

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Samuel Sommers, of Lewistown, is visiting with his daughter, Mrs. Paul Venrick, in town.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Brungart motored to Philadelphia the latter part of last week, taking with them Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Smith for a visit among relatives.

The four months' old son of Rev. and Mrs. L. A. Wagner developed a case of three-day measles, on Thursday of last week. By this time he has fully recovered.

The beekeepers in Centre county will hold an open meeting in the court house, Thursday evening, May 7, to which all 4-H clubs are especially invited.

The State College Girl Scouts copied the $100 prize offered by Gabler, Altoona, on Centre County Day in that city, Wednesday of last week. Citizens of State College furnished free transportation for school children to go to Altoona to vote for their Girl Scout pals.

J. Cloyd Brooks and Daniel Bohn are among the extensive farmers in this section to sow oats early. Mr. Brooks finished seeding the crop on Friday and Mr. Bohn also had a goodly number of acres sown by the end of the week.

Miss Anne Wert motored to Lock Haven where she will spend several days with friends at the State Teachers' College, from which institution she graduated a year ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kerlin, of New Cumberland, motored to Centre Hall on Saturday to be with Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hosterman for a day or two.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Coldron, at the Koffee Shoppe, Nittany Mt. had as their guest over the week-end, Merrill Baylor and his bride of a day, of Chester. The couple were on their honeymoon trip when they stopped off with the aunt of the groom.

Prof. J. F. Wetzl, Miss Sara J. Odenkirk, John R. Zubler and Rev. Delas R. Keener were official delegates from West Susquehanna Classis of the Evangelical and Reformed church to the State Youth Conference, April 24-26, in the Fifth St. Methodist church of Harrisburg.

An overheated stove pipe in the Greer home, on Church street, on Saturday forenoon, was the cause for the sounding of the fire alarm and the rushing to the scene of the fire truck. The woodwork about the pipe had only reached the "frying" stage—no flame. It was only the early discovery of the condition that averted a fire loss.

Miss Sarah Donaldson and Miss Helen Leary, both R. N.'s of Huntingdon, were at the C. A. Spyker home on Sunday, and brought the information that Charles Spyker, a rural mail carrier out of Alexandria, an uncle of C. A. Spyker, had died on Saturday from intestinal adhesions. Miss Donaldson is a sister of Mrs. Spyker, the hostess in Centre Hall.

Mrs. Roy Dutrow, on Friday afternoon, served a tea under the direction of Miss Eleanor Smith, home economics extension worker in Centre county to associate class members who this semester are studying meal planning and serving. The ladies of the class present were Mrs. J. M. Coldron, Mrs. Paul Petheroff, Mrs. Fred Homan, Mrs. J. H. Knarr, Mrs. G. Frank Smith, Mrs. George Sweeney, Mrs. George Vogt.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Deeter of Williamsport, spent the week-end with Mrs. Deeter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Burkholder, at Centre Hill. Other Sunday guests in the Burkholder home were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Treaster and baby daughter, of Lewistown; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burkholder and two sons, and Miss June Workinger, of Milroy; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Zellers and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Knarr and daughter, of Centre Hall, and Ralph Shively, of Millheim.

Frank W., four and one-half years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin D. Goodhart, developed a peculiar ailment on Friday, at which time without any known reason the child refused to put any weight on his right leg. A careful examination by a physician brought no additional light. The following day the robust youngster began to use the limb in a natural way, much to the relief of the parents, who had grave fears the lad might be showing the first symptoms of infantile paralysis.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Durst entertained the following at a "500" card party, Tuesday night: Mr. and Mrs. Roy Seanson, Mr. and Mrs. Gerwin Shaffer, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. John Whiteman, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. George Rimmer, Mrs. Meredith Coldron, and Mrs. Glenn Treaster, and Mrs. E. M. Smith, the latter of State College. Prizes were awarded to the highest scores made by men and women—Jack Bradford and Mrs. E. M. Smith, respectively.

LOCALS

Frank Dashem purchased a new Buick sedan from the Warner-Buick agency, Lewistown, last week.

R. O. Diehl, father of Mrs. Fred Bender, State College, died at Rebersburg. Funeral services were held on Monday.

Miss Loraine Brungart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Brungart, was at her home here over the week-end. She is a student in nursing at the State hospital, Danville.

The Rev. Dr. E. H. Heckman, of Bellefonte, has accepted the position of superintendent of the Methodist Episcopal Home for the Aged at Tyrone. He succeeds the Rev. W. Emerson Karns.

As hostess Miss Laura Runkle entertained the members of one of the home economics clubs in Centre Hall, on Friday afternoon. Members of the club present included Misses Mary Delinda Potter, Jennie Thomas, Mrs. Fernie Homan, Mrs. Ethel Booser, Mrs. Isabel Bradford, Mrs. Vergie Keller, Mrs. Treddie McClellan, Mrs. Edna Miller, Mrs. Ida Miller, Mrs. Nellie Geary, Mrs. Regina Ebright, and Mrs. Koffey.

