STAR DUST

Movie • Radio

By VIRGINIA VALE

MIRIAM HOPKINS is planning to adopt another child. She adores young Michael, whom she took under her wing some time ago, and doesn't want him to grow up alone. It's nice for Michael to have such a good home, of course, and it's marvelous for the beautiful Miriam to have Michael. Matrimony has not turned out too well for her, and she's not the sort of girl who's satisfied with just being beautiful and popular and having a grand time at parties. She likes having a home, and having some one in it who loves her. And what better some one could she have than a child? So once again she's consulting the famous Chicago nursery from which so many babies have gone to the homes of screen and radio stars.

Miriam Hopkins

After seeing "The Thin Man" again, recently, there's just one thing to say—that it is one of the best pictures made in years and years. Also, that though Rosalind Russell is very good indeed in "Rendezvous," Myrna Loy, originally scheduled for the role, would have been ever so much better.

It looks as if "The Informer" would be acclaimed everywhere as the best picture made in 1935. The National Board of Review says it is, in case that means anything to you. Here's the board's list of the best—that is, the best American-made pictures; "Alice Adams," "Anna Karenina," "David Copperfield," "The Gilded Lily," "Les Miserables," "Mutiny on the Bounty," "Ruggles of Red Cap," and the Silly Symphony, "Who Killed Cock Robin?"

This is the sort of thing that happens in the movie world. There is a young girl named Doris Dudley—she's just eighteen, not exceptionally pretty, and with no record so far as talent is concerned. She has been in one play that never reached New York, and recently opened in another one, "The Season Changes."

But—RKO has signed her for four pictures, at $1,500 a week for the first two, and $1,750 a week for the next two.

And the answer to the question every one has asked—"Why should this girl get such a contract?" is the fact that her agent is Leland Hayward, who is the agent (and either is or is not the husband) of Katherine Hepburn.

Polly Moran is going to Australia and points west. She's walking out on American picture-makers because they won't give her the salary to which she's been accustomed.

Gary Cooper and his wife must have had a grand time when they spent their honeymoon in Bermuda, for they're going back there in February when he starts a three-months' vacation.

Of course, all the newspaper articles on "mercy killers" had to lead straight to the screen; Darryl Zanuck, who likes to make pictures based on current news events, has a pictured called "The Mercy Killer" in the making right now.

Hollywood is engaged in the gruesome business of adding one and one and making three; the death of Ross Alexander's wife, and then Thelma Todd's unexplained demise, have made people ask: "Who'll be the third?" Patsy Kelly, who made comedies with Thelma before she broke into bigger and better pictures, is dreadfully broken up over Thelma's death. She took a plane for New York as soon as she could; wanted to get away from Hollywood for a little while.

Jean Harlow isn't going to play glamorous bad girls on the screen any more if she can help it; she's abandoned them along with her platinum hair. She's always wanted roles in which she could really act.

Movie actors who decide to go on the stage, and head for New York to try their luck, have been sadly disillusioned; theatrical producers are perfectly willing to engage them—if the stars will put up at least part of the money for the production.

ODDS AND ENDS . . . William S. Hart has sold a story, "O'Malley of the Mounted," to Twentieth Century-Fox; George O'Brien will do it . . . Colleen Moore is going to marry the manager of her Doll House tour . . . It is news that Jimmie Cagney is once again threatening to leave Warner Brothers if he doesn't get more money? . . . "The Goldbergs" will return to the air early in the new year.

Crocheted Potholders in a Lantern Design

By GRANDMOTHER CLARK

Potholders are necessary in every kitchen so why not make them attractive when you do make them? These potholders are crocheted with heavy string crochet cotton forming Jap lanterns and in colors red, green, yellow. The design is the same on all three but the colors are reversed, giving a very attractive and pleasing effect. The finished holders measure 6 inches each. No padding is required if made with heavy cotton. The instructions for making this set, No. 732, will be mailed to you for 10 cents. Instructions with material will be mailed for 40 cents.

Don't Guess But Know

Whether the "Pain" Remedy You Use is SAFE?

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations

THE person to ask whether the preparation you or your family are taking for the relief of headaches is SAFE to use regularly is your family doctor. Ask him particularly about Genuine BAYER ASPIRIN.

He will tell you that before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin most "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as bad for the stomach and, often, for the heart. Which is food for thought if you seek quick, safe relief.

Scientists rate Bayer Aspirin among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and the pains of rheumatism, neuritis and neuralgia. And the experience of millions of users has proved it safe for the average person to use regularly. In your own interest remember this.

You can get Genuine Bayer Aspirin at any drug store—simply by asking for it by its full name, BAYER ASPIRIN. Make it a point to do this—and see that you get what you want.
