

Spring Mills

A Collection of Newsy Happenings and Personals from Gregg Township's Metropolis.

A marriage license was issued in Centre county to Daren H. Confer, Woodward, and Lefern K. Bressler, Spring Mills.

A roadster driven by Norman D. Rossman, of Penns Cava, and a truck operated by Harry T. Barger, of the same section, collided one evening last week. Neither of the occupants of the vehicles was injured, but damage to the car and truck combined was placed at $125.

Earl Weber, in company with Miss Sara Zettle, of Spring Mills, Mrs. John Wert and son, Merrill Wert, of Summit, collided with a machine operated by Eben Smith, of Aaronsburg, on top of the hill by the Ira Shultz home at Spring Bank.

Miss Zettle was unconscious, and taken immediately to the John Wert home at Summit. Mrs. Smith was the sole occupant of the Smith car, besides Mr. Smith. None of the group received serious injuries and the machines were but slightly damaged. Robert Brungart, local mechanic, was called to the scene to render assistance.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Corbett, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. G. E. Bitter. They brought with them H. F. Weaver, father of Mrs. Corbett and Mrs. Bitter, who had been in Harrisburg during the past ten days.

Jackie Pruyn, son of Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Pruyn, of Morrisdale, former residents of Spring Mills, is a guest at the home of Nathaniel Ziegler.

Mrs. Grall Stiner, of East Rochester, N. Y., accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Homer Fetterolf to their home here for a visit. Mrs. Stiner is a sister of Mr. Fetterolf.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lee, and baby, of State College, were visitors at the child's grandparents Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lee, and at the home of other friends on Sunday.

Mrs. Bright Bitter, who had been in Philadelphia for two weeks, returned to her home here a few days ago. Mr. Bitter motored to Milton and from there went by train to meet his wife and after a brief visit with his daughters, Mrs. Wm. Johnson and Miss Geraldine, the two boarded the train for home. Strange as it may seem, neither of the couple realized they had reached Milton, and, of course, were taken on to Williamsport. Bright is accused of having been so fast asleep that he could not be waked until the train was close to the Lycoming county metropolis. It was several hours before the couple reached Milton, where they found a sister anxiously awaiting them.

Mrs. Russell Condo has returned home from a visit with relatives in Altoona.

Miss Isabel Swabb and pupils in her Sunday-school class held a picnic at Penns Cava a few days ago. The pupils included Misses Evelyn Brooks, Margaret Grenoble, Marie Long, Betty Lee, Betty Auman and Gene Watts. The young ladies report that they had a most enjoyable gathering.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Kuster, Mrs. Harry Aurand, the latter's son and daughter, and Mrs. Charles Aurand of Selingsgrove, were guests on Wednesday of last week at the H. F. Erdley home, and on Sunday there were at the same home Mrs. Nellie Herman, son Paul and daughter Helen, and Mr. and Mrs. Speaker Hartman and daughter Virginia, of Lewisburg.

The Community Vacation Church School is well on in its third and last week. The attendance has been large and the interest on both the part of the children and instructors intense, indicating much permanent good will result from the movement. On Friday the pupils will hold a picnic at Hecla Park, assuming fair weather, otherwise, in the gym.

Mr. and Mrs. Barrett Langford, of Elkin, N. C., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. Brown, foster parents of Mrs. Langford, who formerly was Miss Madaline Walker, popular in her set when a young girl here. She is a graduate of St. Luke's hospital, Bethlehem, and is now nursing in a Methodist hospital in Elkin. Mr. Langford is a salesman of the products of the well-known firm of the Reynolds Tobacco company.

The Past Templars' Association, Ladies of the Golden Eagle, including the territory of Centre and Clinton counties, will meet in regular session in Centre Hall K. G. E. hall this (Thursday) afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Grove, who had been living in Buffalo, N. Y., are again back to Spring Mills. Mr. Grove is on the road trucking new automobiles for most of the time, leaving Mrs. Grove alone. This condition in the city proved not at all congenial to Mrs. Grove, consequently the return.

Miss Marion Gentzel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Gentzel of Altoona, is at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. George Gentzel, at present. Mrs. Gentzel, by the way, continues to be in a very delicate physical condition.

Harry T. Barger opened his "Cut-Rate Grocery Store" on Friday, in the Corman store room, vacated recently by O. T. Corman. The room has been renovated and improved in general appearance. The young merchant carries a nice new line of stock, and is bidding for customers.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Stover and daughter, Miss Josephine, and Mrs. Stover's father, George N. Wolfe, a retired rural mail carrier, on Monday motored to New Berlin, where relatives were visited.

Mrs. Hanson, wife of Harold Hanson, manager of the League Milk plant at Spring Mills, underwent a major surgical operation at the Centre hospital a few days ago. Her condition is reported to be favorable at this time.

Mrs. Adams, mother of Mrs. (Dr.)

