The first to the fourth grade schools, taught by Misses Helen White and Martha Yearick, are on vacation for a month, during the time the repairing of the school building is in progress. The heating system is now being installed, and after this will come the rebuilding of stairways, installing of toilets on both the first and second floors, and painting. The whole is a WPA project.

Miss Catharine Rubie, R. N., continues to be confined to bed at the home of her mother, Mrs. Sallie Rubie, due to a broken knee cap, the result of an automobile accident that happened in Maryland a few weeks ago. The limb is encased in a plaster cast which will not be removed permanently for several weeks to come. Miss Rubie is employed by the P. R. R. Company at Sparks, Maryland.

The Farmers National Bank and Trust Company, Millheim, held its annual meeting on Thursday. An item of interest to the stockholders was the declaration of a dividend—one per cent, for a six months period. Although the dividend is small it indicates business is taking a turn for the better and that dividends may be expected to increase. The former officers were re-elected: President, Dr. S. G. Frank, L. E. Stover, and P. M. Fisher, vice presidents; S. W. Granley, cashier and trust officer; Samuel L. Hubler, assistant cashier and Reuben Smith, clerk.

Mrs. Ruth McWilliams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Condo, Greensburg, on motoring from the home of her parents to her home in Pittsburg, met with an accident in which she was painfully, but not seriously, injured, and one of two sons, aged between four and five years, had an arm broken, the younger son escaping without injury. The car Mrs. McWilliams was operating was hit by a truck and demolished. The driver was thrown into the windshield, resulting in her nose being split and other injuries inflicted. The broken arm the boy received was the fifth break he experienced in his short life. The information concerning the accident was received in a letter by Mrs. James L. Decker, of near Centre Hall, a sister of Mrs. McWilliams, and by her conveyed to other relatives of the unfortunate woman.
