

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Edward Vogt, the Ford dealer, during last week, received a carload of new Ford cars.

Mrs. Elizabeth Small, of Altoona, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bradford, in town.

John Carper, one of Harris township's oldest citizens, living at Linden Hall has been seriously ill with a cold on the chest.

Dorothy Blazer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Blazer, west of Old Fort, is employed by E. W. Kennedy, on Pugh street, State College.

Evan James Hazel, who for a few years made his home with his grandfather, R. M. Smith, is about to enter the Methodist Orphan Home at Mechanicsburg.

Robert Dodds notified the Reporter that he has purchased a load of horses for the Centre Hall market and will ship as soon as weather conditions are fit to do so.

Miss Ruth Reiser returned from Jersey Shore on Friday evening after having been treated at a private hospital there for an injury to her back. Her condition is greatly improved.

Mrs. Louis Allis, formerly of town, entertained Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Myra Winegardner and Mrs. H. L. Ebricht at a luncheon at her home at Pleasant Gap Thursday night.

Orvis L. Horner, the Colver stonemason, has been seriously ill with an old complaint for the past several weeks. "Buddy," a young son in the Horner family, has recovered from a severe illness.

Donald Bloom, ill for weeks with pneumonia, has recovered sufficiently to be able to be out of bed part of the time. He is a son of Mrs. Ada Bloom, west of Centre Hall, with whom he lives.

Mrs. Ralph Martz is employed in the offices of the Kerlin Poultry plant. She is a graduate of Williamsport Commercial College and prior to her marriage was employed as a stenographer by a Williamsport business house.

Clyde E. Bradford, a foreman at Treaster Kettle Camp 8-65, is off duty due to an attack of grip, since Saturday. He is hoping to be back with his men by the end of the week, but it all depends on his speed toward recovery.

Mrs. Howard Confer, who almost three weeks ago became seriously ill at her home near Potters Mills, was reported on Saturday as much improved by A. P. Kraep, who visited her that day. Her condition, however, although improved, remains serious.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Bishop, of Millroy, were guests on Thursday evening of last week of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Brown. Mr. Bishop is employed at the Rialto theatre, Lewistown, and Mrs. Bishop, a daughter of Sheriff and Mrs. Charles Duck of Lewistown is engaged as a school teacher.

Benjamin Gentzel, enlisted in a CCC camp in New Jersey, visited a short time with the T. E. Delaney family, on one of his trips here recently. Before returning to camp he went on to Ridgeville, Tenn., where C. H. H. S. graduate, and on the soccer field never failed to give a good account of himself, and is doing the same thing in camp.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ebricht attended a production of the Penn State Players entitled, "The Sunken Bell," at the Schwab auditorium on the campus, Friday evening. Their daughter, Miss Betty, a Junior, was assistant manager of properties. The play was put on Friday and Saturday nights and drew a good audience for each performance.

Although many sections were snow-bound during last week, it did not appear in any way to conflict with numerous quilting parties scheduled for last week. Parties of that kind were held at the George Heckman home, where Mrs. Stahl's Sunday school class did the sewing; Miss "Polly" Hartley had work done on a quilt for her hope-chest at the H. L. Ebricht home; Mrs. H. E. White, Mrs. George Searson, and Mrs. Harry McClenahan also entertained in a similar manner.

Miss Helen Bartholomew, taken to the Centre County hospital on Monday morning, was operated on by Dr. Adams the same day for the removal of multiple fibrous tumors in the abdomen. Her condition after the operation was termed fair. Wednesday morning the Bartholomew family was informed the patient had a fairly good night, but suffered considerable pain at about 5:00 a. m., which later subsided. She had the attention of two private nurses, Miss Margaret Bradford for day, and Miss Mary Garver for night duty.

The Home Economics Extension class, under Miss Eleanor Smith, extension worker for Centre county, met on Friday at the home of Mrs. C. A. Miller, in town. The subject developed was "Buying Meat," including the classification of cuts as to quality for nicety of service and quality of interest. The ladies present included Miss Laura Runkle, Mrs. J. S. Booser, Miss Elizabeth Bartholomew, Mrs. Warren Homan, Miss Jennie Thomas, Mrs. P. M. Fisher, Mrs. Edward Durs, Miss Mary D. Potter, Mrs. Edgar Miller, Mrs. F. V. Goodhart, Mrs. H. L. Ebricht, Mrs. Charles Light, Mrs. J. W. Bradford, Mrs. Mary Neff, Mrs. W. F. Keller, Mrs. Frank McClenahan, Mrs. C. A. Miller.

Criminal court is in session this week. The Rin, murder case was scheduled to open Wednesday or Thursday.

A. J. Zimmerman, editor of the Centre Daily Times, was operated on for intestinal disorders at the Centre County hospital, on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lair and son, Junior and Mrs. S. E. Sharer, of Linden Hall, visited Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Gingerich, in town, on Sunday.

The World Day of Prayer, on Friday evening, will be held in the Lutheran church instead of at the home of Mrs. F. V. Goodhart, as previously announced.

