Mr. and Mrs. Foster I. Krebs, of New Berlin, were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Bitner. The former was a buddy of Mr. Bitner during the World War, having been a member in the same company. In the afternoon both couples motored to Yeagertown, where they visited with C. Bartley Swartzell, also a World War veteran and member of the company in which both Mr. Krebs and Mr. Bitner served. The trio had not seen one another since 1919, hence the meeting was a happy one and much of the time was devoted to reciting incidents that happened "over there." Mr. Krebs attended the Lutheran S. S. Sunday morning and was induced to teach the men's class, which he did to the entire satisfaction of the members present.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bailey visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Grenoble, at Smullton, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Hartswick and I. C. Holmes, of State College, spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hartswick, at their home east of this place.

Lottie McCool, of Millheim, and D. R. McCool and family, of Altoona, were guests on Sunday of their mother, Mrs. D. M. McCool.

Mrs. H. H. Eisenhuth, for many years housekeeper for George N. Wolfe, has been ill for several days.

Wm. Emfield and young daughter, whose illness was noted in this column, are both improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schmitt of Rockledge, a suburban town of Philadelphia, were week-end guests of Mrs. Schmitt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Robinson.

Mrs. C. A. Krapp, who has been ill during the past few weeks, is reported improving at present. On Friday while going from her sleeping room to the bath, she had the misfortune to fall, and while she escaped breaking any bones, the shock proved serious. A day or two later, as related above, she began improving. Miss Eva Bailey is taking care of her. Over the week-end her daughter, Miss Delsey Morris, now teaching school at Doylestown, was with her and gave assistance, as did also Mrs. W. A. Odenkirk, a niece, of Centre Hall.

The girls in the three under classes in Gregg Vocational plinked on Egg Hill, with Miss Tschudy directing the sports. The lassies are boastful of the good time they had, although not accompanied by sterner youths.

The funeral of Mrs. Martha Royer was held from the home of her niece, Mrs. Pearl Decker, and not from that of a sister as reported in this newspaper.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Stover and daughter, Miss Josephine, motored to York on Saturday where they were guests until Monday of Mrs. Stover's sister, Mrs. Fred Burrows, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Corman, on Sunday, visited Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Miller, on the Geiss Wagner farm, south of Centre Hall. Mrs. Miller, who has been in delicate health for some time, is improving, but is yet unable to perform many of the household duties.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Leitzell and the latter's mother, Mrs. Annie Hoy, of Burnham, on Sunday, were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kennelly and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bressler. Mrs. Kennelly is a sister and Mr. Bressler a brother of Mrs. Leitzell. The lady has been employed in the Viscoze plant for four years, and her regularity may be judged from the fact that she did not miss a single day since last Christmas.

Visitors on Saturday at the G. C. Kluge home were Mrs. Elmer Lambert and Mrs. Robert Mensch, of Aronsburg, and Mrs. Edith Gentzell and grandson of Madisonburg. Wm. Diehl of Madisonburg was another visitor at the Kluge home. He is much alarmed due to the affection of one of his eyes. Due to the use of a drug given him to relieve it, he lost the sight of one eye, and now the other eye is weakening to such an extent that total blindness is much feared.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Erdley motored to Huntingdon, Monday afternoon.

Mrs. H. H. Eisenhuth was in town for a part of a day during last week, which time was spent most pleasantly among former neighbors—the Longs, Bitners, Grenobles, Kings, Deckers and others on their hill.

A fish story with more than the ordinary punch is being told by members of the Spring Mills Fish and Game Association. The reader will recall that the association is putting on a fishing contest, but it is found the rules and regulations, although quite complete, do not cover a case presented by a fisherman who caught a 26-inch trout in Penna Creek, at Kline's. The fish was brought to Meyer's store, the proprietor of which is the official weigher, where the trout pulled the beam down at 4 1/2 lbs. Weighed and not wanting in pounds and ounces, the prize trout was taken to the Meyer Bros. garage for official measuring. The girth appeared abnormal as did also the weight. The boys ran their fingers through their hair and scratched their scalp, before deciding how the prize fish should be tested. It was then that the fish was taken by the tail and held up in view of all, when, behold! from its widely extended mouth a dozen or more minnows dropped, and following that, half as many lead balls, such as are used on throw nets by illegal fishermen. By a unanimous vote the fish was declared ineligible to enter the contest.

The Howard high school baseball team leads in the eastern division; Mill Hall comes second, Hubersburg third; Spring Mills fourth, and Leontion and Rebersburg are sparring for fifth place.

A baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. James Zettle, in Georges Valley, Wednesday night of last week. The father is a son of Jeremiah Zettle and the mother a granddaughter of Ira Barger.

As an attraction for the festival to be held on the afternoon of June 8th by the Spring Mills baseball club, the Colored Giants of Mt. Union have been engaged to match the local team on the Vocational school athletic field. The gentlemen of color are capable of putting up a snappy game. The local club is fortunate in securing such a popular attraction in connection with the festival.

John W. Decker, the legislator, had a sun parlor built to his home. Mr. Decker, by the way, introduced in the House one of the important measures to pass both the House and Senate and receive the signature of the governor. References made to the bill, now a law, to tax capital stock of corporations.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Krapp and Mr. and Mrs. Willis Fisher, on Sunday, visited with Mr. Krapp's sister, Mrs. G. C. King, and husband. The couples are residents of Johnstown, where Mr. Krapp operates a one-man trolley car and Mr. Fisher is superintendent of a coal mine.

The ladies of the P. O. of A. announce a festival to be held in Hosterman's grove, east of here, on June 15th.

Thirty Million Miles of Ford Economy

MORE MILES. Faster miles. Greater economy... that is the story of the Ford V-8. There are conclusive figures from owners to show that it is the most economical Ford car ever built.

A particularly interesting and complete report of costs comes from a national fleet owner who has owned 854 Ford cars which have run more than thirty million miles in business use.

175 were Model T Fords which were run 5,017,075 miles. 599 were Model A Ford cars which were run 24,041,632 miles. 80 are Ford V-8 cars which have been run 2,982,886 miles.

This owner's cost records show that Ford V-8 cars cost 12% less to operate than the Model A Fords and 31% less than the Model T Fords. And they covered more miles per month! The monthly average for the Model T Fords was 1509 miles... For the Model A Fords, 1866 miles... And 2571 miles for the Ford V-8.

Each year the Ford car gives you more in value and performance and costs you less to operate.
