

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Miss Doris Moltz, on Saturday, underwent a tonsilectomy in a private hospital, Lewistown.

Warren Homan is erecting a private garage to the rear of his residence. Concrete blocks are being used in the construction.

A meeting of the Extension Class under the supervision of Eleanor Smith, will be held at the home of Mrs. Edgar Miller, Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock.

Mrs. Delas Keener, Mrs. Stanley Brooks, Mrs. Bruce Ripka, Mrs. J. F. Wetzel, Mrs. Charles Miller and Mrs. Ralph Hagan, attended the O. E. S. District meeting at Lock Haven, on Friday.

A very large bank barn with a straw shed attached is being built on the Kidder farm, owned by Mrs. Mary Kidder Stuart, located east of Boalsburg. William Stover, Boalsburg, is the master builder.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Smith, who spend much of their time with the former's sister, Mrs. A. G. Lieb, in Centre Hall, are in Philadelphia at this time, and while there will celebrate a marriage anniversary in excess of fifty.

Last week the construction of a rustic bridge, masonry piers and steps rip-rapping dam embankment, Black Moshannon creek, was begun as WPA project. It will afford work for seventeen men for two months at an expenditure of $1,765.49.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Mitterling and daughter Lois, lately of New York, but formerly residents of Chicago, are guests of their grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Mitterling. Mr. Mitterling is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mitterling, of Chicago.

Ralph, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Ralston, living on the Colyer farm east of Old Fort, was taken to the Lewistown hospital on Tuesday for a tonsil removal operation. Dr. Aills, surgeon. The youth, five years old, was brought back to his home on Wednesday.

A spike buck came to grief as he attempted to vault a high wire fence surrounding the former Dineen orchard, east of town. When the young buck struck the object his horns caught in the wire, the resilience throwing the body over the fence leaving him suspended. The act was observed by young men who at once notified Game Warden Mosier.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Fisher drove to Harrisburg, Monday morning, where Mr. Fisher attended the executive meeting of the Pennsylvania State Association of Mutual Insurance companies at the Harrisburg. After the meeting they went to Unionville to pay a short visit to Prof. and Mrs. J. W. Corman.

The first callers at the Lutheran parsonage since occupied by Rev. and Mrs. L. Arthur Warner, were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Zimmerman, of Sunbury, on their way to the Fisher hunting camp in the Bear Meadows section. Mr. Zimmerman is leader of the Sunbury City band. Mrs. Zimmerman is a cousin of Mrs. Wagner.

Mr. and Mrs. Marlon Keyser, accompanied by friends, of Cuyahoga, Ohio, motored through here on Sunday, and visited with Mrs. Keyser's sister, Mrs. J. C. Brooks. Mr. Keyser manager of a gas and oil station operated by the Pure Oil company, suffered a loss through a robbery of $55.00 in cash, also tires and tubes, for which loss he was held personally responsible.

Fields sown to wheat in Brush and Sugar Valleys have a more promising appearance than those in this particular section of Penna. Valley. In the former valleys there are few fields that are not attractive in appearance, resulting from either early sowing or more moisture after seeding. There are no brown spots. Corn in those valleys is also an excellent crop, and but the slightest headway in harvesting it has been made.

Mr. and Mrs. Wigan, of Washington, this State, were week-end guests of their son, Capt. Wigan, and Mrs. Wigan, who are cozily located in the Rowe bungalow in the north section of town. Capt. Wigan, construction officer at CCC camp 65, has about completed his work and, unless sent out on a similar mission elsewhere, expects to return to a CCC camp at Benzett, Elk county, from which camp he came to Centre Hall.

Three deer have been killed this fall by being struck by cars on the concrete road over Seven Mountains. On Nittany Mountain grey squirrels are prey to autos. On a single morning five squirrels were noted between the borough limits and the top—all had been killed crossing the roadbed. It is presumed the greys go to the woods along the edge of the mountain for nuts and are not frightened at the approach of cars. A thoughtful operator might be successful in avoiding hitting everything alive on the road.

A letter written on Friday by Warren Homan, Jr., at Cheraw, S. C., to G. Alfred Crawford, indicated the youths are making progress on their southern trip. The Star car carrying them to the point named at an expense of but $1.50, other than gas and oil. They expect to go to Florida, unless one of the State's authorities meets them at the border line and discovers their meagre means. It appears none are permitted to enter the State who do not have ample cash in the wallet. The other two make up the trio on this trip are Paul Foust and William Confer.

Red Cross Has Busy Year; Statistics Impressive; Services Varied

Figures gathered at random from the year's report of the American Red Cross reveal the magnitude of the work being carried on by that organization. Red Cross workers assisted 54,305 veterans; 587 Red Cross Public Health nurses paid 921,455 visits to 186,326 patients; 98,441 first aid certificates were issued while 46,693 persons were trained in life saving. Volunteer workers produced 3,102,843 surgical dressings, with 80,901 volunteers being on active duty throughout the year.

First Aid Treatment Taught Thousands By Red Cross

More than 187,000 certificates showing completion of first aid courses were issued last year by the Red Cross. This shows a gain of 56,000 certificates over the previous year. Approximately 64,200 boys in C.C.C. camps throughout the country passed first aid tests. Since the Red Cross first entered the field of first aid teaching, being one of the first organizations in the world to do so, almost one million persons have been trained in handling emergency treatment.

The annual report of the Red Cross further reveals that more than 327,000 copies of the Red Cross Aid Handbook have been sold at home and abroad.

The coroner's jury which heard the evidence on the death of John Hockensy, 71, whose body was found last Thursday morning in Spring creek near Milesburg, found that death was due to exposure and weakened condition through lack of proper care and nourishment.

When You Go to the Polls on Election Day, Vote for JOHN L. WETZLER for REGISTER OF WILLS

It seems almost presumption to undertake to tell the voters of Centre county anything about John L. Wetzler, Democratic candidate for Register of Wills and Clerk of the Orphans' Court. During the past four years he has impressed those who have come in contact with him, that he is a capable, efficient, and courteous officer.

As examples of the character of the man he is a member of the Official Board of the Baptist Church of Milesburg, and for many years a deacon and trustee of the same. For years he, with his brother, have devoted their lives to luring the boys of their community from probable mischief into the elevating influences of music, as members of the Wetzler's Band. For years he has been Secretary and Treasurer of the Board of Supervisors of Boggs Township. He has been for years a member of the I. O. O. F. and a member of the Past Grands Association as well as the P. O. S. of A. and Masonic Lodges. These are evidences of the confidence and trust placed in him by those who intimately know him. As further evidence of what they, who know him intimately, think of him, four years ago in the November Election, although a resident of a strong Republican District, his friends and neighbors overwhelmingly carried it for him. A native of Boggs Township where he formerly engaged in farming and where he was employed by his brother in his mercantile store, the people had an opportunity to learn of his trustworthiness.

It is an incontrovertible fact that every man who has ever had dealings with him, either personal or in his capacity as Register of Wills, has the utmost regard for his integrity and efficiency.

Mr. Wetzler is asking the support of the voters of the county in his candidacy for a second term. If elected he will give to the office the same conscientious service that has so consistently characterized his work during the past four years.

GIVE HIM YOUR VOTE ON ELECTION DAY.
