

HIGH SPOTS IN ROOSEVELT BONUS BILL VETO MESSAGE

President Roosevelt made his personal appeal to Congress on Wednesday of last week to sustain his veto of the Patman bonus bill and the House promptly ignored his advice.

Almost before the echoes of the President's speech died out, and without a word of debate, the chamber voted 322 to 98 to override the veto.

Some of the objections raised by the President in his veto of the Patman currency-expansion bill were:

1. It is a "new straight gratuity or bounty" of $1,500,000,000 more than contemplated in the 1924 bonus act, and it violates the entire principle of veteran benefits and bonus certificates.

2. The "financial penalties" provided would not help industries having the greatest unemployment.

3. Able-bodied citizens, because they were uniforms, should receive no treatment different from that accorded those who did not wear a uniform.

4. It invites an ultimate reckoning in uncontrollable prices and in the destruction of the value of savings.

5. "Printing press money" in most cases has ended in "wiping out the currency of the afflicted country, and spelled disastrous consequence."

6. The debt is due in 1945, "not today."

7. To urge it as a relief measure indulges in a "fallacy" that relief should be extended on some basis other than need.

8. The veteran who suffers can best be aided by "rehabilitation of the country as a whole."

9. Today the Government's credit is safe, but "it cannot ultimately be safe through yielding to all groups demanding special consideration."

10. Full payment today will bring demands for general pension legislation for all veterans.

11. The failure to provide taxes for the $2,000,000,000 outlay "would in itself and by itself alone" warrant its disapproval.

12. The "welfare of the nation" wholly justifies my disapproval of this measure.

Democrats to override the veto numbered 248, of this number 17 are Pennsylvanians. Their names follow: Berlin, Brooks, Crosby, Datsy, Dietrich, Dorsey, Driscoll, Dunn, Ellenbogen, Eckert, Faddis, Gidea, Glingery, Gray, Haines, Merritt, Quinn.

The Pennsylvania U. S. Senators split on the bonus question. Senator Guffey voted to sustain it and Senator Davis to override it.

BILLS TRANSFER LOCAL ROADS TO STATE SYSTEM

A bill to be acted on in the State legislature this week provides for 25 miles of Centre county roads to be added to the State system.

In addition, bills transferring 3,000 miles of highways from local jurisdiction to the State system are up for action this week in the House.

HORSES AT SHIVELY SALE BRING HIGHEST PRICES

Following is a detailed account of the horse sale held by C. E. Shively, Millinburg, which will be of interest largely because of the uniformly high prices paid for work animals. The sale was the last one held at Centre Hall.

SEVEN FROM CENTRE COUNTY GRADUATE FROM LOCK HAVEN

Walter Wilkinson and Miss Wanda Brown, Pottery Mills, and Jerome Haagen, of Bellefonte, are three of the Centre county students who received the degree of Bachelor of Science in Education at the annual spring graduation exercises held at the Lock Haven State Teachers' College, on Tuesday.

While attending the Lock Haven College Mr. Wilkinson made mathematics and science his major fields, and is qualified to teach these subjects in any junior or senior high school. In extra-curricular activities he was very prominent, being president of his class in his senior year, and a member of the Dramatic and Educational Clubs and the Praec Staff and the Y. M. C. A.

Miss Brown during her four years also majored in mathematics and science and is certified to teach these subjects. She has been active in the Dramatic Club and in the Y. W. C. A. Mr. Haagen completed his work in January in geography and science and is working for extra credit. He has been prominent in the Education Club at the College.

Two-year graduates from this vicinity are Harold Hoy, Bellefonte; Arthur McCloskey, Hubersburg; Margaret Delaney, Bertha Shaver and Anne Wert, of Centre Hall; and Jack Guisewite, of Rebersburg.

Seventy-five thousand boys and girls will graduate in May and June from 800 four-year and senior public high schools in Pennsylvania.

Commencement Exercises.

The commencement exercises were held Friday evening at 8:00 o'clock in Grange Park auditorium.

Rev. D. R. Keener pronounced the invocation.

Thelma I. Clark delivered the salutatory address. Miss Clark extended a welcome to the audience and then spoke briefly on the subject of "Your Life in the Making," using the editorial of the N. E. A. Journal as a basis for her remarks. The chief points were: 1, begin where you are; 2, make a plan; 3, keep yourself fit; 4, develop your skill; 5, attach importance to the family; 6, make worthy friends; 7, earn your own way; 8, be loyal to your country; 9, enjoy your life; 10, hold fast to your ideals; 11, make your influence count; 12, keep on learning.

