

"EXTRA GIRL"

When Texas Centennial Exposition officials began to select the Rangerettes, hostesses for the Exposition, they planned to have one who was born in each of the 48 states. Then along came Mabel Rooks, shown above, and she passed the strict requirements. Officials found later she had been born in the District of Columbia, so they increased the corps to 50, giving themselves a little leeway in the matter of states.

Expo's Manager

William A. Webb, above, of Dallas, was named general manager of the Texas Centennial Exposition, which opens in Dallas June 6, because of his long experience in handling rush construction jobs. A veteran railroader, one of Mr. Webb's greatest accomplishments was rebuilding and remodeling the great South Australia government-operated railroad, a $70,000,000 project. He was recommended for the task, which he finished in 1931, by the U. S. Department of State.

PURINA CHICK STARTENA.
 The feed that contains Pur-a-teno (Vitamin A), extracted from carrots and blended in the right proportion in Startena. A feed with all the requirements needed, except water. It costs one cent more per chick to feed this feed, than to feed uncertain unbalanced mixtures. Of the chicks fed average mixtures, 50% die. Purina saves 90%. It costs a lot more to let chicks die than to save them. The best you can buy is by far the cheapest. You can save a cent, or a life. Which will it be?
 Come to our mill and make a check on two lots of chicks, one Barred Rocks and the other New Hampshire Reds, and convince yourself what Startena will do.

Deaths

FOSTER.—Rev. William Keller Foster died in the Presbyterian hospital, Philadelphia where he was long a patient, on Wednesday of last week. Funeral services were held on Saturday, from 1820 Chestnut street, and burial made in Chelton Hills Ab- by, Germantown. An only son, Herbert, an attorney, died a year ago, but there survives a widow, who was formerly Miss Agnes Gray of Storms- town.

Rev. Foster was a son of James R. and Elizabeth (Keller) Foster, and was born east of Centre Hall on the now W. H. Homan farm. He graduated from Pennsylvania State Col- lege, then known as Farm School, about 1877, and had his theological training at Princeton Theological Seminary.

One of his earliest pastorates was on the Sinking Creek Presbyterian charge, with residence in Centre Hall. He was pastor of the Grace Presbyterian church, Jenkintown, Philadelphia, for fifteen years. His last field was at Montrose, Susque- hanna county, where his health gave way. He and Mrs. Foster for a num- ber of years lived in Florida, and from there he entered the hospital where he died.

BREON.—Mrs. Emma T. Breon died early Wednesday morning of last week at the Lock Haven Private hospital after an illness of two weeks. Mrs. Breon was admitted to the hos- pital suffering from a stroke, thought to have been brought on by excite- ment of the food.

Funeral services were held on Fri- day afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Rebersburg Evangelical church with the Rev. Homer W. Heisley, pastor of the local Evangelical church, officiat- ing. Burial was made in the ad- joining cemetery.

Mrs. Breon is survived by three children: Roy Breon, of Williams- port; Earl, of Reading; and Hayes of Oveston; also two brothers, George Waite, of Rebersburg, and John Waite, of Beaver Falls.

KEEN.—Ada Olive Keen, 67, de- scendant of an Old Penn township family, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Weaver, at Bellefonte, where she had been ill with arthritis for the past 6 months. Prior to going to Bellefonte she was a resident at the Williamsport home of her sister, Mrs. M. I. Jam- erson, who died on March 14, 1935. Ada O. Keen was born on the old Keen homestead, a little west of Millheim, on January 17, 1869, the daughter of Jacob and Anna (Delin- inger) Keen. She was a sister of the late W. E. Keen, of Millheim, and a member of the Evangelical church.

She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Weaver, of Bellefonte and three grandchildren: David and Charlotte Weaver, of Bellefonte; and Mrs. Daniel Currier, of Donora, Pa. One sister, Mrs. Katherine King, of York, also survives.

Burial was made at Millheim on Thursday.
FURST.—Death last Thursday morning claimed one of Bellefonte's oldest and best known women when Mrs. Caroline Watson Chamberlin Furst, widow of Austin O. Furst, former Centre county judge, died at her home in Bellefonte. Death was due to complications resulting from old age, Mrs. Furst being nearly 91 years old at the time of her death. The last of a family of four chil- dren to succumb, Mrs. Furst was born at Milton, May 24, 1845, the daughter of Moses and Jane Hannah Chamberlin. She was married to Mr. Furst, who died in 1906, on Decem- ber 17, 1878.

A graduate of Birmingham School for Girls, Mrs. Furst at the time of her death was the oldest living al- umni of that institution.

Surviving children are John S. Furst and Walter B. Furst, of Phil- adelphia, and former county judge James C. Furst, of Bellefonte. Four- teen grandchildren and five great- grandchildren also survive her death.

Funeral services were held Satur- day afternoon at 2 o'clock from her late home with the Rev. William C. Thompson, pastor of the Presbyter- ian church, officiating. Burial was made in the Union cemetery at Belle- fonte.

Time Lost is Money Lost

It costs money to be sick. You see it directly if your pay envelope is short. You lose out on some important work if you live on a farm or if you are one of the few who are not docked for lost time. You can't afford to show up on the job unless you are feeling fit. The boss wants results—not excuses.

How many times do Gas on Stomach, Head-ache, Sour Stomach, "That Tired Feeling," That "Morning After" Feeling, Neuralgic, Rheumatic, Sciatic, Muscular or Periodic Pains keep you at home or interfere with your doing a full day's work?

All these troubles are caused or made worse by too much acid in your body. To correct this condition take

ALKA-SELTZER
 The New Pain Relieving, Alkalinizing, Effervescent Tablet.

It is called Alka-Seltzer because it makes a sparkling alkaline drink, and as it contains an analgesic (Acetyl-Salicylate) it first relieves the pain of everyday ailments and then by restoring the alkaline balance corrects the cause when due to excess acid. Alka-Seltzer is pleasant to take, harmless, non-laxative.

Why don't you try it? Get a drink at your drug store soda fountain for a nickel. Buy a package for home use.
