Mrs. Roxanna Robertson forwarded to this office a copy of the Daily Hartford Times, pictorial section of twenty-four pages. The section is made up entirely of flood scenes in Hartford, the home of Mrs. Robertson.

William Garis, who recently moved into a portion of the Mrs. Elizabeth Mitterling home, is employed as a mason and bricklayer by A. W. Barges, a State College contractor, on a building being erected at State College.

Falling asleep while driving a sedan caused the loss of about $200 to vehicles—$150 to the sedan and the sleeper, F. K. Whitehill, Lemont, was driving, and $50 to a truck hit by it. The accident happened near Pottery Mills.

Both Mr. and Mrs. William Parker, west of town, are seriously ill with pneumonia, at their home. Mr. Parker was at the Centre County hospital for two weeks or more, but was brought back to his home on March 22nd. His condition there was very bad and has not improved since.

The Young People's Group of Trinity Reformed church will have an Easter service Sunday morning at 7:30 o'clock. The program will be of interest to all who attend. The topic is "The Easter Lily," and leader, Margaret C. Delaney. The public is cordially invited to this service.

Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Goodhart and Mrs. Myra Winegardner, on Sunday motored to Altoona where Robert Goodhart was visited. The latter has been in poor health during the past year and during the recent past has been confined to bed for much of the time. Mr. Goodhart is a P. R. R. engineer but has been unable to do service for a year or more.

C. Nevin Kryder, of Centre Hall, and Mr. and Mrs. Reicker, of Milroy, motored to Columbus, Ohio, on Monday. The gentlemen are agents representing the Farm Bureau Insurance company, and while in the Ohio capital attended an important meeting of representatives of the company held the beginning of this week. They expect to be home Thursday or Friday.

Miss Anna Jane Musser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Musser, of Penna. Furnace, developed a case of scarlet fever within the past week. On Sunday her condition was reported to have improved. Miss Musser, a few years ago, was a guest passenger in a car which met with an accident and was seriously injured, since which time her physical condition has been very much impaired. The Musser family was visited on Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Potter.

George E. Wells, of near town, was to Milton a few days ago to make arrangements with Mrs. Mabel (Snyder) Erdley for renting the Snyder property, three miles west of Old Fort, which he and his new bride occupied this week. Mr. Wells reports Mrs. Erdley to have suffered a $5,000 loss in the recent flood, which destroyed two residence properties and a small store. Mr. Wells is giving much of his time to horse-shoeing, repairing harness, besides operating a school bus in Potter township.

Guy C. Knarr, of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, during this week was a guest of his brother, John H. Knarr. He is connected with the United States Employment Service, U. S. Department of Labor, as a Veteran's Placement Representative, and came to the National capital to attend a conference. He is well versed in his line of work which he took up following a long period in a print shop. Asked as to his opinion of the possibility of Roosevelt's success in November, he stated he believed it to be certain.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Ruth Hartley will spend Easter with her mother, Mrs. Mabel Hartley, in Millheim.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Tuesday evening at the Presbyterian manse.

Mrs. Windom Gramley, of Millheim, is a guest of Rider Poorman, a son of the late Dan Poorman, who was a boy in Centre Hall.

R. T. Hess and family, located in Kingston, near Wilkes Barre, thought to have lived in a flooded area, were undisturbed by high waters.

G. Frank Smith, an overseas World War veteran, who recently entered a Government hospital for observation, will return home on Saturday.

Thomas Vonada, of Sylvan Grove Kansas, who has been visiting with relatives and friends in Pennsylvania, is spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. James Foust and family motored to Sunbury on Sunday to visit the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Gilbert and view the flood scenes of Sunbury, Lewisburg and Milton.

Bruce Knarr, since the beginning of this week, is employed in the office of the Kerlin poultry plant. He made preparation for that class of work a few years ago in a Harrisburg business college.

The manager of the Municipal Theatre informs this paper that the theatre will be closed Good Friday evening, but will be open Saturday, showing for one day only "Professional Soldier."

Mrs. Margaret Godshall, who had been in Washington, D. C., with a daughter, was called to her home here on Monday due to the serious illness of her daughter-in-law and grandson at Spring Mills.

Samuel G. Gingerich and sister, Mrs. Catharine Sommers, of town, and Edgar Sommers, Pleasant Gap, on Tuesday attended the funeral of Mrs. Elvira Gingerich, whose husband is a son of Grant Gingerich, in Clearfield, where the death occurred.

Those present were: Jane Vogt, Janet Leister, Harriet Ann Vogt, Miriam Foust, Dickie Runkle, Drew Pitteroff, Shirley Garbrick, Evelyn Emerick, Betty Jane McMorran and Wilma Emerick.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger T. Bayard, who have been vacationing in California, have been unexpectedly called to their home in Tyrone, which was damaged by the recent flood. Most of their furniture was ruined beyond repair, and floors and doors warped. Mrs. Bayard's sister, Mrs. Dunlap, whose home was also destroyed, has been living with friends in Altoona, until her residence is reconstructed.

Mrs. Kenneth Brown of Bellefonte was admitted to the Centre County hospital for the second time on last Thursday. She had been a patient there for several weeks, and on showing recovery was discharged, but later she had a relapse and was again admitted to the institution for further treatment. During the beginning of this week her condition was reported as slightly improved. Mrs. Brown is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Decker, of near town.

The Senior Service Class in the Lutheran Sunday school held its annual meeting on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. H. L. Ebricht. A feature which makes this meeting of particular interest is that the "Big Sisters" revealed themselves for the first time, although during the past year they repeatedly did acts of kindness without doing so. The revelations were made by presenting inexpensive gifts to which were attached the name of the donor.

Farmers are urged to treat seed oats for smut to save the oats crop, by County Agent Blaney. The method is simple and inexpensive. Most farmers know how it is done, but need encouragement to do it. The returns for the effort will be extremely large.

In White Deer valley is a lake similar to the Gentzel lake in Nittany valley. The former covers one hundred acres, floods a road and isolates a school house, and like the Gentzel lake, has its source in an overflowing sink.

PUBLIC SALE OF WESTERN HORSES

JODON SALE BARN, PLEASANT GAP, PA. MONDAY, APRIL 13 1936, at 1:00 P.M. Sharp, rain or shine

This is a load of the best horses ever in my barn. Single horses and mated teams.

Three big sorrel Mares in foal, 3 big brown Mares in foal and a lot of the best big sorrel geldings you ever saw. These horses are all young, running in age from 4 to 6 years, and weighing from 1600 to 1900 pounds.

I have been a long time buying these horses and have driven miles enough to buy four loads. They sure are scarce, and hard to buy, but I have a load of finest horses ever brought to Centre county.

Come and see them, and be convinced that you haven't seen a load like them this year.
