

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

The local W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. Lavina Floray, Tuesday evening of next week. Election of officers will take place.

Mrs. Anni J. Lohr and daughters, Misses Nellie and Mabel, of Rutledge, and son, Prof. W. S. Lohr, of Easton, are spending several weeks of their vacation in Centre Hall, stopping at the C. E. Emery tourist inn.

John S. Ginter, prominent Tyrone banker and business man and independent in politics, was made assistant supervisor of finance and records, in District 11, Works Progress Administration, with offices in Somerset.

Walter Smith, manager of the Sheffield Farms Co. plant at Mill Hall, was transferred to a similar plant at Heuvelton, N. Y. The vacancy at Mill Hall was filled by Raymond Cook, formerly plant manager at Jersey Shore.

The annual Homecoming Day of the Woodward Evangelical Church will be held on the P. O. S. of A. grounds at Woodward during the day and evening of Saturday, August 17, instead of August 25th, as previously announced.

Mrs. Rebecca Romig and daughters, Mrs. R. A. Shumaker, Mrs. Lillian Crow and children, Misses Pauline, Marian and Theodore, all of Liverpool, spent Friday at the Bartholomew home. All returned home the same day excepting Pauline Crow, who is visiting for a week in this locality.

The bungalow dwelling being erected by E. E. Zettie, near his present home north of the railroad station, in the south section of town, is completed so far as the frame structure is concerned. It is of pleasing design and will add materially to the appearance of the short street. Mr. and Mrs. Zettie expect to occupy the place themselves.

Mrs. John H. Knarr and Mrs. W. F. MacMorran on Friday, motored to Baltimore, where they were entertained by two sisters, Mrs. Mabel Russell and Mrs. Belle Franke, of the former. On returning home on Sunday they brought with them Nellie Jane Knarr, daughter of Mrs. Knarr, who had been with the Baltimore relatives for a few weeks.

Linn Ross, of Lemont, who more than a week ago was injured in the ankle when a scaffold collapsed on which he was standing, was taken to Dr. Galbraith, the bone specialist, at Altoona, by Dr. Light, where a further examination of the injury was made. The ankle and leg, well up to the knee, was placed in a cast. His condition is gradually improving.

The Reporter, on Tuesday morning, received a call from Frank Phillips, who gave out the information that the foundation walls for his new dwelling house were completed and that carpenters began construction work before he left home. The dwelling is located north of the new garage erected by him along Route 322, at Milroy, and will be two stories, brick case.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ebright, on Friday, twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. On Sunday the couple motored to Eagles Mere to be with their daughter, who for the third season is employed at the park hotel. Miss Lorraine Brungart, a second young lady from here to be engaged at the same place for the same length of time.

John H. Bitner, Milroy, invites inspection of the paint job done for the writer on a Chrysler roadster that has been on the road for more than ten years. The color is dove gray and the work is as near perfection as one could wish, and shows how an old car can be transformed to a pleasing appearance when in the hands of an artist like Mr. Bitner, who, by the way, is a native of Potter township.

D. R. Rumberger, of Harrisburg, accompanied by his daughter, and son, Jean and Robert, high school pupils, and a nephew, Henry G. Rumberger, of Kansas City, Kas., on passing through Centre Hall, on Saturday morning, called on Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Smith. Mr. Rumberger is a representative of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, and a few days ago sold a policy with a $5000 premium. It was a 25-year endowment policy, the premiums on which were all paid in advance.

Frank S. Leister, Lewistown, R. D. 3, had his dwelling house repainted in white with green trimmings, the work having been done by Edward Durst, using a power paint spraying outfit. The property is one close to Mr. Leister's farm and is occupied by him. Mr. Leister is a dealer in the full sense of the word, and handles anything in the stock line from a nanny goat up. He no doubt inherited the trait from his father, the late Philip Leister, who lived at Pottery Mills, where he bought and traded, but on a less scale than his son referred to above.

Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Homan, who are staying with their son, Fred Homan, in town, received word a few days ago that a nephew, Harold Wise, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wise, was killed opposite his home near Clyde, Ohio, on crossing a highway on a bicycle. On seeing a large truck approach, the lad, who was twelve years old, alighted from his machine on the side of the road, and while standing there a touring car coming in the opposite direction struck him, shoving out his life. Mr. Wise, the father of the boy, went west from near Madisonburg, and is engaged at present in growing fruit.

Mrs. Lou Gilbert, mother of Mrs. Franklin D. Goodhart, Centre Hall, is an attendant of Miss Fredericks, Lock Haven, wholly an invalid. When a child of fourteen she fell while crossing a railroad track and injured her spine. This, however, did not interfere with her intellectual advancement.

Miss Margaret Goodhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Goodhart, of Johnstown, was taken to the Johns Hopkins hospital for observation, but returned without relief, although a number of specialists gave her very complete examinations. NINETEEN years old last week and this boy—hardly a man—has $1,000 in bank. Years ago he began with a small savings account. By working during odd hours he managed to build up a substantial account.

AND altogether apart from the money value is the character value attached to this account. For knowledge of what a boy can do with money is the foundation for banking credit for the man.
