YOUNG HUNTER KILLED IN PO VALLEY REGION, 7 MTS. PROBABLY MISTAKEN FOR DEER
The first hunter in Centre county to pay with his life during the 1935 hunting season was a youth of twenty-five, Russell Neubaum of Halifax, near Harrisburg, who was shot to death on Thursday afternoon while hunting in Pine Swamp, a section lying between Coburn and Po Valley.

The dead body of the man was found by Oscar Ulrich, Spring Mills, and William Alters, Coburn, who were hunting in the region. They heard a shot, the scream of a man, and then two more shots. Going in the direction the cry of great distress came, the youth was found lying on his back, dead. The pumpkin bullet proving fatal was found in the man's clothing having entered the back under the shoulder blade, passing thru the lung and chest.

Companion hunters with Neubaum and from the same section were Woodrow Koppenhoffer and Paul Idell, who appeared on the scene shortly after Ulrich and Alters had made the discovery, stating they also had heard the shooting and the scream.
On the arrival of Coroner Heaton, a jury was named, composed of the two men who found Neubaum, Roy Rote, Spring Mills, Lee Vonada, Elmer Hoover, Coburn, and Ralph Rote, Millheim, who after hearing any evidence that could be produced, returned a verdict that it was their belief that Neubaum had been mistaken for a deer.
Neubaum was twenty-five years old, and married.

SECOND HUNTER FROM HALIFAX KILLED IN SEVEN MOUNTAINS
William Straw, aged 41 years, a resident of Halifax, lost his life Saturday afternoon while hunting in the Seven Mountains, presumably having been hit by a stray bullet. The accident occurred in the section lying east of Woodward. With a bullet wound through the hip, the limp body of the hunter was taken to the Veterans CCC Camp at Welkert.
The coroner's jury brought in a verdict that a stray bullet had come from the gun of some hunter belonging to a party other than that to which the unfortunate man belonged, but unknown.

A drive was in action on Thick Mountain. A doe deer passed the line in Straw's section and was shot at by two companion hunters. After this firing Straw called out, "I shot the deer and am shot myself."
Straw was a World War veteran, married, and the father of six children. He was a resident of Halifax, from which place Russell Neubaum, killed on Thursday in the same vicinity, also hailed.

Deaths

HARTER—Aaron H. Harter died in Harrisburg, where he had lived for more than forty years, during the early part of last week, and interment was made on Wednesday. He is survived by three sons, Mrs. Harter, who was Miss Clara Hickernell, of Hartleton, having died a number of years ago. He was aged 85 years.

The deceased was a son of William and Rebecca Harter and was born in Haines township, and was the last of twelve brothers and sisters. He and his family located in Centre Hall in 1884, and erected the property now owned by W. F. Bradford, in the south section of Centre Hall. While living here he was employed by the milling firm of Fred. Kurtz and Son, as a fireman and assistant to the miller. During the latter nineties he was appointed assistant fireman at the Capitol light plant in Harrisburg, and later became fireman and then engineer, retiring while holding that position.

He was a member of the Lutheran church and on several occasions attended General Synod sessions as a delegate, consequently was well versed in Lutheran activities as carried on by the higher church body.
REED—Mrs. Maria Reed, widow of the late David Reed, Pine Grove Mills, died in State College at the home of James I. Reed, a step-son, on Monday aged 86 years. She was a daughter of Frederick Harpster and was first married to Samuel Hess. Burial was made on Wednesday at Pine Grove Mills.

HOUSER—At the advanced age of 86 years, 7 months and 7 days, James William Houser died on Friday at his home at Rockview. He was twice married—first to Sarah Musser and later to Nannie Shaw—both of whom are deceased. Charles and Abraham Houser, both of Rockview, and Mrs. Sarah Shreck, Lemont, are surviving children.
Funeral services were held Monday afternoon, Rev. J. F. Harking officiating; burial at Houserville.

GENTZEL—Lester Gentzel, aged 34 years, 9 months, died from bronchopneumonia, at the Centre County hospital, on Saturday. The body was brought to the Goodhart morgue for preparation for burial, and Wednesday services were held in the funeral parlor and burial made in the Heckman cemetery, Gregg township.
The deceased was single and lived with his parents, Moyer and Louise Gentzel, near Rebersburg. He was born in Gregg township. A few years ago he was struck by a hit-and-run automobile driver on the Old Port-Spring Mills highway and was badly injured, but had apparently fully recovered.

HIXSON—In the death of Mrs. Alice Rhone Hixson, at her home in Los Angeles, Calif., December 3rd, there passed away the last member of the Rhone family. Deceased was aged 88 years, and was a sister of the late Hon. Leonard Rhone. She was reared at Rhonemede, west of Centre Hall and married Mr. Hixson at the old homestead sixty-seven years ago, leaving immediately thereafter for the West. Her parents were John Jacob and Sarah Rhone. She leaves two daughters. Her husband passed away a year ago, the couple having enjoyed together sixty-five years of wedded life.

