

Spring Mills

A Collection of Newsy Happenings and Personals from Gregg Township's Metropolis.

The Red Cross Roll Call Report from Spring Mills and environs for 1935 lacks but a fraction of a dollar of reaching the total of the report for 1934, and is a fine showing of the helpful spirit of the community.

The sprained ankle of Margaret Grenoble '36, may have a detrimental effect on the success of the basketball team of the Gregg Township Vocational school. Margaret is one of the team's stars and even a single star out of a constellation is sorely missed. The ankle was injured in a game.

Among the visitors in town over the holidays include Glenn Long, F. and M. student; Robert Corman, Penn State student; Miss Deicie Morris, teacher, Doylestown; Miss Rebecca Robinson, R. N., Abington Memorial hospital, Abington.

Mrs. Esther Sleiffer, probably better known as "Dot" Sleiffer, became a Centre County hospital patient on Friday and on Monday forenoon underwent a testinal operation. She died Monday evening.

Groce Silk Mill Closes.—The workers at the Groce silk mill were stunned on Thursday when they were informed the mill would be shut down at once. No further statement was made. It is reported there is an abundance of raw material on hand. For some time the mill has been running continuously—three shifts during every 24 hours, which would indicate a market for the product. The pay checks will be greatly missed by the workers as they contributed largely to flow of ready cash in the community.

Appendectomy.—Miss Ruth Helsey daughter of Stephen Helsey, the electrician, on Saturday underwent an appendectomy at the Centre County hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rossman spent Sunday at the John Heckman home. William Sones, one of the elderly citizens in this locality, is very seriously ill.

Miss Hazel McMalon, of Newark, D.I., sister of Mrs. Watts, was a pre-

Christmas visitor at the Curtis Watts home.

Alumni Party and Dance.—The Gregg Township Vocational School and former High school held their alumni party and dance at Centre Hills Country Club house, near State College, on Friday night, the attendance reaching almost to ninety. The affair was a large success in every particular. An elaborate supper was served. Various amusements were indulged in, the principal ones being dancing and cards. The All Stars orchestra, of Sunbury, like on a number of similar former occasions, furnished the music. The square dances were called by Rufus Hettinger, who is proficient in that art.

The community Christmas tree beautifully decorated and set on the Vocational school lawn, added to the cheer of the Christmas season. This was the first community tree erected, but if the present spirit prevails at the close of 1935, the community tree will again appear.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Braucht and daughter Henrietta were visitors at the Harold Meyer home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Corman and Mrs. Annie Smith were guests on Christmas day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Windom Gramley, in Millheim, and on Sunday the Gramleys and their son, John Gramley, principal of the Clymer schools, also Mrs. Sara Corman, were guests at the Corman home at Spring Mills.

Ross, Detroit Times; Dan Kennedy, Colorado Springs Gazette and Telegraph; and John L. Jenkins, Chicago Daily News. The lower photos show the Chevrolet half-ton truck, which Harry Hartz drove to the summit in 25 minutes, 3 seconds, and the finish of the run of the 1 1/2-ton truck with full load.