Lewis R. Lenhart, assistant county superintendent of schools, spoke on the subject "Planning Ahead." He stressed three chief points: 1, learn the facts—Knowledge; 2, learn how to apply knowledge—Skill; 3, do it—Virtue.

The trio composed of the Hess sisters, Angeline, Dolly and Geneva, sang two numbers.

Dr. C. C. Ellis, president of Juniata College, Huntingdon, spoke on "Graduating With Honors." He mentioned honors as might attain in life whether of high or low scholastic standing: 1, the honor of honest work; 2, the honor of dependability; 3, the honor of doing your best; 4, the honor of human service; 5, the honor of duty.

The Centre Hall high school glee club rendered two familiar selections, "Juanita" and "Home, Sweet Home."

Fred B. Spiker delivered the valedictory. He compared life to a mountain climb and challenged the class to reach the top so that their horizon might be larger and their influence radiate from a higher vantage point.

The diplomas were presented by Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick to the members of the graduating class.

The benediction was pronounced by Rev. Seth W. Russell.

Class night attracted a large audience, every seat and all standing room in the large auditorium on Grange Park having been occupied.

"Sampler Days" was the title of a pageant presented by members of all the classes, namely: Thelma I. Clark, Fred B. Spiker, Miriam Mitterling, Kathryn F. Smith, Louise F. Miller, M. Jean Slack, Donald G. Foust, Floyd Dashen, Crales Ramer, Ralph Packer, Kenneth Frank, F. Eugene Weaver, G. Woodrow Bradford, and Phillip Smith.

Borough resident students advanced for the Eighth Grade are Darlin Foust, Miriam Homan, Francis Snyder, Marjorie Morrow, William Kerlin, Edna Meyer, Russell Reish, Chalmer Weaver.

The ten students in the county taking the stated examination who ranked highest, are James Mumper, of Milesburg boro; Robert McDowell, of Milesburg boro; Jack Weaver, Milesburg boro; Cecil Walk, Hannah; Leonard York, Milesburg; Betty Dale, Leamont; Edna Thompson, Snow Sho; Theodore Yingling, North Philipsburg; Dorothy Hagyard, No. Philipsburg; Dorothy Long, Milesburg.

REBERSBURG TAKES ADVANTAGE OF LOCALS' ERRORS TO WIN, 8-5

Enjoying a comfortable lead of 5 runs to 2 at the end of the 3rd inning of a 7-inning twilight game at Centre Hall with Rebersburg, Thursday evening, a comedy of errors turned apparent victory into a humiliating defeat for the locals; score, 8 to 5.

"Lefty" Pastorius gave Rebersburg 7 hits, and the 8 runs scored were entirely unearned, the result of seven errors, several of which were of the rankiest sort, and cause for breaking any pitcher's heart. Weaver was rapped for ten hits, but despite his liberality he pitched well in the pinches and received splendid infield support.

Jack Bradford's steal of home was a bright spot in an otherwise colorless game. The box score:

Centre Hall, 8; Lamar, 4.

Thirteen safe blows, gathered off three Lamar pitchers, spelled victory for Centre Hall at Lamar, on Saturday, by the score of 8 to 4. Jack Bradford and Pastorius led in the attack with three hits each. Besides setting the pace with the stick, Pastorius pitched superbly, allowing only six hits and fanning 14 batters. The score by innings:

FESTIVAL BY VOLUNTEER FIRE CO., MEMORIAL DAY

Plans for the festival to be held this (Thursday) afternoon and evening on the high school athletic field by the local volunteer fire company are complete. Features to attract are a well-known musical organization, the Spring Mills band, of thirty pieces; a game of baseball by local all-stars and well-trained nine from CCC camp No. 62, at head of Stone Creek, all colored boys, and a musical organization rendering vocal and instrumental selections, from the same camp. There will also be other features of entertainment.

An appeal is made to residents in Centre Hall and surrounding sections to give the festival its support, the proceeds from which will be applied to further improve fire-fighting apparatus that may be used in the borough and in rural districts, consequently the profits from the venture may be shared in by many.

U. S. Navy Enlistments.

Starting in July the monthly quota will be 52 men. This is more than twice what it has been for some time. For information write or call in person to U. S. Navy Recruiting Station, Post Office building, Altoona, Pa., Vernon F. Holdeman in charge.

With the NRA wiped out, the unscrupulous will sell you eleven for a dozen; fifteen ounces for a pound; cut an old ewe into lamb chops. A work day will be from morning to night, and the presidents of corporations will get a boost in salary.

A. L. Gates, an Altoona letter carrier, was arrested following a charge of having opened one or more chain letters and taking the dollars therefrom. He posted $500 bond for Federal grand jury action.

