

Spring Mills

A Collection of Newsy Happenings and Personals from Gregg Township's Metropolis.

Garageman 'Undergoes Appendectomy.—Lester R. Condo, the Penn Hall garageman, submitted to an appendectomy in the Centre County hospital on Monday evening, 17th inst., immediately following his admittance. He was conscious throughout the operation, but suffered no great pain or distress. He was stricken Sunday evening previous at about 8:30, and had had no previous attacks. Barring reverses he may be discharged at the end of this or beginning of next week, his condition on Wednesday morning indicating such early recovery.

William Snyder moved from the Luther Royer home, along the State highway, to one of the C. P. Long homes on Long Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Jamison, who had been living with the former's father, E. T. Jamison, in Spring Mills since their marriage, moved to Millheim, where they expect to live in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. James McDonald, of Philadelphia, made a short visit with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bright Bitner. Mrs. McDonald was the former Miss Geraldine Bitner, so well and favorably known here.

Gloria Wingard, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Wingard, on Saturday was admitted to the Blair Memorial Hospital, Hollidaysburg, where she underwent an operation for the removal of the tonsils and adenoids.

Suffered Light Paralytic Stroke.—Jasper A. Wagner, well known throughout Penns Valley, during last week suffered a light paralytic stroke. While his condition was not considered serious at any time, it has changed but slightly, if any. Mr. Wagner is a retired rural mail carrier having served routes from both the Spring Mills and Centre Hall post offices.

Bruce G. Myer, one of Spring Mills' general merchants, has been "under the weather" during the past week or more from a surplus of gastric juices. While not in bed all of the time, he probably should be, according to his wife's beliefs.

Mrs. Mabel Smith Goes to Hospital.—Mrs. Mabel Smith was taken to the Centre County hospital recently where she is a patient under observation. Mrs. Smith, for a number of years, was manager of the Sheffield milk plant, Spring Mills, up to about a year ago, when she became the bookkeeper for the plant since. Early last fall, however, she became ill and since has not been able to resume her work.

District S. S. Conference.—A complete program for the conference of Districts 11 and 12 of the Centre County Sabbath School Association, appears elsewhere in this issue. The conference will be held in the Methodist church Thursday evening of next week, and will be presided over by M. T. Zuber, president of District No. 11.

Death of Mrs. Kern.—Mrs. William Gentzel Kern died at her home in Patton, on Thursday, aged 21 years, 9 months and 6 days, death following an attack of tuberculosis.

She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Gentzel, both deceased and was reared in Gregg township. There survive her husband, William Kern, and two small children, also several brothers and sisters.

Funeral services were held in the Lutheran church Monday afternoon, and interment in the Spring Mills cemetery, Rev. L. A. Wagner officiating.

Bond Bids Opened; Rate, 3 1/4%.—Bids for twenty-four $500.00 bonds maturing March 1, from 1937 to 1960, to be issued by the Gregg Township school board for improvement of the vocational school plant, were opened Tuesday, 10:00 a. m. The lowest interest bid for whole sum, was 3 1/4%, and a premium of $72.00, by Leach Bros., Inc., Philadelphia.

Six other bids received were as follows: First National Bank, Philadelphia, 3 3/4%; no premium.

E. H. Rollins & Sons, Philadelphia, 4%; $84.00 premium.

First National Bank, Spring Mills, 4%; no premium.

Glover & Mac Siegor, Inc., Pittsburgh, 3 3/4%; $26.00 premium.

Farmers National Bank & Trust Co., Millheim, 4%; $102.00 premium.

First National Bank, Bellefonte, 4.90%; no premium.

The school law requires boards to issue bonds only on bids, and binds them to award to the lowest bidder. This prevents the board from awarding bonds to local persons who made application for same other than the whole issue. It might be possible the bonds, when issued, could be purchased from the successful bidders, Leach Bros., Inc.

William S. Brooks, of Centre Hall, visited with his son, Lee Brooks, tenant on the Luther Royer farm, west of here, for a few days.

Basket Ball Games Wed. & Friday Nights.—The basket ball teams (boys and girls) representing Snow Shoe and Mill Hall high schools will play games with the Gregg teams on the Spring Mills floor Wednesday and Friday nights of this week at 7:30 P. M. Snow Shoe will be played first.

The Gregg boys have won from both of these teams earlier this season by close scores, having defeated Mill Hall by two points on Mill Hall's floor and Snow Shoe by six points on their floor. The Gregg girls will be out to win from both of the schools since they lost both games on the foreign floors. Mill Hall girls won at Mill Hall by a 9-point margin and Snow Shoe on its floor won by four points. These four games should furnish plenty of action for the Gregg fans who have not had an opportunity to witness a home contest since the G. T. V. S. teams defeated Beaver Vocational on January 17.

Surprise Party.—Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Keller held a surprise party in honor of their daughter, Martha, celebrating her 16th birthday, on Saturday, February 22. Delicious refreshments were served and an enjoyable time was had by all. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Corman and children, Philip McClenahan, Miss Mabel Foust, of Centre Hall; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Homan and children, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Smith and children, Mrs. Lida Hettinger and daughter Ethel, Vida, Bernice and Helen Zottle, Bernice Barger, Frances and Miriam Harter, Hilda and Margaret Wian, Mary and Ralph Coble, and Gladys Keller, all of Spring Mills.

Tusseyville.

Miss Mae Floray was a Thursday caller at the home of her sister, Mrs. Annan Baird.

A. L. Slutterbeck accompanied G. H. McCormick on a trip to Bellefonte Thursday where they attended a meeting of the school directors.

Mrs. Calvin Cooney, of Colyer, and son, George, of Johnstown, called at the Mrs. Catharine Bodorf home on Saturday.