DR. T. KAGAWA, "WORLD'S GREATEST CHRISTIAN," HEARD BY LOCAL PEOPLE

Dr. Toyohiko Kagawa, "world's greatest Christian," was heard in the Methodist church, Lewisburg, Sunday evening, by a number of Centre Hall residents interested in mission work. Dr. Kagawa is one of the most outstanding Christian leaders of the day, a fact more remarkable since he was converted from a Japanese religion to Christianity in his youth. In his address he displays an amazing knowledge of scientific progress, weaving science and religion into a single strand.

He is a man of genial bearing and good humor, ready laughter and keen interest in affairs of the day nationally and internationally. Nothing seems to ruffle him as he bows, smiles and talks; every once in a while he laughs in a happy way that he has, seeming to bubble with good humor.

Among others from about here who heard the noted divine were Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Goodhart, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Geary, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ebright, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. Russell B. Nesbit, of State College, with Miss Vivian Doty and Fred Spyker as motor guests. During the afternoon Dr. Kagawa spoke at Williamsport in the Methodist church, at which service he was heard by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Petheroff, Mrs. F. K. Frank, Mrs. Harold Durst, and Kenneth Frank, from town.

DEAD AT 86 YEARS.

Mrs. Hannah M. Iddings, widow of Edward Iddings, died at her home in Unionville after an illness of over a year. She would have been 86 years old on May 17.

Her only survivor is a niece, Mrs. A. B. Davidson, of San Diego, Calif. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon in the Unionville Methodist church, conducted by Rev. Kauffman and assisted by Rev. Piper.

Boalsburg.

Fred Koch has leased and furnished the house vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sweet.

Mrs. George Mothersbaugh spent last week with relatives in the vicinity of Philadelphia, returning home Saturday accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Henry Bubeck and son Bobbie, as motor guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Goss, of Reading.

Rev. W. J. Wagner of State College, called on shut-ins in town, Monday. Several cases of German measles developed among the primary school children last week. At the Junior Oratorical contest, Wednesday evening Wm. Tussey was awarded first prize; Helen Ross, second, and Helen Sunday, third. The contest was sponsored and prizes provided by the Civic Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mothersbaugh and family, of Altoona, were visitors at the George Mothersbaugh home on Saturday afternoon and evening.

Met. Frank McFarlane is visiting at the home of D. B. Thomas in West Harris township.

The Civic Club will meet at the home of Mrs. P. L. Swank on Friday evening, May 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Goheen visited their son, Richard, and family, in Indiana, and also their aunt, Mrs. Alice Magoffin, at Holidaysburg, over the week-end.

Paul Derner and family of Huntingdon, were week-end visitors at the John Derner home.

Ellen and Cathryn Dale visited at the home of their brother, Clement Dale, at Pleasant Gap, on Sunday afternoon.

Heien Geer was compelled to be absent from the school room last week having been confined to her home in Lock Haven by illness.

Che TIGER

[The following articles are taken from the current issue of "The Tiger," Centre Hall High School publication.]

POSSIBLE ITINERARY FOR TOUR OF WASHINGTON

Monday afternoon — Sight-seeing tour of Washington Monument, National Academy of Science, and Pan-American Union.
Monday evening — Visit Library of Congress, movies.

Tuesday morning — Tour of Bureau of Engraving and Printing, Smithsonian Institute, National Museum, Aircraft Building, and Medical Museum.
Tuesday afternoon — Tour of Lincoln Memorial, Arlington, Fort Meyer Military Reserve, and Mount Vernon.

Tuesday evening — Theatre party or boat trip.

Wednesday morning — Tour of Embassies, White House, Capitol, and Falger Shakespeare Library.

Wednesday afternoon — Visit Scottish Rite Temple, Corcoran Art Gallery, Red Cross Building, and Zoological Gardens.

HONOR ROLL.

- SENIOR
Robert Smith.
- JUNIOR
Donald Barger
Eugene Emerick
Charles Ramer
George Homan
William Thomas
George Heckman
- SOPHOMORE
Jean Slack
Mildred Homan
- FRESHMAN
Mary Swartz
Frances Runkle
Harold Bradford
Iona Barger

1870 COPY OF SCHOOL PAPER APPEARS IN "THE TIGER" FILES

Rags! The same old shriek heard today on the streets seems to have prevailed when John Dauberman with number eleven shoes which pinched his feet was a student of the Centre Hall high school.

Both the poem "The Rag Man" and the note about John Dauberman's shoe size, appear in volume one, number one of the "Student's Gazette" of May 2, 1870, presented to the high school by Mr. John Knarr. This copy is the oldest local school paper of which the high school has any record.

William Kurtz, the editor of the "Student's Gazette" asserts that the object of this paper "is to improve composition writing and put into practice the rules of grammar, punctuation, and rhetoric." Its sole aim is to cultivate a literary taste among its readers as well as the art of perfection.

