LUCKY ROOSEVELT.

[Editorial from the Philadelphia Record, June 12.] Yes, lucky Roosevelt. Had the President been permitted to determine the major G. O. P. issue for 1936 so he could easily knock it down—he couldn't have done better than the Grass Roots Conference. "Save the Constitution" the Grass Rooters yell. And the nation will ask, FROM WHAT? Not from amendment surely? All the amendments to the Constitution since the Civil War save three, have been made at the instance of Republican Administrations—and wisely so. "Back to States' rights" yell the Grass Rooters. And the nation will reflect: That in the very shadow of the tomb and home of Lincoln, the man who did more to destroy States' rights than any other President—and magnificently so—his own party repudiates his principles— And adopts a political philosophy which handicapped the Democratic party for 56 years. The spectacle of the G. O. P. as a States' rights party is almost comic. If you have any doubts, "look at the record." The Thirteenth amendment to the Constitution denied States the right to permit slavery. It was a Republican amendment—and the Republicans ought to be proud of it. The Fourteenth and Fifteenth amendments denied States the power to curtail electoral rights or "abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens" on account of "race, color or previous condition of servitude." It was a Republican amendment, too. The Sixteenth, amendment overrode the Supreme Court's ban on a Federal income tax. That, too, was voted in a Republican Administration. And the 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, 31st, 32nd, 33rd, 34th, 35th, 36th, 37th, 38th, 39th, 40th, 41st, 42nd, 43rd, 44th, 45th, 46th, 47th, 48th, 49th, 50th, 51st, 52nd, 53rd, 54th, 55th, 56th, 57th, 58th, 59th, 60th, 61st, 62nd, 63rd, 64th, 65th, 66th, 67th, 68th, 69th, 70th, 71st, 72nd, 73rd, 74th, 75th, 76th, 77th, 78th, 79th, 80th, 81st, 82nd, 83rd, 84th, 85th, 86th, 87th, 88th, 89th, 90th, 91st, 92nd, 93rd, 94th, 95th, 96th, 97th, 98th, 99th, 100th, can boast of it—even if their reactionaries fought it bitterly. The proposed child labor amendment was instituted by a Republican Administration—and this newspaper has fought for it for years. The Republican party sponsored these encroachments on the rights of the States—and it did so because public welfare demanded them—because it was necessary to change the Constitution to meet changed conditions. But aside from these constitutional encroachments, the Republican party set up the Interstate Commerce Commission, the Department of Commerce, urged a Federal education bill in 1880, an eight-hour law in 1884, an employers liability law in 1890—all of them definite encroachments on the rights of the States—and nearly all were EXCELLENT AND NECESSARY MEASURES IN THE PUBLIC WELFARE. Yet now, because the Supreme Court has invalidated a dangerous scheme, ORIGINATED BY HOOVER, — and which President Roosevelt mistakenly took up at the instance of Bernard Baruch— The Grass Rooters would repudiate Lincoln's philosophy of an "indivisible union"—and try to skid into power in 1936 on the broken-down sled of States' rights, discarded by the Democrats—with a slogan of "Save the Constitution"— WHEN NO ONE HAS THREATENED THE CONSTITUTION! Can it be the G. O. P. believes that the Supreme Court's decision on N. R. A. invalidated a "threat to the Constitution"? Well if invalidation of acts of Congress means invalidation of "threats to the Constitution," then let the G. O. P. look to its own record! (Continued foot of next col.)

