

CORN-HOG PRODUCTION CONTROL MEETING, OCTOBER 25

Centre county corn and hog producers will be interested in a meeting to be held in the Court House at Bellefonte on Friday evening, October 25th, at eight o'clock, according to president of the County Corn-Hog Production Control Association, Malcolm Musser, of Bellefonte.

This meeting has been arranged to give all corn and hog producers in the county an opportunity to vote on whether they desire the Federal Government to continue the Corn-Hog Adjustment program for next year.

According to the president, Musser, anyone raising corn or hogs in Centre county regardless of whether they have been contract signers in the past is eligible to vote on this question.

It is the desire of the county association to have a large number of corn and hog producers in the county come out and signify their desire whether for or against the Corn-Hog Control program.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE OF REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY

The undersigned, Administrator of etc. of Sarah E. Landis, late of Potter Township, Centre County, Pa., deceased, in pursuance of and in conformity with an order and decree issued out of the Orphans' Court of said County and State, under date of October 5th, 1935, will offer at public sale or outcry, on the late homestead premises of said decedent, for the payment of her debts, in the Village of Potters Mills, in said Township, County and State, on

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 2ND, A. D. 1935, commencing at One (1) O'clock P. M., all of the real and personal property of which the said decedent died seized and possessed, viz:

PERSONAL PROPERTY—A full and complete line of household goods and furniture will be first offered at this sale. Many of these articles are very old and quite valuable. Prospective "antique" purchasers will be interested.

REAL ESTATE—All those two certain tracts and parcels of ground, situate in the township, county and State aforesaid, bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

THE FIRST THEREOF—Beginning at stone on the south side of what is commonly known as Chestnut Street in the Village of Potters Mills; thence by other lands of said decedent south 34 degrees east 18.9 perches to a small white pine; thence by lands now or formerly of Archibald Allison, et al, north 55 degrees east 9.5 perches to stones; thence by same north 34 degrees west 18.9 perches to a stone on the south side of the aforementioned Chestnut Street; thence along same and the southern side of said street 55 degrees west 9.5 perches to the place of beginning, and containing one acre and 19 perches, neat measure.

THE SECOND THEREOF—Beginning at a post; thence by lands now or formerly of Frank Ennist, south 33 degrees east 32.5 perches; thence by lands of Allison, formerly John W. Irvin north 61 degrees east 15 perches to a stone; thence by same north 33 degrees west 32.5 perches to a post; thence by same south 61 degrees west 15 perches to the place of beginning, and containing three (3) acres, neat measure.

Erected upon the above described tracts is a six-room two-story frame dwelling house, in exceptionally good repair and condition; also a few small outbuildings.

This property would make a fine summer home for a small family.

TERMS OF SALE: Personal property, cash. Real Estate: 25 per cent. of the purchase price to be paid in cash when real estate is knocked down and declared sold, and the balance of 75 per cent. to be paid in cash to the undersigned administrator upon confirmation of sale and delivery of deed.

Presenting the Democratic Candidates for County Offices, for the Voters' Consideration

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER.
J. VICTOR BRUNGART

It requires sometime for a newly-elected County Commissioner to learn the duties of his office, and especially to learn the business to the extent where he is able to save the taxpayers' money while at the same time giving a full measure of service.

For that reason J. Victor Brungart, of Rebersburg, who is running for reelection as Commissioner under the Democratic standard, is a most valuable candidate, for without him on the board that is to serve the next four years, the County Commissioners would be without one to suggest a course of procedure; without a member who has had previous experience in that office, and who knows the fine points of administering the most important duties of the office.

Victor Brungart is an able leader—one who is qualified to suggest a course of procedure, for during the term of office which is now drawing to a close, he himself suggested many innovations that resulted in substantial savings to the county coffers.

Mr. Brungart was born at Rebersburg on February 24, 1882, a son of Newton and Lucy Shaffer Brungart both deceased. He received his early education in the public schools of Miles township, and successfully passed a rigid course in the summer Academy taught by C. L. Gramley, at that time County Superintendent of Schools.

At the age of 20 he completed his education and in 1900 he passed the examinations to teach, following that profession for the next three years. In June 1904 he was united in marriage with Lida E. Yearick, and following a brief honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Brungart moved to Kent, Ohio, where for a year he was engaged in the insurance business. Receiving a promotion at the end of the year, he was sent to Akron, Ohio, and later to Braddock, Pa.

