Mr. and Mrs. Hughes Brining and young daughter, June, of Johnstown, were week-end guests of Mrs. Bringer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Jodon. The Jodons, by the way, who are living in one of the hotel apartments, expect to remain here.

The room in the hotel formerly used for a restaurant, is being remodeled into an apartment. In this room was opened the first general store in Centre Hall, by Henry W. Wimer, who erected the hotel building and conducted a mercantile business.

William Gruenwald, the western horse dealer, has finally been able to get a load of South Dakota horses through to the market after the winter's tie-up, and advertises sale at Centre Hall Saturday of this week, in the morning at 9:30 o'clock. See ad. and posters.

Pruyn will be recalled as a former popular pastor of the Penns Valley Methodist church.

Farmer Lloyd Smith, at Centre Hill had a well drilled for domestic uses. At the depth of 193 feet, a great abundance of water was found, which rose to the height of 100 feet. The farm was long dependent on cisterns for a water supply, to which supply was added a never-falling well in the "hollow." The approach to the latter is only over a highway, and this has become too dangerous under present conditions, consequently a well on the farm.

The announcement of the engagement of Dr. Marlin Helfrick, of Bellefonte, and Miss Darlis Camp, a student in the senior class in the school for nurses at Geisinger Hospital, Danville, was recently made. Dr. Hugh Morrow, about April 1st, will leave Centre Hall to locate at Loysburg, Bedford county, where he has better opportunities for the practice of his profession. While Loysburg is a small village, there is a heavy population around it—farmers and fruit growers. There are also high class educational facilities available, due largely to a Philadelphia philanthropist. Dr. Morrow came here eleven years ago, bringing with him the best of recommendations as a physician. During his stay here he served a wide area, made possible by the automobile. During the past six months he was the daily visiting physician at CCC Camp 8-65. The Morrow family, consisting of Dr. and Mrs. Morrow and eight children, seven of whom are at home, carry with them to their new field the respect of the entire community, and wish them success in all lines of undertaking.

WELCOME TO ALTOONA

Wednesday, March 18th

IT WILL BE CENTRE COUNTY DAY!

Ideal Parking!

Park in spaces provided in any business street as long as you find it necessary to do your shopping conveniently. If you do not have a Guest Card (obtainable at Booster Association in Commerce Building) and get a Parking Ticket through error, just mail it as instructed on back. Consider the Altoona Booster Stores your Hosts in every way.

We Salute you, Centre County. There is a concerted action by Altoona Booster Stores to prove the worth of Altoona as a shopping center for the people of Centre County. It is not the Booster Stores' intention or wish to take business from stores in Centre County, which, of course, is not possible. But it is our desire to acquaint the people of Centre County with Altoona, for such times when you plan a shopping trip out of town, when your local stores do not have what you want, when you desire a change from old familiar surroundings, a motor trip, a theatre party and so on!

In as much as Blair County depends on the support of surrounding counties, we feel it is a privilege to set aside March 18th as Centre County Day to show you our appreciation for your generous support. We have planned a gala occasion, a party in which everyone can take part. Booster Stores have given much time and forethought in making this day one of sensational values. A copy of the Altoona Mirror and Altoona Tribune will be delivered to each home in Centre County showing the values to be offered on this great day.