JONES—Mrs. Rebecca Angeline Jones, wife of Harry F. Jones, died at her home in Bellefonte early Saturday morning, from complications, aged 28 years. She was a daughter of Harvey Confer and was born in Millheim.
She is survived by her husband and her mother and three children—Samuel, Betty and Robert, the latter two being twins. She also leaves the following brothers and sisters, E. L. Confer, Harry C. Confer and J. F. Confer, all of Lewistown, and Mrs. Ruth Glover.

OYLER—John Wilson Oyler, 87, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Oscar Wensel, of Milesburg, on Thursday morning of chronic neuritis. He was a life-long resident of Nittany Valley, but had come to Milesburg several weeks ago to spend the winter. He was a member of the Howard Methodist church.
Surviving are three daughters and two sons: Mrs. Fred Harker, of Ridgway; Mrs. Oscar Wensel, Milesburg; Mrs. Blanche Daley, Orviston; Roy and Milford, both residing on the farm in Nittany Valley, where Mr. Oyler lived. Interment was made Sunday afternoon at Howard.

As quietly as he lived so was the close of the life of a member of The Phillipsburg Daily Journal staff, Henry Hudson Bar, 72, whose sudden death occurred Sunday afternoon at about 1:30 o'clock at the family home on South Second street. Death was attributed to an acute heart attack.

A road company, 6,000, will be built in the company shops. The Altoona works will build 3,300; Enola was assigned 1,250; and 1,350 went to the Pottsville shops. The remaining 4,000 cars will be built by equipment building companies. It is estimated that in the work of fabrication alone employment for a full year will be given 2,000 men. An additional 6,000 men will be engaged over a long period in the basic industries producing various materials. The project is expected to be completed in approximately a year.

GREGG TOWNSHIP VOCATIONAL SCHOOL NEWS.

Seniors Lead in Scholastic Standing
The senior class leads the other three classes in scholastic standing at the close of the second six weeks period. They were also first at the close of the first period. The standing at present is:

Senior class—point average .153
Sophomore class, point av. .158
Junior class, point av. .133
Freshman class, point av. .055
Point average for entire school 1.35.

Sophomores Lead in Attendance
For the second successive period the sophomore class has the best attendance record among the high school classes. The present averages are:

Sophomore class .98.9%
Freshman class .97.7%
Junior class .95.0%

Scholastic Honor Roll
The following pupils had scholastic point averages of 2.6 or better and for that reason have earned places on the scholastic honor roll for the second period. The first three named were on the roll for the first period: Margaret Grenoble, Inez Zettle, Evelyn Brooks, Twila Hagen, Frances Frazier, Betty Lee, Hazel Zettle, and John Shook.

The following pupils have perfect attendance records to the close of the second period on November 27: Anna Barger, Daisy Boob, Evelyn Brooks, Margaret Grenoble, Twila Hagen, Pauline Zettle, Inez Zettle, Adam Condo, Ellsworth Stover, Gladys Keller, Cora McCool Franklin Barges, Robert Campbell, Frances Zerby, Spurgeon Condo, Richard Feltenberger, Bernice Barger, Catharine Barger, Dorothy Duck, Kathryn Frazier, Gladys Grove, Betty Lee, Hazel Zettle, Bernice Zettle, Rosaline Hosterman, Herbert Beckenbaugh, Virginia Boob, Kathryn Ebert, Martha Keller, Isabel Musser, Mildred Stover, Spurgeon Hennigh, Junior Illian, Kenneth Lingie, Joseph Myers, John Shook.

Moving Pictures to Be Shown
A talking moving picture entitled "Light for Living," will be shown in the assembly room of the vocational building at Spring Mills at 8 P. M., Thursday, December 19th. The picture has to do with the importance of proper light for good vision. D. W. Rice, of the West Penn Power Co., will present the picture and explain certain phases. All adults in the community and particularly parents of school children are invited to the showing.

Play Alumni Teams Friday Night
The Gregg T. V. S. boys' and girls' basketball teams open their present season with games Friday, having as their opponents the strong Alumni teams. The girls' game will be played first and will start at 7:30.

Providence seems to have favored the doe deer in Centre county to the extent of taking the joy out of being in the mountains by providing anything but favorable weather conditions for hunting during the season the antlerless deer could legally be killed. Anyway the hunters who killed a doe, or baby buck, doesn't have much to be proud of.

METHODIST TRAINING CAMP NEWTON HAMILTON, OFFICERED

The Methodist Training Camp at Newton Hamilton will again be opened during the months of July and August. At a recent meeting of the conference board of education of the Methodist church, the institute officers elected were:
