to any address upon receipt of four cents in postage stamps.—G. C. Bloss, Punxsutawney, Pa.

(ANSWERS on First Page) 1. A girl makes aprons and sells them at 30c each. If she buys a remnant of gingham containing 12 yards at 17½¢ a yard and three spools of tread at 6c each, what will be her profit, if it requires 10 yds. of material for making 16 aprons?

2. The overhead expenses of a coal dealer amount to 27c on every dollar of sales. If the dealer desires a profit of 15% on his selling price of coal, at what price must he sell per ton, if the cost of production is $1.45 a ton?

3. A pig trough 9½ ft. long in the shape of a triangular prism is 8 inches deep and 10 inches wide at the top; how many gallons of liquid feed will it hold?

Boalsburg may get a $75,000 armory, if Federal approval is given the forty-nine projects sought by the State Department of Military Affairs, estimated to cost $5,697,000 to be financed from Pennsylvania's share of the Federal Works Relief Bill.

The Past Grands' Association I. O.
O. F., meeting held in Grange Arcadia on Wednesday evening was largely attended by members and other members of the order. Progress Grange served the dinner—chicken, the chief meat, with an abundance of extras. Preparations were made for close to 150 diners.

Deaths

GUNSHALLUS.—Mrs. Margaret Jane Wentzel Gunshallus died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Delaney, near Centre Hall, where she made her home during the past 14 years, on Saturday evening at six o'clock. She was born October 6, 1843, at Romola, making her age 91 years, 6 months and 14 days. She was united in marriage with James Gunshallus, who has been deceased for eighteen years.

Since youth she had been a devout member of the Reformed church.
During the last ten years of her life Mrs. Gunshallus was blind, but notwithstanding this affliction she was patient. She was highly regarded by a large number of friends.

She is survived by ten great-grandchildren, 23 great-grandchildren, 26 grandchildren, and the following sons and daughters: William, of Bellefonte; Charles, of Lock Haven; Geo. of Lamar; Thomas, of Dearborn, Mich.; Mrs. Jennie Cassidy, of Erie; Mrs. Gertrude McCloskey, of Mack-eyville; and Mrs. Oda Delaney, Centre Hall.

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at the residence, followed by services in the Reformed church, Centre Hall, Rev. Delas R.
Keener officiating. Interment was made at Blanchard.

COBLE.—Chara Schaeffer, wife of Charles Coble, a confinement patient in the Centre County hospital, died Friday night. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the home at Penn Hill, with burial in the Heckman cemetery, Rev. Lesher, of the Lutheran church, officiating.

The deceased was a daughter of Bigler and Edith Hosterman Schaeffer (the latter deceased). There survive her nine of eleven children, namely, Helen, married, living at Woodward; Charles, Julian; Gladys, Mary, Ralph, Dorothy, Betty and Frank; also, these brothers and sister: J. Roy Schaeffer, Centre Hall; Paul, Salona; Thomas, Centre Hall; Mrs. Mary Day, Smulton; and Nevin, Mazepa.

Mrs. Coble was aged forty-three years on April 6th.

DUBBS.—Mrs. Agnes Elizabeth Dubbs, widow of Andrew Dubbs, died on Tuesday morning at Boalsburg, from organic valvular heart disease, from which she had suffered for many years, at the home of James Callahan.

She was born at Hubersburg, January 12, 1864, making her age at death 71 years, 3 months, 11 days.
Interment was made in the cemetery at Centre Hall, head, the body of her husband, on Thursday at 2:00 p. m.

YOUNG.—Dr. R. J. Young, aged 34, died at Snow Shoe where he has been practicing his profession for a few years. He is survived by a wife and small daughter. He was a native of Snow Shoe.

SUNDAY.—Jacob Sunday, one of the few remaining Civil War veterans in the county, died Thursday night, aged 83 years, at Pine Grove Mills, to which place he moved nearly thirty years ago from Bellefonte.

The deceased was a son of Jacob Sunday and was born at Tusseyville.
His wife, Saranna McGummo, died ten years ago, but there survive him these children: Mrs. Elizabeth Mc-Williams, Pine Grove Mills; Mrs. Hattie Bell, Spruce Creek; Mrs. Minnie Sager, Winburn; Harry Sunday, Boalsburg, and Miss Ida Sunday, Pine Grove Mills. Interment was made at Pine Grove Mills.

The deceased enlisted in Company B, 148th P. V., when under military age, and served for four years, until the close of the Civil War.

PARKER.—Mrs. Malinda Parker, widow of Civil War veteran Amos Parker, and former resident of near Pleasant Gap, passed away Wednesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W.
E. Nihart, at Castana, Clinton county, after an illness of six weeks, with a complication of diseases relative to old age. She was 84.

Born in Lewisburg, May 14, 1850, Mrs. Parker spent her married life three miles west of Centre Hall. Surviving ones: Mrs. Nihart and Mrs. R.
H. Walker, of Nanty Glo, daughters; Frank Parker, of Selinsgrove; Willam Parker of Centre Hall, and John Parker, of Ohio, stepsons; Miss Louisa, Parker, Johnstown, a stepdaughter, and a number of grandchildren.

WILLIAMS.—Martha Jane Williams, aged 62, died at the home of her brother, Rodger Williams, of Martha, Friday noon of complications. She is survived by a sister, Mrs. W. U. Irwin, Bellefonte, and three brothers, J. R. Williams, Fleming; Harry Williams, and Rodger Williams, both of Martha. She was a lifelong member of the Martha Baptist church.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon from the Baptist church, in charge of the Rev. A. G. Herr; burial was made in the Williams cemetery.