John Musser, of Pleasant Gap, a cadet on the Schoolship Annapolis, Philadelphia, graduated a few days ago. His mother, Mrs. J. F. Musser, attended the ceremony.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS

HAPPENINGS OF LOCAL INTEREST FROM ALL PARTS

The West End Union county fair dates are September 5, 6 and 7.

The Snively reunion will be held at Woodward Cave, Saturday, June 8. Mrs. G. O. Benner, on Sunday, visited her brother, Mr. Eberts, and family, in Tyrone.

Mrs. Lavina Floray has been ill and confined to bed much of the time during the past two weeks.

A temperature of 32 degrees Friday night was followed by a beautiful warm Saturday, with mercury stretching to 75 degrees.

James Leitze, of Bellefonte, announces himself a candidate for sheriff on the Republican ticket. He was a candidate four years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Kryder are on a motor trip to Parkersburg, Clarksburg and Wheeling, West Va., and will return some time this week.

Ray Hazel, of near Aaronsburg, and Miss Zula Kerstetter, of Coburn, were united in marriage recently in Lock Haven by Rev. Andrew Beahm.

Capt. Harry Keller, of the Bellefonte detail of the State Highway Patrol, purchased a new Plymouth sedan through the R. S. Hagan agency here.

The Fullington Auto Bus Company, operating buses between State College and Tyrone, has been sold to the company operating the Greyhound lines.

The State Highway's purchase of 22,000,000 gallons of road oil will create an abundance of hard words for the motrist to spit out. Oiling will begin June 1st.

Traffic lights in Lewistown now flit from green to red, the amber light having been entirely removed. The idea of removing the intermediate light is to speed traffic.

Mrs. Walter Youm, of Lewistown, was a most pleasant caller at the Reporter office last Friday. Mrs. Youm is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Klinefelter near Centre Hall.

W. R. Grazier, former landlord at the Millheim hotel, has purchased the Fred Best farm near Spring Bank. The farm consists of 81 acres of cleared land and 107 acres of timberland.

Harry Horner, of Potter township, who was charged with a violation of the liquor laws for allegedly furnishing liquor to guests at the transient camp in Treaster Kettle, was acquitted by a jury and the costs placed on the county.

On Friday the dial telephone system was put into operation in all sections of Union county by the Buffalo Valley Telephone Company. The change from the old to the new system was accomplished by the turn of a switch and without interruption of service.

Assuming that the Pontiac company builds the 150,000 cars it contemplates building in 1935, it will require 750,000 tires to equip them. Laid flat on the ground, the tires would cover 94,000 square miles, a section almost as large as the State of Oregon. The steel in the cars will require enough to build 2,000 freight cars, or 600 locomotives.

A suit for damages in an automobile accident, in August of 1934, near Hubersburg, was filed by Miss Dorothy Probt, operator, and several others in the car, all of Lock Haven. The defendant is Dr. William H. Herr, of Lancaster, whose car was being operated by a nurse, Miss Lucille Newkirk. The total amount of damage claimed is $22,500.

P. F. Bartges, of Aaronsburg, during the latter part of last week attended the State Bandmasters' Association, in Allentown, where they were guests of the Rotary Club, on Friday. Mr. Bartges was invited to be a guest conductor of the Allentown band. The bandmaster was accompanied to the convention city by Miss Maggie Ocker and Miss Olive Orwig.

Mrs. Mary Marts, of Snow Sho, was given a verdict in the Federal court, Lewisburg, Judge Johnson presiding, of $15,500 damages in her suit against Dr. Mary Vanuxem, growing out of a motor crash. Mrs. Marts' car collided with a machine driven by the head physician of the Laurelton State Home in a fog December 31, 1932, near Millinburg. Mrs. Marts asked $50,000.

A ball game between local all-stars and a team from CCC Camp No. 62, all colored, will be staged this (Thursday afternoon), Memorial Day. The young gentlemen of color will also give exhibitions of their skill in vocal and instrumental music. Your presence will aid in furnishing a more improved fire-fighting equipment, constructed to be of service both in and outside the borough.

At the memorial ceremonies conducted during the meeting of the Eastern Synod of the Reformed Church, in Williamsport, three deceased elders in Centre county were paid tribute. The honored elders were James Wesley Foreman, Centre Hall; Nathaniel Yearick, Nitanny; and Harvey M. Keller, State College. Tribute was also paid to two ministers in this section of the Synod bounds; namely, Rev. Wm. E. Harr, Lock Haven, and Rev. Irwin S. Dittler, West Milton.