Thomas, is at the Thomas home.

The improvements of the fixtures in the Sheffield Farms Company milk plant are about completed. Harry Fye is being retained on the force for the present. Paul Hironimus, who was the fireman at the Centre Hall plant, is now in charge of the ice plant at the Bellefonte milk station, operating nights. The operation of the ice plant will be continued for the extra time for at least during the summer months. Paul appears to have made himself an indispensable adjunct to the Sheffield people.

The Pine Grove baseball nine will play at Spring Mills, Saturday afternoon.

Since the adjournment of the State Legislature more will be seen of Hon. John W. Decker, a member of the lower house, about Spring Mills. He survived the ordeal of night sessions and lording of the Republican senate without physical impairment or self respect. Centre's representative came through with credit to himself and was mindful of the interests of his constituents in casting his vote.

The Junior class of the Voc. school will hold a festival on the high school grounds on Saturday evening.

Another fishing party fished in Delaware Bay off Bower's beach, and later about 60 miles farther north at Deals Island. The party comprised Messrs. Harold Meyer, John Goodhart, Wm. Bressler, Jr., Charles Musser and Russell Braucher. They left here on Sunday morning and returned Monday night. They got 445 fish.

Mr. and Mrs. Nesin Shook are living at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. Cora Shook, near Spring Mills, and will assist in conducting the Shook farm and dairy. Mrs. Shook, before marriage was Miss Hazel Colyer, daughter of Daniel Colyer, west of Old Fort. A brief account of a double wedding, one of the couples being Mr. and Mrs. Shook, appears elsewhere in this issue of the Reporter.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smeltzer, Bellefonte, R. D., at the Centre County hospital, last Thursday. The mother is a daughter of W. A. Neese of Spring Mills.

A rumor to the effect that Dr. Geo. C. Thomas intends leaving Spring Mills is entirely without foundation.

Mrs. Harry Detweiler and daughter Sherley, of Cochranville, are visiting at the parental home of Mrs. Detweiler, that of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wagner.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wert and two sons, Bobby and Billy, spent Monday with Mrs. Wert's aunt, Mrs. Robert Kenneley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wagner spent Sunday at Hershey.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Grenoble and Mr. and Mrs. Ritchell, of Lock Haven, Mrs. Harry Showers and Jimmy Mufflinger, of Pleasant Gap; Mrs. Harry Haag and daughter, Miss Sarah, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday at the J. M. Mufflinger home.

Misses Bernice Smith and Pearl Linda, were delegates from St. Mark's Lutheran S. S. at the district convention at Farmers Mills, Sunday.

Mrs. Vera Myers and Charles F. Bartiges are delegates for the County S. S. convention to be held at Blanch-S. S. convention to be held at Blanch.

Boalsburg.

Miss June Orris, of Washington, D. C., arrived in town Saturday to visit indefinitely with her sister, Mrs. (Dr.) F. L. Swank.

Paul Klinger and Harold Lightly were elected delegates to the State C. E. convention to meet in Philadelphia in July.

Mrs. H. T. McGirk, of Bellefonte, spent several days with her sister, Miss Anna Dale.

Miss Isabel Graham spent last week with her sisters, Mrs. Barto and Mrs. George Musser, in Ferguson Twp.

Mrs. McWilliams and Miss Ida Sunday, of Pine Grove Mills, were visitors at the home of their brother, Harry Sunday, over the week-end.

A number of young people from town and vicinity attended the Kiwanis-Farmers picnic at Gimble Park on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hostetter and son spent Monday in search of a desirable apartment Mr. Hostetter having secured a position with the Bethlehem Steel Company.

Mrs. Houck, of Bellefonte, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Rocky and Mrs. John Wright and daughter, Marie, attended the Grove reunion at Grange Park, on Saturday.

Willard Rocky and family, of Petersburg, were visitors in town on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jonas, of Lehigh, accompanied by several friends, were present at the Children's day

Wink, a member of the local lodge. The music will be by a male quartette. The public is invited to come and worship with them.

During the last two weeks we have had an abundance of rain. It was welcome, even by farmers who had large acreages of cut grass lying when the first showers came along.

Summer arrived on schedule time at 3:38 a. m. Saturday, following the longest day of the year, but summer weather is yet to come.

day at the H. E. Foust home. The members of the Ladies' Aid are busy quilting. Last week they quilted at the home of Miss Caroline McClaskey and this week at the Mrs. F. F. Palmer home.

On Monday morning H. E. Foust took his wife to the Phillipsburg State hospital to be x-rayed. The picture disclosed gall stones. Mrs. Foust remained at the hospital to be operated on Tuesday morning.

The Allison farm is being improved by its owner, John F. McCoy, of Bellefonte, by installing an electric light and power system. The buildings are being wired this week by Edgar Sommers, of Pleasant Gap.
