Earl Elder underwent a tonsilectomy at Sunbury, one day last week.

Mrs. Russell, wife of Rev. Seth Russell, is visiting her parents at Karthaus.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Ziegler visited Howard Ziegler, a patient in the Centre County hospital, on Sunday night.

Ralph Shook made a business trip to Bellefonte one day last week.

The earth, up on The Hill, within the past few weeks was punctured four times in quest of water, and each time an abundance of water was discovered and made available. The first two drillings were made for Mrs. Pearl Decker and Elaine Bitner, for private use, and later by J. C. Lee and A. E. Lee, each of whom heads a local water company supplying domestic needs in particular sections of Spring Mills. The former Mr. Lee drilled to a depth of 125 feet, water rising to within six to eight feet of the surface. The latter Mr. Lee, on Monday, had penetrated the earth to a depth of 50 feet with water standing at half the well's depth, but drilling was continued. The patrons of the two water companies are now more than pleased that there are prospects for adequate supplies of water for each of the companies.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Shirk of Glen Iron, were visiting at the D. W. Sweetwood and J. C. King homes on Sunday, and were heartily greeted by others of their acquaintances. Mrs. Shirk will be better recalled as Miss Marjorie Sweetwood, who spent much of her youth about here. D. R. Pursely, a Laurelton merchant, also representing the JOLC, a Federal organization to aid in financing farms and homes, and Maurice Miller, the well-known Bellefonte carpenter, were also callers at the King home.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Reformed church met at the home of Mrs. Sterrill Bressler on Wednesday evening.

E. Weaver, of Altoona; Mrs. William Richardson, Martha Furnace; Mrs. Gingerich, of Woodland, and Mrs. Smith—met for their annual coming together at the home of Mrs. Gingerich.

The community was shocked on hearing of the death of Mrs. Calvin Ziegler, at Palmerton, which occurred on Thursday at her home. Interment was made at Madisonburg, on Tuesday. Mrs. Ziegler's maiden name was Miller. The family lived in Spring Mills where Mr. Ziegler was engaged in teaching instrumental music. The husband and a son, Paul, also a resident of Palmerton, survive the deceased.

John W. Vonada, one of Georges Valley's outstanding and progressive farmers and citizens, sustained painful injuries but no broken bones when he fell a distance of more than twenty feet from an apple tree, on Friday, while picking luscious fruit. At the beginning of the week Mr. Vonada was able to walk, but not without many reminders of what had happened a few days previous.

It is hoped the weather man will be kind over this week end for the Gregg Twp. Community Fair program. Booklets were distributed thru-out the schools and homes in the community on Monday. Exhibits will be accepted from Thursday morning until Friday morning at 9 a. m. Everyone is invited to the Grange hall at 7:30 on Friday and Saturday will interest everyone. No admission on Friday; Saturday admission 15c for school children and 25c for adults. The complete program is printed elsewhere in this issue.

The G. T. V. S. soccer team played a 0-0 tie with East Penn at Millheim last Friday. The two teams seemed evenly matched, both playing defensive ball with neither side being able to score during the four regular quarters and the two extra periods. A return game will be played at Spring Mills on Saturday of this week at 2:30 as part of the Community Fair program.

The G. T. V. S. girls' dodge ball team lost at East Penn last Friday, 19-16. The girls are hoping to even the count when they meet the East Penn girls at Spring Mills, Saturday.