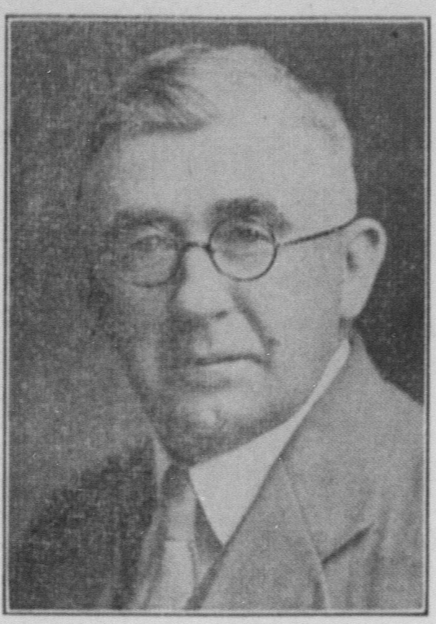

Mr. Brungart longed to return to the farm, however, so he gave up a promising career in the insurance business and moved to his father's farm in Rebersburg. In the spring of 1910 he purchased another farm nearby, where he has since resided.

The Brungart family consists of three sons: Harold, former well-known Centre County milk tester; Randall who holds a responsible position in Covington, West Va., and Malcolm at Rebersburg.

Mr. Brungart served as auditor of Miles township for a number of years; served as school director in that district for six years; was a member of the board of Centre County Mutual Fire Insurance Company for six years and is supervisor of the committee in charge of farm machinery at the Grange Fair.

He is a member of the Lutheran church and has served in an official capacity in that congregation for a number of years.

Mr. Brungart has proved himself during the last four years to be a thorough, conscientious and highly competent public official—one in whom the voters can be justly proud. His desire to again serve in that office is fostered by the hope that he will be given the opportunity to carry out the program of efficient administration that was begun during his first term in that capacity.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER.
ALFRED E. BOWERSOX

Although he entered the Primary campaign comparatively late, Alfred L. Bowersox of State College, won instant and hearty support from members of his own party in securing the nomination for the office of Commissioner. This is Mr. Bowersox's first campaign for county office, although he has demonstrated marked executive ability in local offices and in his own business enterprises.

At present a member of the State College Borough Council, Mr. Bowersox has brought to that body the benefit of his wide experience as a farmer, salesman, school teacher and insurance representative. That he is well qualified to serve on the board of County Commissioners, and pass upon measures directly affecting the taxpayers of the county, cannot be disputed after a study of his past record of service.

Mr. Bowersox was born in Pennsylvania on May 11, 1876, a son of the late Frankling Bowersox, well known farmer, and Mariah Ocker Bowersox, both of whom are deceased. His parents came from families who were tried and trusted members of the Democratic beliefs.

When Alfred was a small boy his parents moved to a farm in Ferguson township, where he received his early education. Upon completing the grades he matriculated at the Lock Haven State Teachers' College, from which he was graduated in 1902.

Upon receiving his diploma from that institution Mr. Bowersox spent four years as the traveling representative of a grocery concern, relinquishing that position when he took over the management of his father's farm in Ferguson township. After seven years of successful and progressive farming, he became a school teacher—a profession he followed with distinction for 22 years 19 of which were spent in the Ferguson township schools. During twelve years of this time he lived at Pine Grove Mills, and served two terms as auditor of Ferguson township.

In March 1909 Mr. Bowersox was united in marriage with Margaret Keichline, daughter of George Keichline, of Ferguson township, relative of John M. and Peter Keichline of Bellefonte. To this union two daughters were born: Mrs. Edward Gilliland, of State College, and Miss Florence Bowersox, who this month became a member of the senior class at the Pennsylvania State College, where she is studying home economics.

Other members of his immediate family residing in Centre county include two brothers and two sisters: Oscar and John Bowersox, of State College; Mrs. Anna B. Gray, of State College, and Mrs. Gordon Harper, of Pennsylvania Furnace.

The Bowersox family moved to State College seven years ago and Mr. Bowersox is now engaged as an insurance agent in that community. He is a devout and active member of the Reformed church of Pine Grove Mills and is at present one of the elders of that church. He holds membership in the I. O. O. F. of Pine Grove Mills, and the Modern Woodmen of America at State College. An ardent sportsman, he usually spends several days each fall in his favorite hobby, hunting.

Backed by a fine record and by a spotless reputation in business dealings Mr. Bowersox pledges himself to observe the same care in handling the public's affairs as he has used in conducting his own businesses. A solid, substantial citizen, the voters of the county will do well to choose him as one of their Commissioners at the November election.

Every year more and more American housewives replace their stoves with modern electric cooking equipment.

The home, today, is thought of as a place for better living more than ever before. Naturally the kitchen, where the housewife does most of her work, is considered first.

Today's housewife wants her kitchen modern—not a place that will be obsolete in a few years—that is why more and more American women are choosing the Electric Range. They have accepted its many advantages as the modern way to cook, and have found that its efficiency allows them the freedom that is part of today's living.

Surprising as it may seem the average cost of cooking electrically is but $2.20 a month