Miss Mary Brown, who has been making her home with Mrs. Bodorf, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brown, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Mowbray, of Burnham, spent Sunday with the Milton Kline family.

Boyd Jordan, wife and son, of Jersey Shore, visited relatives and friends Sunday afternoon.

Snow shovellers have been busy every day, including Sunday, opening the by-roads making preparations for the next snow.

Boalsburg.

Miss Eleanor Smith, of Bellefonte, was in town Thursday afternoon directing a class in chair caning. Tuesday of this week was devoted to dyeing.

Mrs. Frank McFarlane, of Bellefonte, was a motor guest of Miss Smith and spent the afternoon visiting among friends.

A World's Day of Prayer service will be held in the Lutheran S. S. room on Friday evening, Feb. 28, at 7:30. The meeting will be conducted by the Missionary societies of the Reformed and Lutheran churches and the public is invited to attend.

A daughter was born recently to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kline.

A. E. Gingerich is able to be out after a week's illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Goheen visited their son, Richard, and family, in Indiana, over the week-end.

Mrs. George K. Rimmey, of Centre Hall, spent Friday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Dale. A day's vacation in the State College schools afforded this pleasure.

A daughter, Agnes Louise, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mothersbaugh on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Grove, Mrs. Wm. Grove and daughter Thelma, of Lemont, were visitors in town on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mothersbaugh, of State College, visited at the Geo. Mothersbaugh home last Sunday.

Notice to Sportsmen.

RESOLUTION OF THE PENNSYLVANIA BOARD OF GAME COMMISSIONERS DECLARING AN OPEN SEASON ON BEAVERS AND EXTENDING THE SEASON FOR TAKING SKUNKS.

It having been proved to the satisfaction of the Board of Game Commissioners of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that beavers are materially destroying property in Pennsylvania, and that the trapping of the same may be permitted without jeopardizing the future supply thereof; and that the season for trapping skunks may be extended without jeopardizing future supply of skunks; therefore, pursuant to the provisions of Article V, Section 509, of the Act approved May 24, 1923, P. L. 359, as amended, the Board of Game Commissioners, upon motion made seconded and carried, hereby removes protection from beavers during the period and under the conditions herein prescribed, also declares an additional open season for the trapping of skunks in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

1. The open season for trapping beavers shall be between March 1st and March 31, 1936, both days inclusive, and the season for skunks is hereby extended to include the month of March 1936.

2. Trapping methods, identification and visitation of traps shall be in accordance with the provisions of Article VI of the Act above cited.

3. Only persons who are bona fide residents of Pennsylvania, holding a lawful issued hunter's license, license, shall trap beavers; provided however, that owners of land actually residing thereon and cultivating such lands and members of their families residing thereon, may trap beavers on such lands if they are open to public hunting and trapping, but not on any adjacent or other lands without first securing a resident hunter's license.

4. Any person having the right hereunder to trap and kill beavers shall be permitted to use and set not to exceed ten traps and may trap and kill not exceeding four (4) beavers during the open season hereby fixed; provided that should any person unintentionally trap more than four (4) beavers he shall within twenty-four hours report and deliver the excess so taken to a salaried employe of the Game Commission, to be disposed of as directed by the Board.

5. The hides of beavers lawfully trapped shall not be possessed by any person other than the trapper or sold or otherwise disposed of until they are first examined by a salaried Game Protector of the Commission and a permit from the Commission has been issued to such person. It shall be the duty of each trapper to report the number of beavers trapped by him to any salaried Game Protector of the Commission, and to have such animals tagged by such officer on or before April 10, 1936. Such tags shall remain attached to the beaver skins until they have been tanned and made up into commercial fur.

6. It shall be unlawful for any person to have in his possession any beaver, or green or raw beaver pelt, before March 16, 1936, or after the 10th day of April, 1936, which has not been properly tagged by an officer of the Commission.

Any person or persons violating or attempting to violate any of the provisions of this resolution, upon conviction in a summary proceeding, shall for each offense be sentenced to pay a fine of $25.00 and the costs of prosecution, and on default of paying said fine and costs, he or she shall be imprisoned one day for each dollar of the fine so imposed and costs of prosecution.

The foregoing resolution shall be duly published in accordance with the provisions of Section 509 of the Act aforesaid, and the Executive Secretary of the Board is authorized to certify the same as and for the act of the Board of Game Commissioners.

I hereby certify the above to be a true and correct copy of the resolution adopted by the Board of Game Commissioners at its meeting on January 16, 1936.

SETH GORDON, Executive Secretary.

Plant Adapted Seed.

The source of red clover seed has much to do with its winter hardiness. The best adapted seed is that grown near home. Home-raised clover seed seldom fails to produce a quality crop. The next best seems to be from nearby states.

Feed the Ewe Flock.—A good grain ration to be fed with legume hay to bred ewes consists of 5 parts of oats, 3 parts of shelled corn, and 1 part of bran. Without legume hay, one part of oil meal should be added. One half to one pound a day of the grain ration should be enough for each ewe, depending upon condition.

Gather Locust Seed.—Considerable quantities of locust seed can be gathered on the snow and ground at this time. Locust trees are often planted for growing fence posts, mine props, and fuel wood or for the protection of eroding soils.

Grow Early Tomatoes.—Earliness in tomatoes is obtained not only by proper selection of varieties but also by careful plant-growing methods. These methods include sowing the seed under glass in March and transplanting in pots of from 4 to 6 inches apart in a hotbed in April. This practice produces stocky plants 8 to 12 inches tall with large fibrous root systems ready to set in the field by the middle of May.

Insulate Dairy Barns.—Insulation in dairy barns should be on the warm side of the walls to stop the flow of heat outward. One-half inch of good insulating material added to a masonry wall may decrease the heat loss as much as 50 per cent.
