death of a mother.

The Centre Hall school board received $2198.01 appropriation for schools from the State, this week, which is nearly one thousand dollars less than for a similar period last year.

We wish to thank relatives and friends for their kindness, sympathy and assistance shown during the recent illness and death of our beloved wife and mother—D. Gise Wagner and family.

Mrs. J. Wm. Bradford was taken to the Lewistown hospital on Monday, and on Tuesday morning underwent a minor operation. Her condition since the operation is reported as being very fair.

Mrs. Eva D. Luse, Miss Edna Luse, Mrs. Laura Kunes and Miss Zella Hartman, the solo male escort being Master Irvin Luse, of State College, attended a meeting of Annette Council, Daughters of America, at Philipsburg, on Friday evening.

Israel Spayd, of near Penns Cave, advertises public sale of farm stock, implements and household goods for March 19th, following which he will quit farming. The Spayd place has been rented by J. M. Ream, of Centre Hall, who will occupy it April 1st.

The Centre Hall school board, at a regular meeting, Monday night, voted to pay off $3,000.00 of the school district's bonded indebtedness, incurred through the building of the high school. The debt structure is thereby reduced from $12,000 to $9,000.

W. H. Bartholomew, who has not been feeling so well for several weeks, became quite ill after arising on Tuesday morning. A physician was called and he advised him to go back to bed for several days at least. His condition at present is rather alarming, because of his advanced age—87 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hironimus and children were week-end guests of relatives in Selinsgrove and Milton. At Selinsgrove they were entertained by Mrs. Hironimus' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Salteer, and on their way home they stopped with a brother of Mr. Hironimus living in Milton. The head of the family is the freeman at the Sheffield milk plant here and is seldom able to get a leave of absence from his duties.

Messrs. Dodds and Gruenwald, popular Western horse dealers, who held a sale here on Monday, according to a story told the Reporter, are lucky to have been here this week. Returning to their western home after their last sale here, their automobile skidded on an icy stretch of road near Blairsville, this State, and turned over three times, demolishing the car so that it was reduced to junk. Fortunately—very fortunately—the gentlemen escaped with minor bruises.

VOUNTEER FIRE CO. MEETS

A regular meeting of the Centre Hall Volunteer Fire Company was held in the council chamber on Monday night.

An item of business transacted was the ordering for trial of a larger electrical sound alarm to take the place of the one returned because of its inefficiency.

Since the last meeting the fire-fighting equipment, including fire-plugs, were inspected, and everything was found in good condition except one or two nozzles. These will be replaced. The hose were found to be in excellent shape.

There has been collected, all in small sums, over $100.00, which will be used for equipping and maintaining a fire company club room.

Attended Mrs. Wagner's Funeral.

Friends and relatives from out of town who attended the funeral of Mrs. Gise Wagner, on Tuesday, were these: Mrs. Mae Trundle, Mrs. Pearl Crosley, of Punxsutawney; Roseman Smith, Johnstown; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McClellan, Pittsburgh; Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Long, Edith Long, Walter Long, Eugene and Herbert Long, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. L. H. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Alexander, Mrs. Francis Witman, Belleville; James B. Wagner, Herndon; Mrs. Ruth Brouse, Samuel Wagner, Harold Wagner, of Boalsburg; Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Wagner, Rev. J. F. Harkins, Mr. and Mrs. George Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Moyer, State College; William Wagner, Juniata; Mr. and Mrs. D. Wagner Geiss, Bellefonte.