Roy M. Royer advertises sale of his farm stock and implements, also hogs, for March 13. He expects to move into the Phillips place at Potters Mills and continue operating a truck. Mr. Royer now lives on the Royer place, close to the Sprucetown church, which is offered for sale or rent.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hess, newlyweds, began housekeeping on Wednesday at Winfield, Union county. Mr. Hess is employed by Reitz, the wholesale meat dealer, as a buyer and trucker. Mrs. Hess is the former Mabel Burkholder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Burkholder, of near town.

A collision of cars driven by Clymer McClenahan and Miss Josephine Beckenbaugh, in the Millheim Narrows, Sunday afternoon, resulted in injury to Miss Beckenbaugh and a younger sister, two of five passengers in a DeSoto coupe belonging to Richard R. Synder, Coburn. The cars were traveling in opposite directions, when the driver of the coupe caused the car to strike a snow bank, at the same time the application of the brakes caused the rear of the machine to switch into the path of the Master Chevrolet sedan driven by McClenahan. The damage to his car was estimated at $150, and the damage to the coupe, $35.00. The young ladies were given surgical attention by Dr. T. G. McQueen, Millheim.

SENIORS SCHEDULE COMEDY

"ONE IN A MILLION" FOR MARCH
"One in a Million," a three-act comedy featuring a young bachelor New Yorker confronted with the problem of presenting his alleged wife to an ancient aunt who is really smarter than he suspects, is the play to be presented by the senior class in the Grange hall, Saturday, March 14.

The cast for the play, the scene of which is laid in a two-room city apartment, will be completed next week, Mrs. R. S. Jamison, the director, believes.

The character parts include an eccentric old uncle, Temple Carter, who is deceived by the wiles of Goldie Jenkins, the typical gold-digger; Mrs. Jenkins of similar propensities; Hubert, the valet; and Aunt Lenira, a shrewish old woman with the proverbial heart of gold. Two other masculine roles and the ingenue complete the cast.

SCHOOL PROVIDES BALANCED AQUARIUM FOR SCIENCE DEPT.

A new aquarium that was purchased by the school board, provided with both plant and animal life, was placed in the science laboratory of the Centre Hall high school.

The aquarium was planted and will be used by the science classes to show the balance of life between plants and animals.

The animal life consists of a turtle, two newts, four red ranshorn snails, two dace and six gold fish. Elodea, myriophyllum, cabomba sagittaria, vallneria, the plants in the aquarium, provide oxygen for the animal life.

The aquarium and its contents were purchased from Welch Brothers, Chicago.

"TO THOSE MAROONED AT CENTRE HILL"

They were coming from the Farm Show.
When it began to snow,
And when they got to Lewistown
The wind began to blow.
They weathered the storm to Centre Hill,
And there they had to stop;
They looked and saw a speck of light.
And thought, "Let's go and knock."
They found the farmer Lloyd still up,
"Sure, you can stay," he said,
"But I am sorry I can't find
All of you folks a bed."
As they gathered 'round the fire
They found there were twenty-two;
And when they awoke next morning
All looked tired and blue.
They remained there all day Thursday
Content with any game.
But all were hoping desperately
Soon to get home again.
When the snow-shovel passed on Saturday
Their hearts gave a leap of joy,
And one man danced and shouted
Like some small happy boy.
By Saturday night, they were all at home
Sitting beside the fire,
Grinning because they used to think
The weather-man a liar.

DR. BRAUNSTEIN SPEAKS AT ASSEMBLY ON LINCOLN DAY

Doctor Leon Braunstein, who was sent by the American Legion, addressed the student body of the Centre Hall high school on Wednesday, February 12, at 11 a. m., on the subject, "Loyalty to America."

The American Legion is launching a program called the "All-American Day," the idea being to stress American principles.

TROPHY CASE TELLS TALE OF PAST C. H. S. WINNINGS

Though not boasting many trophies, Centre Hall high school nevertheless displayed conspicuously in a large wooden case in the hall, proving the "Tiger" prowess to even a casual observer.

One thing is odd about the awards that this school has received; nothing lower than a second place award is found in the trophy case. Besides, the awards won by the school cover almost every activity carried on by any school.

The school has received more awards from Grange Fair exhibits than from any other source. Centre Hall high school has won seven first places in consecutive years.

The activity that has produced the next greatest number of awards is the school paper, "The Tiger," which has won three second places and one first place in the Penna. School Press Association competition for the last four years.

At the end of the 1934 soccer season the trophy case boasted two cups carrying with them the Centre County and Central Pennsylvania soccer championships. These were the first athletic awards received since 1924, when the girls' relay team won its event in the Spring County Track Meet and received a small silver cup.

A similar award was won in 1922. At the present, however, there is but one of the large soccer cups at the high school, as Centre Hall lost its Central Pennsylvania Championship during the 1935 season.

Industrial Map of the United States

This industrial map of the United States shows the area of each state in exact ratio to the value of manufactured products according to the last industrial census. The relative importance of the Great Lakes States in the Nation's industry is shown graphically in relation to other states. The Great Lakes Exposition, to be held in Cleveland from June 27 to October 4, will display the industrial, manufacturing, financial, agricultural, horticultural, and natural resources of the region.
