POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For General Assembly. We are authorized to announce the name of John W. Decker, of Gregg Township, as a candidate for the office of Representative in the General Assembly, subject to the rules governing the Democratic party as expressed at the primary election to be held Tuesday, April 28, 1936.

FARM CALENDAR.

Timely Reminders from School of Agriculture Pennsylvania State College

CHOOSE COLORFUL SHRUBS—If ornamental shrubs are chosen carefully, plants may be selected which will provide color in leaves, flowers, and twigs.

SPRAY APPLE TREES—The abundance of red spider eggs in orchards throughout the eastern half of Pennsylvania indicates that it will be necessary to pay particular attention to dormant spraying for control.

CARE FOR BROOD SOW—About ten days or two weeks before farrowing, corn should be omitted from the sow's ration and some brand and oil meal fed instead.

USE HOPPER FOR FEED—One of the important items in young chick feeding is the feed container. To prevent a tremendous waste of chick mash, many breeders use a non-wasting hopper with a reel.

HAVE GARDENING TOOLS—For flower growing and care of ornamentals, tools needed are spade, hoe, garden and lawn rakes, pruning shears, pruning knife, small hand cultivator, trowel, lawn mower, sickle, hedge shears, turf edger, pruning saw, grass shears, watering can, dibble, lawn weeder, garden fork, garden hose and wheelbarrow.

HOSE COLTS INCREASE—There was an increase of 14 per cent in the number of horse colts under two years of age from 1935 to 1936.

CENTRE COUNTY HOSPITAL NOTES.

Last Week. Monday—discharged; Lester R. Condo, Spring Mills. Wednesday—discharged; Miss Emma Grove, Spring Mills. Thursday—admitted; Miss Ethel R. Durst, Centre Hall. Saturday—admitted; John E. Weiland, Coburn.

Deaths

GROVE.—William M. ("Mike") Grove passed away at the home of his step-son, Ray G. Decker, near Colyer, Potter township, on Friday afternoon, from which place funeral services were held on Monday and burial made near Berwick.

Mr. Grove was the son of John and Margaret Stover Grove and was born in Georges Valley on what is now known as the Harter farm. He was the eldest of the Grove family, his age at time of death having been 75 years, 11 months and 9 days.

He was twice married, first to Miss Lizzie Sweetwood, of which union there survive two daughters, Mrs. Archie Zettle, Berwick, R. D., and Mrs. M. P. Cummings, Reidsville, N. C. The second wife, who survives, was Miss Lizzie Decker, A. sister, Amanda, wife of Harry A. Stover, of Yeagertown, also survives the deceased.

Mr. Grove began life as a farmer, and for a number of years lived on the Frazier farm, and later on the farm now owned by Hon. Lester Shaffer, along Sinking Creek.

He was elected a justice of the peace in Potter township for several terms and was a skilled surveyor. On retiring from farm life, he located at Spring Mills and while there he gave more attention to surveying. He surveyed a large number of mountain tracts for the State. The fact that he was always positive in his conclusions in making a survey was probably the main reason for being called into service where there were disputed lines. He was a Democrat in politics but never sought office other than school director and that of justice of the peace, but he was in many local and county contests as a worker and more frequently his candidate won than lost.

On leaving Spring Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Grove lived with their daughter, Mrs. Zettle, at Berwick, where the first Mrs. Grove died and was buried. About a year ago he heard the second wife came to live with a son of the latter by a former marriage, where the death took place.

Mr. Grove was a member of Centre Hall Lodge No. 537, I. O. O. F.

CAMPBELL.—John Elmer Campbell, a lifelong resident of Centre county, died in the Centre County hospital at 2:30 o'clock Monday morning from a complication of diseases. He had been ill several months.

Funeral services were held at the Koch Funeral home, State College, Wednesday afternoon. Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, of the Centre Hall Presbyterian church, officiated assisted by Rev. H. L. Wink, of the Bousburg Reformed church.

Mr. Campbell, who was born Aug. 14, 1859, on the family homestead at Linden Hall, was the son of George and Eliza Mitchell Campbell. He was married in 1880 to Nettie Love, who survives with their daughter, Mary Love Roskelly, of Bellefonte. He is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Jams Gilliland, of Oak Hill, and Mrs. Sarah Steine, of Allentown.

OLEWINE.—Miss Mary Olewine died, on Tuesday of last week, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Walter Lilly, in Lewisburg, with whom she had lived since leaving Bellefonte a number of years ago. She had been in poor health for several years.

A daughter of Samuel and Mary Olewine, she was born at Laurelton about seventy-one years ago. The family moved to Bellefonte in 1874, and following the death of her parents, she lived for some time with her brother, the late John I. Olewine, and family. She was a member of the Lutheran church all her life. Two sisters survive, Mrs. John Kline, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Walter Lilly of Lewisburg. Funeral services were held Friday and burial made at Lewisburg.

GRAZIER.—Mrs. Jennie Elizabeth Grazier, wife of Benjamin F. Grazier, died at her home in Tyrone on Tuesday evening of last week, following a brief illness.

