ARTHUR BRISBANE, MOST FAMOUS OF EDITORS, NOW WRITING FOR THIS PAPER. Arthur Brisbane is acclaimed, even by most of those who do not always agree with everything that he says, as the greatest editorial writer of the present day. He has been known for years as the highest paid editor in the country. We feel ourselves particularly fortunate, therefore, in being able to present to our readers each week a column of editorial comment by Mr. Brisbane on the news of the world, under the heading, "This Week."

ARTHUR BRISBANE. Inspired by the latest happenings and trends throughout the world, and more particularly in the United States, Mr. Brisbane is intensely American and this is reflected in his comment on current events. He expresses his own opinions and not necessarily those of this paper and others for which he writes. Undoubtedly you are a regular reader of Mr. Brisbane's column and are finding it entertaining as well as full of valuable information. Your friends, if they are not now reading it, will appreciate your calling their attention to the fact that this most brilliant of all American editorial writers is now a regular contributor to this paper.

Deaths

FORTNEY.—In the death of David Geiss Fortney, on Wednesday afternoon of last week, a descendant of one of the oldest families in Potter township passed out of this life. He was a son of John and Nancy (Binner) Fortney, the former from Lancaster county, and the latter from Lebanon county, who settled in Potter township many years ago. The Fortney homestead remaining in the family name to the present time, and its location only a short distance north of the home of the subject of this sketch.

The deceased was born May 25, 1858, making his age at time of his death 77 years, 7 months and 10 days. Death followed a prolonged illness, the nature of which was of a character holding out no probability of recovery to the two children—John and Mary—who with the father made up the family circle. When yet a young man, Mr. Fortney married Miss Ada Swartz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Swartz, a neighbor's daughter, and immediately, or at least soon thereafter set up housekeeping on the farm where he died. The place was known as the William Rishel farm and was inherited by the mother of Mrs. Fortney. Later the farm was purchased by Mr. Fortney.

Aside from the two children named above, there survive the deceased two sisters, Miss Annie Fortney, living on the Fortney homestead, and Elizabeth, widow of former Sheriff Dunkle, residing in Punxsutawney. Funeral services were held on Saturday afternoon; burial in the Tusseyville cemetery by the side of the remains of Mrs. Fortney, who died about six years ago. Services were conducted by Rev. L. A. Wagner, pastor of the Lutheran church.

STONER.—Mrs. Ellen Stoner, almost 82 years old, died Tuesday at State College. She was the widow of Henry Stoner, of Millheim and Potter township. Interment will be made this Thursday at the Branch cemetery.

CONDO.—Daniel Tobias Condo, 78, a retired silk mill worker, died at 4:30 o'clock Monday afternoon at his home in Williamsport, following a stroke of paralysis. He had been a member of the Evangelical church for many years.

He is survived by two sons and three daughters, all of Lock Haven; William J., John B. and Miss Emma Condo; Mrs. Anna Oberforf and Mrs. Mary Watson; and by two sisters and one brother; Mrs. James Bower of Hampshire, Ill.; Mrs. Emma Young of Boalsburg, and Samuel L., of Spring Mills.

The funeral services will be held at the home at 2:30 this (Thursday) afternoon with interment in Fairview cemetery, Lock Haven.

KEISTER.—Funeral services for Mrs. Sara Jane Keister, 61, wife of Harry Keister, were held Wednesday afternoon of last week along the Cedar Run road, the Rev. Mark A. Herman officiating. Mrs. Keister died Monday at her home. Other survivors are two sons and three daughters: Clifford, at home; Blane, Centre Hall; Mrs. Anna Swooley and Mrs. Mamie Swooley, of Centre Hall, R. D.; and Mrs. Mary Harkinson, Williamsport; also a sister, Miss Anna Wiertz, at home.

S. S. CLASS MEETING.

The Willing Workers, a class in the Lutheran Sunday school, held their Christmas meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Roy Dutrow, a member, in Centre Hall. The president, Mrs. Fred Homan, presided during the regular opening service. Later the ladies engaged in playing games, exchange of gifts among the class members, and then enjoyed refreshments served by the hostess. In endeavoring to find some useful service for the class to perform, the idea of contributing toward purchasing gowns for the minister and choir members met with favor, provided the innovation of the gowns was acceptable to the congregation.

The members of the class present were: Miss Cora Homan, Mrs. Ray Shroyer, Mrs. Ralph Homan, Mrs. Fred Luse, Mrs. Burton Fetterolf, Mrs. Frank White, Mrs. Fred Homan, Mrs. Daniel Bloom, Mrs. Ralph Luse, Mrs. Arthur Thoman, Mrs. John Dutrow, Mrs. Russell Walker, Mrs. Raymond Walker, Mrs. Roy Dutrow, Mrs. George Fetterolf, Mrs. J. M. Coldron, teacher. Visitors were Mrs. A. H. Spayd and Melvin Dutrow.

JUDGE SHULL SUPPORTS GAME COMMISSION IN ITS OPEN SEASON FOR ANTLERLESS DEER

In an opinion filed by Judge Shull, the action of the Game Commission in Pennsylvania its declaration of an open season for antlerless deer in certain counties was supported. The commission was represented by deputy Attorney General Grover C. Lader, in the Pike county court. Judge Shull, some years ago, issued an injunction against similar action by the game commission, but that ruling, he said in his opinion filed on Tuesday, was under the Act of 1923, Section 511, which Act was repealed in 1931, and under the substituting section, the Judge ruled, the commission was within its power in fixing the 12th, 13th and 14th days of December as an open season on antlerless deer.

HUNTING NOTES.

While several bear were carried through Centre Hall on cars from hunting camps in the Alleghenies, but one stopped in Centre Hall. William Walker, an experienced hunter, hunting with the Burns Run hunting club, in the Alleghenies, made up of members from this immediate vicinity, killed it. Its weight was between 160 and 170 pounds. He came upon the bear very unexpectedly, both the bear and man being surprised at the meeting. Bruin was killed in his tracks by the unerring aim of the hunter. It was a good day for Mr. Walker, who also killed a buck. Since last Wednesday, a large number of buck deer were carried through town. From the direction they came, one is led to believe the greater part of them were slaughtered in the Alleghenies. The Seven Mountains field, once the attractive section for deer hunters in all sections of the state, was much below par this year in bucks seen or killed. The slaughtering of doe deer at the close of this week, will mark the end of a once paradise for hunters.

A twenty-four point buck was killed by a young Nippenose Valley hunter.

A much-sought-after buck was finally killed by Rev. D. R. Keener, Centre Hall on Wednesday afternoon, along Nittany mountain, 3 miles east of Centre Hall. The buck, an 8-point, proved an elusive animal during the season until the Rev. Mr. Keener routed him up very unexpectedly after only a few minutes hunting.
