INDEPENDENT PAPERS
DISCUSS THE PRESIDENT
"The President is putting the money and the men to work at the same time and no fatuous arguments supply a substitute for his plan. Thank God there is in the White House a man who has the heart to feel, the mind to understand and the courage to undertake the problems of the great mass of the people."—Los Angeles News. (Ind.)

"The overhanging mass of voters still think that Roosevelt is head and shoulders above any other national leader in sight. He will continue to have the popular support necessary to carry on his recovery program."—Washington News. (Ind.)

"Again and again, as many times in the past, it is shown that opposition to President Roosevelt ordinarily possesses only a negative strength."—Long Beach Press-Telegram. (Rep.)

Staggering to tell, Mills and Mellon and other officials of their time, secretly refunded to the big Boys of Wall Street $4,015,348,849. Such are the men who are leaders in the attack on Roosevelt because he is struggling in an endeavor that is vital to every man, woman and child, vital to the nation, vital to self-government and human liberty."—Portland, Oregon, Journal. (Ind. Rep.)

"Mr. Roosevelt has done something that no Republican administration ever did: he has exalted the man of low degree. And by so doing he has made himself the most popular President of our time."—Buffalo Courier-Express. (Ind.)

"We do not believe the mass of the people have forgotten or can forget what Roosevelt has done and is doing for all of us in the most strenuous economic crisis this country has ever known."—New York News. (Ind.)

"America, respecting his noble intentions, believing in his honesty and sincerity, still looks to Roosevelt's leadership. For he is the only man offering a constructive program."—Emporia Gazette. (Rep.)

WAIT TILL THE PEOPLE VOTE.
Under the above caption the Philadelphia Record commented on the vote in the House of Representatives, on the "death clause" of the holding company bill, and declared the defeat of the clause meant victory a year from November.
The Record further said:
What a spectacle!
Even the Representatives themselves were so ashamed, so cowardly that they dared not be recorded on a roll call against the President.
They wanted to serve the power trust—but they feared to betray Mr. Roosevelt.
So the teller system was put into motion permitting the members to vote without their names being recorded.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY PICNIC, PHILIPSBURG, JULY 18TH

Plans are rapidly being completed for the Democratic Victory Picnic to be held at the Black Moshannon Park, Philipsburg, Thursday, July 18. While this picnic is being sponsored by the Young Men's Democratic Clubs of Centre county, all the Democratic organizations, both men and women, in the county, are invited to participate in this picnic and make it the largest event of its kind ever held in Centre county. The program and arrangements are being worked out by the Young Men's Democratic Club of Philipsburg because of their close proximity to the Black Moshannon Park.

Walter Beezer, Philipsburg Democrat, and chairman of the picnic committee, announced that prominent speakers of the State and Nation will attend and address the picnic gathering.

Commenting on the picnic in general, Mr. Beezer said: We have arranged an excellent program that so far includes a band concert in the afternoon and evening. A free dance, both round and square, will be held in the log dance hall. A real sports program, both land and water, has been arranged for men, women and children. Various other contests will be held for which prizes will be awarded.

The Black Moshannon Park is one of the new State parks constructed with CCC labor during the past two years. It offers ample room to accommodate a large crowd. There are plenty of tables and benches and a large number of rustic shelter houses. For those who wish to cook hot meals there are stone grills with plenty of wood. The new dam, over two miles long, affords an ideal spot for swimming and boating.

The committee is working hard and guarantee the people of Centre county a real time at Black Moshannon Park on Thursday, July 18.