Mrs. Grazier was a daughter of Henry and Mary (Mingle) Elmo and was born at Millheim, November 15, 1861. She is survived by the husband and several sons and daughters; also by two brothers and a sister, Charles Derbin Elmo, J. J. Elmo and Mrs. Joanna McMurtrie.

She was a member of the First Presbyterian church. Funeral services were held at the Graham funeral parlors on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock conducted by Rev. Dr. Joseph A. Speer pastor of the First Presbyterian church, followed by burial in Eastlawn cemetery, Tyrone.

BECK.—Mrs. Catherine V. Beck, widow of Roland Beck, died Tuesday afternoon of last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mark Bartsge, Loganton, R. D., with whom she resided. She had been ill only three days. She was a member of the Evangelical church.

In addition to the daughter, she leaves four brothers and five sisters, Mrs. Wm. Valentine, of Welkert, being one of the sisters.

The funeral was held Saturday morning, in charge of the Rev. L. A. Fuhrman, pastor of the Loganton Evangelical church, assisted by the Rev. W. L. Kamble, of Rebersburg. Burial in the Loganton cemetery.

EVANGELICAL CONFERENCE AT RED LION HEARS REPORT

The program of the 97th annual session of the Evangelical Church, held at Red Lion, devoted Friday to various reports submitted annually. Lewistown was chosen for the next conference. The 1937 conference will convene there March 11.

The statistical report of the conference, announced by the Rev. L. M. Dice, of South Williamsport, showed 1,502 conversions, a gain of church membership to 31,105 adults and Sunday school enrollment increasing to 46,872, with an average attendance of 60 per cent.

Money raised for all purposes amounted to $510,000, reflecting slight increases in most phases of the church's program. Property valuation of church and parsonages was reported at $3,327,000 with encumbrances amounting to $765,000.

Retirement of the Rev. A. D. Gramley, of Milton, and the Rev. J. P. Horner, of Nescopeck, was announced.

Superintendents representing the York, Lewisburg and Williamsport Districts submitted annual reports in the afternoon meeting that showed seven per cent average increase in offerings for conference purposes.

Receipts increased from $36,800 to $39,280, and were contributed as follows: York, $14,204; Lewisburg, $12,729; and Williamsport $12,346.

In addition, they reported property improvements amounting to $35,000, debt reductions exceeding $32,000 and interest payments of $28,600. The construction of the Sunday school unit at the St. John's church in Williamsport, at a cost of $17,900, was the largest property improvement made by a single congregation during the year.

Following reception of these reports, the conference stationed the superintendents as follows for the next 12 months—Dr. A. F. Weaver, York; the Rev. Edward Bason, Lewisburg, and the Rev. Walter Dix, Williamsport.

PLEASANT GAP GIRL—ALTA HORNER—AIDED BY SCIENCE

Little Alta Horner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Horner, Pleasant Gap, was taken to the Phillipsburg State hospital last Thursday but was allowed to return home the same day. The child, who is eight years old, has spent almost as much time in the hospital as she has spent at home in the past five years.

When Alta was three years old it was discovered that the one hip ball and socket joint had a too shallow pocket. An operation by a specialist was made at the Phillipsburg hospital and then followed years of careful nursing and treatment.

The X-ray pictures taken Thursday showed the hip joint to be in its place after a year's trial and Alta is happy knowing that she will soon be able to run and play with her little friends.

A very similar case is now being treated at the same hospital. It is Charles Neel, 12, red head and hopeful, with a bearing countenance. He has been in the hospital for three months following an operation on one hip, and later the other hip will be given attention.

Tusseyville.

Mrs. Wm. Jordan, of Colyer, spent Wednesday and Thursday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Charles Slaterbeck.

Mrs. Samuel Horner and daughter Freda, of Tusseyville, visited the former's parents, the A. L. Slaterbeck family, a day during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Williams and son, James, of Bellefonte, were supper guests at the S. T. Swartz home Friday evening.

Callers at the A. W. Holderman home over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Garrett, State College, Mrs. Annie Thal and Maurice Miller, of Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Weaver vacated the Bradford farm at Old Fort, last week, having stored their furniture at the John Weaver home until April 1, when they intend moving on the Robert Neff farm recently purchased by Mr. Neff.

ADULT EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM OF WORKS PROGRESS ADM'N

More than 23,000 illiterate and alien residents of the state are attending Americanization classes now being conducted in 62 counties as part of the Adult Education program of the Works Progress Administration.

State WPA Administrator Edward N. Jones announced today. With additional classes being set up daily, the total number of persons, who will be reached by this program, is expected to exceed 35,000.

Latest available figures show a total enrollment of 23,215 "students." Their instruction is aimed primarily at making them good citizens of their adopted country. In addition, reading and writing is taught them by 442 specially trained teachers in 600 centers.

Because one out of every 40 persons in the state is illiterate and because one out of every 22 is not naturalized Administrator Jones pointed out the importance of enrolling as many persons as possible.

Census figures show 239,367 illiterates in the state, of which number 187,942 are foreign born, 36,517 are native born whites and 14,908 are native born negroes.

There are 434,330 adult residents who are not naturalized. Of this number 223,559 are males and 210,771 are females.