Deaths

LARIMER.—Mrs. Mary Jane Larimer died Thursday morning at the Centre County hospital after giving birth to a child a few weeks ago, the child also having died a few days after birth. She was aged 32 years—and was a daughter of Ruben and Ella Welty. Four children survive—the deceased, as does also her husband, Herbert F. Larimer. WEAVER.—Charles M. Weaver, aged 78, died at the home of a son, Claude Weaver, Logan Mills, Sugar Valley. He is survived by two sons, one previously named, the other Harry Weaver, Greensburg, and Torrence Strayer, Madisonburg, a step-son; also by six daughters. RHYMESTINE.—George R. Rhymestine, who left Millheim, the place of his birth, when twenty years of age, died at his home in Pittsburgh, from paralysis. His first wife, now deceased, was Millicent Weaver, and the second, Amy S. Bush, survives him; as does also a son, Wallace R. He was aged 71 years. McKEAN.—Mrs. Margaret McKean, aged 84, widow of John McKean, died Wednesday of last week at Millersburg at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mary Watson. Interment was made Saturday afternoon. She is survived by the following daughters and sons: Mrs. Watson, James McKean, of Moshannon; Harry and David, of Howard; Mrs. Dora Frankenkield, of Flemington, and Mrs. Laura Resides, of State College. BREON.—Mrs. Laura Etta Breon, widow of the late Elias Breon, died at her home in Axemann early Saturday morning after a lingering illness. Her death was caused by a complication of diseases. Mrs. Breon was in her 73rd year. She was the daughter of Andrew and Susan Harter and was married to Elias Breon, who died a year ago. She leaves three children, Frank E. of Pleasant Gap; and Leonard A. Breon of Bellefonte; Mrs. Willis Wion of Bellefonte. Three brothers, Frank Harter, Louisville, Ky.; Albert Harter, Renovo, and Clement Harter, Bellefonte, and one sister, Mrs. Jennie Hill, of Tyrone also survive along with 14 grandchildren and seven great grandchildren. Funeral services were held from her home Tuesday afternoon with the Rev. C. C. Shuey, of Bellefonte, and the Rev. R. O. Botsdorf, Pleasant Gap, officiating. Christian Bassinger, aged 42 years, a Bellefonte furniture dealer, was stricken with a heart attack while attending a meeting of young Democrats, and died a few minutes after having been taken to the hospital. NO MORE PARTY RAIDING. A bill signed by Governor Earle on Friday prevents party raiding in Pennsylvania. Under the new law candidates for public office, the judiciary excepted, are prohibited from seeking the nomination of more than one party. Seen under the classified column of the Standard-Sentinel (Hazleton, Pa.) "Lost: 50 dollars and two relief checks. Finder please phone 2910 and receive liberal reward!" (Continued from previous column) For in the 12 years from 1920 to 1932, the Republican heyday, 21 acts of Congress were declared unconstitutional— Twice as many as were found unconstitutional in any other 12 years in American history! "Promotion of the general welfare" of these United States as demanded in the preamble of the Constitution does now and ever must supersede the legalistic rights of the States. That is why the Constitution must be amended to give the Federal Government power, not to override the Supreme Court— But to enact minimum wage, maximum hour and child labor laws and guarantee labor's right to collective bargaining. If the Grass Rooters think such an amendment to protect the LIVING STANDARD OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE is an invasion of States' rights or an attempt to "destroy the Constitution"— The Record challenges the Republican party to put into its platform that: We the Republican party, oppose minimum wages, maximum hours and child labor laws, and we oppose safeguarding the right of labor to collective bargaining. Yes, Lucky Roosevelt. Lucky because his opponents pile stupidity on stupidity by seizing the most futile issue on the political horizon. Not a hint at the Grass Roots parody as to how our 11 million jobless are to be put back to work. Not a suggestion as to how agriculture is to be rescued. While men want jobs, the Republicans cry "Save the Constitution." While the President labors to bolster up the standard of living we now have, they yell "States' rights." Let them remember the words of Borah: "You can't eat the Constitution." Neither can anyone eat "States' rights." But if the G. O. P. continues to campaign on the opposite theory— DOUBLY LUCKY ROOSEVELT!

F. L. MURPHY, FORMER GAS CO. MANAGER, DIES SUDDENLY

Frank L. Murphy died in the Centre County jail on Tuesday morning, following a heart attack, to which he had been subject during the past few years, according to a statement of his physician, Dr. J. C. Rogers. The only complaint made was to a fellow prisoner which was to the effect that he had been "very sick during the night." After breakfast, and a walk in the open, Murphy returned to his cell and collapsed. Dr. Rogers was called, but it was too late. Death came at 8:30 o'clock. Mr. Murphy came to Centre county as manager of the Central Pennsylvania Gas Company. It was due almost exclusively to his efforts that the company was induced to extend its lines to Centre Hall. He was aged 60 years, 2 months, and was born in Michigan. There survive him five daughters and two sons.

BRITCHER'S AUCTION SALE, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 20

Floyd A. Britcher, 2 miles north-east of Millintown, will conduct another of his popular auction sales on Wednesday, June 26, beginning at 10 a. m. A lot of commission horses will be sold; also, a lot of good fresh cows, young cattle, bulls and heifers.

The rose bushes along State Highway route No. 45, between Old Fort and Spring Mills, are in bloom and are beautiful. What a bit of extra care of the rose bushes results in may be seen by comparing the bushes, and size of the roses on either side of the M. T. Zubler farm home with those farther east and west. Mr. Zubler has been cutting the weeds and grass for a distance of a few feet around the bushes, and occasionally a bit of soil close to the stems was stirred. The result is miracle-like in appearance. Mr. Zubler's work should be imitated by State road workers, and that without adding extra time. The reader will understand what is meant by the latter clause.

"DISAPPEARANCE" OF PAUL STONER IS SOLVED

Nittany Mountain, in the neighborhood of the plant, was searched Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning, until word was received that Stoner had been at the home of a distant relative in Bellefonte for supper on Tuesday, and had told there that he intended going to Akron, Ohio.
