

Spring Mills

A Collection of Newsy Happenings and Personals from Gregg Township's Metropolis.

Mrs. Alexander, wife of W. P. Alexander, aged 73 years, a former resident of Spring Mills, died in Harrisburg. A more extended account of the death appears under a proper head elsewhere in this issue.

Bud Western Zong was sentenced to the Western Penitentiary for a period of from two to four years by Judge Fleming, following a plea of guilty of having broken into the Vocational school building on December 14, and appropriating to himself a revolver and $50.00 in cash, the money having been funds belonging to school pupils.

Nevin Musser, an employe of the Groce silk mill, is visiting with his sister, May, in Fairmont, W. Va.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Reformed church met on Wednesday evening. After the business of the society was transacted, the remainder of the evening was taken up with entertainment, and after that a delightful luncheon was served.

A coal chute was lost between Spring Mills and Millheim, on Saturday morning. Anyone discovering it is asked to report to the Spring Mills post office.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Mark will become residents of Spring Mills about the first of April, at which time they will occupy the home purchased recently from Harold Stover, located near the P. R. R. station, and now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Shunk. Mr. Mark is employed by C. B. Stover, in stalling heating plants, plumbing, etc. The Shunks, it is understood, will return to Centre Hall and again live in their home there.

The basketball game scheduled for Friday night at Beavertown was postponed due to unfavorable weather and road conditions.

Mr. and Mrs. Bright Bitner and Miss Marion Tschudy spent Saturday afternoon in Bellefonte.

Mrs. Emma Hazel, who has been ill for the past few weeks, is improving.

Calvin Harshbarger, a former resident of Spring Mills, R. D., but now living with his sons in Altoona, is in a very serious condition in a Philadelphia hospital following an operation necessitating the removal of an eye.

The cooking class, under Miss Eleanor Smith, home economics extension worker, will divert its study from cooking to another phase of home economics when it meets on Friday at the home of Mrs. Guy Corman. Instruction at that time will be given on renovating used chairs and other house furnishings. This instruction will be of much interest to many housekeepers, and will be open to all who care to attend the session beginning at 2:00 p. m.

C. P. Long, whose illness was reported in this column during the past two weeks, at this writing is very much improved.

Grover Gentzel and son George, of Harrisburg, are visitors at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. C. P. Long.

Newton Miller, who is making his home with William Bressler, is recovering from the effects of frozen feet, obtained while employed in shoveling snow from public roads. The extent of the "frost bites" may be better judged when it is known that it became necessary to remove several toenails.

Vocational Teams Win and Lose—At Snow Shoe the Gregg Twp Vocational school basketball teams split two games with Snow Shoe high on the latter's floor—Wednesday night. The Gregg girls lost 39-25 after having tied the score shortly before the end of the game. Two quick long shots gave the winners the necessary points for victory just before the closing whistle.

The G. T. V. S. boys won 26-20, in a hard fought and rather close game. The Gregg boys were somewhat handicapped during the game by ankle injuries which caused the retirement of three of the boys from the contest. The Snow Shoe team will visit Spring Mills on Tuesday, February 15, for return games.

Mrs. Nina Reish, widow of the late George Reish, is at the restaurant for a few days arranging and settling up affairs prior to returning permanently to Millersburg to live. The community regrets her departure, for she was highly regarded by everyone.

Word has been received that Dr. and Mrs. George C. Thomas reached Vero Beach, Florida, their destination, and are enjoying the warmth and sunshine of that State.

Elmer C. Hettinger, who lately returned from a motor trip to Florida, is highly pleased with the South, especially Florida. It is surmised that if Mr. Hettinger did not have such a nicely located and modernly equipped farm home, he would at least be tempted to secure a winter home in Florida with the view of escaping the rigors of the northern winters with its zero temperatures.

Mrs. C. C. Barges and daughter Mrs. J. M. Mullinger, and son, Charles Barges, spent last Monday with Mrs. Mullinger's sister-in-law, Mrs. Cline Grenoble, in Lock Haven.

There are several patrons on the water line that are doing kicking the service due to conditions the company has no control over. One of several service and do their own pumping, or dip into Penns Creek and avoid all water tax.

Miss Amella Copenhaver of Phillipsburg State Hospital, visited over the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Foust.

Mrs. Ed. Sweetwood is confined to her bed with a severe attack of asthma.

