Deaths

B. D. BRISBIN PASSES AT AGE OF NINETY-THREE YEARS

It is with much regret that the death of Brice David Brisbin is recorded. He passed out of this life on Thursday night, in the Hartford, Conn., hospital, where he had been a patient for a short time following a fall which resulted in breaking the right hip bone. During the past six years he had been living with his youngest daughter, Mrs. Johanna Robertson. Another daughter, Mrs. Beulah Boone and a granddaughter, Miss Alice Boone, also live in Hartford.

The body was shipped here by rail on Saturday morning, accompanied by Mrs. Boone and Mrs. Robertson, and in the afternoon funeral services were conducted in the Goodhart funeral parlors and burial made in the family plot, Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick officiating. At the close of this service the service of the I. O. O. F. was impressively read by C. W. Slack, chaplain of the local order, and a squad of Penn State cadets fired the usual salute, the bugler sounded taps.

From the history of the 148th Regiment, Pa. Volunteers, Infantry, it is learned that Mr. Brisbin enlisted August 5, 1862, at the age of twenty years. He then resided at Old Fort. He was mustered a member of Company G, 148th Regiment, August 18, 1862. His services continued until the close of the war. At Gettysburg, July 3, 1863, he was wounded, and was taken prisoner of war in action before Petersburg, Va., June 22, 1864. The records note that he was a very worthy soldier.

He was the last of the charter members of Lodge No. 895, I. O. O. F., instituted in Centre Hall in 1875, but had been a member of the order previous to that date.

Mr. Brisbin located in Centre Hall in 1874, and engaged in various businesses. During the Harrison and McKinley Administrations he served as postmaster and was a member of the first town council to be elected. Most of his active business life was devoted to lumbering and contracting, although immediately following the close of the Civil War he opened a general store in Pottery Mills.

Mr. Brisbin was born at Milroy, a son of Samuel and Mary Plack Brisbin, April 5, 1842. His mother died when he was a small child. When a boy he lived with an uncle, David Brisbin, on the Wert farm, west of Tusseyville, and later the family moved to Old Fort onto the Brisbin-Taylor-Delaney farm.

Mrs. Brisbin, who was Miss Alice Shirk, died twenty-two years ago. Mr. Brisbin at the time of his death was aged 93 years, 1 month, 18 days.

FRANK.—The first death in one of the prominent Millheim families occurred Thursday, when the father, Adam Alleman Frank, aged 80 years, 6 months and 16 days, passed out after having been in business in the lower Penns Valley borough for a period of sixty-five years.

Funeral services were held on Monday from the home of the deceased at 2:30 p. m., with burial in the Fairview cemetery, Rev. L. V. Leshner, pastor of the Lutheran church of which denomination the deceased was long a member, officiating.

The deceased was the head of the firm of Frank & Sons, general merchants, and since its organization was second vice-president of the Farmer's National Bank and Trust Company, Millheim; also, a charter member of the K. G. E. of that place.

The deceased was a son of Thomas and Marie Musser Frank, and was born in 1854. His wife, formerly Miss Emma J. Cramer, and two sons, Harry T. Frank and Thomas K. Frank, both of Millheim, survive him, as do also four grandchildren.

There are no brothers or sisters, Mr. Frank having been an only son.

NEFF.—Miss Elizabeth Neff, a daughter of Benjamin Neff, deceased, aged 79 years, died at the home of H. B. Neff, a nephew, in State College, on Wednesday of last week. She is the last member of her family.

Funeral services were held Friday from the home and later in the Methodist church in Curtin.

WILSON.—Mrs. Sally Wilson died Monday evening at her home in Millheim following a heart attack, aged almost 65 years. Burial will be made in Millheim, Saturday forenoon. Mrs. Hayes Ralston, Centre Hall; Mrs. J. H. Sheansley, Mill Hall, are daughters and J. H. Wilson, Frederick Md., is a son.

A motor trip to Harrisburg, on Sunday, was much enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Earl White east of Centre Hall. The couple visited Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Went, the former employed by the General Electric Company. The friendship of the ladies was formed during their school days at Elizabethtown and Lock Haven Teachers' Colleges.

GREGG TOWNSHIP VOCATIONAL SCHOOL NOTES.

Commencement Activities Well Attended.

The exercises incident to the graduation of this year's senior class of G. T. V. S. were well attended and much favorable comment has been expressed relative to the nature of the programs. The baccalaureate sermon was delivered by Rev. Keener. His message was one of inspiration and helpfulness to the graduate of today.

The graduating class staged a most successful class night program. The main feature was the presentation of the pageant, "The Rainbow Trail."

Class Gift to the School.
At the class night exercises announcement was made by the class that they are presenting to the school a sum of $25.00 to be used in purchasing library books, and likewise approximately $50.00 for buying a radio to be placed in the school assembly room. These gifts will be highly appreciated by the future students of the school.

The commencement exercises were held in the Methodist church Thursday night. The program centered around the theme, "The Schools and Democracy." Mabel Eungard, Jean Rishel and Lona Hanson all discussed phases of the main topic, while Prof. Wm. V. Dennis of Penn State College ended the discussion on the subject by talking on "The Challenge of the Changing Order." Prof. F. G. Roggers presented the diplomas to the following members of the class: Mae Breon, Robert Corman, Irene Eungard, Mabel Eungard, Lona Hanson, Pearl Musser, Jean Rishel, Norman Rossman, Marvin Skiles, Wallace Skiles, Itay Spayd and Meriam Zerby.

Medical Clinic Well Attended.
The first pre-school clinic for Gregg Twp. pupils who will enter first grade was held on two afternoons last week. A total of 22 boys and girls who will enter first grade in the Gregg Twp. schools were given a thorough physical examination by Dr. Geo. Thomas of Spring Mills, who was assisted by Miss Erickson, the Red Cross nurse, and the following who served on a local committee: Miss Orje Wagner, Mrs. Randall Meyer, Miss Sara Vonada, Mrs. Helen Auman, Mrs. Harold Meyer and Mrs. C. M. Watts. The majority of the parents of the beginners were very glad to have the opportunity to bring their children in for this examination, and it is planned to follow-up the recommendations made to individuals at the time of the examination which should make the final results very helpful to each individual. Funds derived from the sale of Xmas Seals last fall were used in connection with financing the clinic. The committee appreciates the interest taken by parents in this year's clinic and hope that in the future other parents will plan to have their children come to the pre-school clinic.

Festival, June 29th.
The members of the class of '26 invite all to their class festival to be held at Spring Mills on Saturday night, June 29th. The organization is making big preparations for this event and will be glad for the whole-hearted support of the community.

WISDOM
A husband had known for some time that there would be a layoff in his factory.
On the fatal day he came home from his work and sank dependently into a chair, exclaiming: "The wolf is at our door."
Jane, aged three, sprang from her toys and cried: "Quick, Mother, hide grandma."
Your caller may not be the wolf—it may be fire—we would not suggest hiding grandma in our vault, but we would suggest that you hide all your valuable papers in a safe deposit box.