Barbara Sweetwood, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Sweetwood, is ill with pneumonia.

Mrs. Ruth Thomas has gone to New York City for an indefinite stay.

H. E. Foust, wife and daughter Amella, visited on Sunday at the Ira Shultz home at Spring Bank.

Mrs. W. M. Sweeney, Mrs. F. P. Palmer and Mrs. Ella Wilkinson spent Saturday at the Mrs. George Sweeney home helping to quilt.

Mrs. Charles Ramer, of Tusseyville, visited on Sunday with her sister, Mrs. E. B. Palmer.

Burton Fetterolf and family, of near Centre Hall, visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Carson, on Sunday.

RESOLUTION OF THE PENNSYLVANIA BOARD OF GAME COMMISSIONERS DECLARING AN OPEN SEASON ON BEAVERS AND EXTENDING THE SEASON FOR TAKING SKUNKS.

It having been proved to the satisfaction of the Board of Game Commissioners of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that beavers are materially destroying property in Pennsylvania, and that the trapping of the same may be permitted without jeopardizing the future supply thereof; and that the season for trapping skunks may be extended without jeopardizing future supply of skunks; therefore, pursuant to the provisions of Article V, Section 509, of the Act approved May 24, 1923, P. L. 359, as amended, the Board of Game Commissioners, upon motion made seconded and carried, hereby removes protection from beavers during the period and under the conditions herein prescribed, also declares an additional open season for the trapping of skunks in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

1. The open season for trapping beavers shall be between March 1st and March 31, 1936, both days inclusive, and the season for skunks is hereby extended to include the month of March 1936.

2. Trapping methods, identification and visitation of traps shall be in accordance with the provisions of Article VI of the Act above cited.

3. Only persons who are bona fide residents of Pennsylvania, holding a lawfully issued resident hunter's license, shall trap beavers. Provided, however, that owners of land actually residing thereon and cultivating such lands and members of their families residing thereon, may trap beaver on such lands if they are open to public hunting and trapping, but not on any adjacent or other lands without first securing a resident hunter's license.

4. Any person having the right hereunder to trap and kill beavers shall be permitted to use and set not to exceed ten traps and may trap and kill not exceeding four (4) beavers during the open season hereby fixed; provided that should any person unintentionally trap more than four (4) beavers he shall within twenty-four hours report and deliver the excess so taken to a salaried employe of the Game Commission, to be disposed of as directed by the Board.

5. The hides of beavers lawfully trapped shall not be possessed by any person other than the trapper or sold or otherwise disposed of until they are first examined by a salaried Game Protector of the Commission and a permit from the Commission has been issued to such person. It shall be the duty of each trapper to report the number of beavers trapped by him to any salaried Game Protector of the Commission, and to have such animals tagged by such officer on or before April 10, 1936. Such tags shall remain attached to the beaver skins until they have been tanned and made up into commercial fur.

6. It shall be unlawful for any person to have in his possession any beaver, or green or raw beaver pelt, before March 16, 1936, or after the 10th day of April, 1936, which has not been properly tagged by an officer of the Commission.

Any person or persons violating or attempting to violate any of the provisions of this resolution, upon conviction in a summary proceeding, shall for each offense be sentenced to pay a fine of $25.00 and the costs of prosecution, and on default of paying said fine and costs, he or she shall be imprisoned one day for each dollar of the fine so imposed and costs of prosecution.

The foregoing resolution shall be duly published in accordance with the provisions of Section 509 of the Act aforesaid, and the Executive Secretary of the Board is authorized to certify the same as and for the act of the Board of Game Commissioners. I hereby certify the above to be a true and correct copy of the resolution adopted by the Board of Game Commissioners at its meeting on January 16, 1936.

SETH GORDON, Executive Secretary.

FOREIGN VILLAGES AT GREAT LAKES EXPOSITION

Old World atmosphere will be captured for the Great Lakes Exposition's "Streets of the World," a ten-acre international village. The village, shown above, will be the central feature of the exposition's huge amusement zone and will contain more than 100 structures. The mammoth exposition will open on Cleveland's downtown lakefront June 27 and will run for one hundred days. More than 4,000,000 visitors are expected to attend. The fair will feature exhibits depicting the industrial, commercial, social and cultural life of the Great Lakes area. In the insert Kate Smith, radio star, is shown receiving an invitation to the exposition from Mayor Harold H. Burton of Cleveland.