One feature of this old copy of "The Students' Gazette" is its witty sayings inserted here and there. For instance, it relates of a family in Ohio so lazy that it takes two to sneeze, one to hold the hand back and the other to make the noise. Many old proverbs are also included: "Do not put off till tomorrow what you can do today"; "Don't count your chickens before they are hatched"; "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you"; and "Look before you leap."

Humorous episodes of school life are retold with characteristic youthful glee. There was no columnist, but plenty of humor column material. The editor thinks the boldest person ever heard of was a gentleman who took dinner at his sweetheart's house, after having been driven off the night previous. He also mentions a certain member of the school who never hurried himself except once, and that was when he sat down on a pin. The paper was written by hand with pen and ink on both sides of the paper, with each sheet containing two columns.

TRIP TO EUROPE IS UNIQUE

VACATION FOR J. KIRKPATRICK

Probably the most interesting and unique vacation plans for 1936 are those of Jack Kirkpatrick '38, who plans to tour the British Isles accompanied by his parents, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kirkpatrick.

On May 28 they will leave for New York, from which port they will sail for Glasgow, Scotland, two days later. The Franconia, of the Cunard White Star line, will be the boat taken.

They will visit with relatives in Scotland before touring England and Ireland. They also expect to spend a few days in Norway, where Mrs. Kirkpatrick will attend the World Sunday School Convention at Oslo. They will then visit the battle grounds of the World War in France.

They expect to sail from Southampton, England, for New York, on July 24.

MR. FRANK ARNEY SUFFERS ILLNESS; LEAVES HOSPITAL

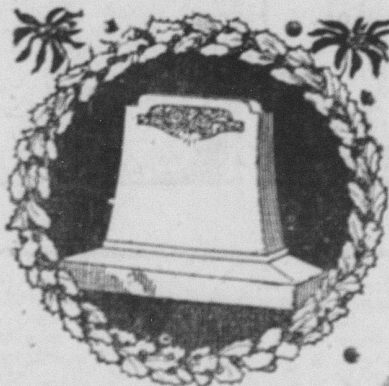

Mr. Frank Arney, janitor of the borough school for four years, was discharged from the Bellefonte hospital on Sunday, April 5, where he was being treated for lung trouble. Water formed between the tissues in the plural cavity, making treatment necessary. He was taken to the hospital on March 25.

Immediately after his discharge from the hospital he was taken to Millheim by his son, William, who is a station agent there.

JAMES W. SWABB

—Justice of the Peace—
LINDEN HALL, PA.

Legal Business promptly attended to

A Monument Erected

to the memory of a loved one is a substantial expression of your lasting affection. To select one that will be appropriate requires careful consideration—for it must last through all the years to come. Let us co-operate with you by submitting suggestions based upon our wide experience as memorial sculptors.

C. H. HOMAN

Successor to
H. G. STROHMEIER
Centre Hall Marble & Granite Works,
CENTRE HALL

Advertisement for General Electric refrigerator with text: "A General Electric protects BOTH your food and your purse! —it costs less to own!". Includes GE logo and product image.

Advertisement for Hosterman & Stover Co. with text: "Prices are as Low as $134.50, with Easiest Terms. Hosterman & Stover Co. 'The Department Hardware Store' MILLHEIM, PA. Phone 11-R-2".

PENNY-A-WORD COLUMN.

2323 Lewistown, Pa. x20

BABY CHIX.—Single-comb Rhode Island Red day-old baby chicks, at the house, five cents each; started week-old, eight cents. Hatch each Tuesday. J. C. Robinson, Spring Mills. x20

NOTICE—40 head cattle for pasture on farm land. Want to buy 100 bu. oats—C. P. Long, telephone 19R2, Spring Mills, Pa. 2t

FOR SALE—Several 5-gallon visible gasoline pumps and tanks. Call

WANTED—Market chickens of all kinds; tankage sold, $1.75 per cwt.—A. M. Reigel Centre Hall; phone 11-

Advertisement for SNOOK'S MEATS GROCERIES. The One-Stop Store :: Centre Hall. List of products and prices: FANCY SOUP BEANS lb 3c, FANCY PRUNES lb 5c, AUNT NELLIE'S SALT 4 boxes 10c, etc.

Advertisement for The FIRST NATIONAL BANK, CENTRE HALL, PA. Includes logo and text: "A Monument Erected" and "to the memory of a loved one is a substantial expression of your lasting affection."

Advertisement for KERLIN'S GRAND VIEW POULTRY FARM. Attention » » POULTRY RAISERS. For every dollar you invest in Chick Feed... Our Price, only $2.35 per 100 lbs. OUR WAREHOUSES ARE OPEN. Every Wednesday afternoon and Evening in MILLHEIM; Friday forenoon in MADISONBURG; Friday Afternoons and Evenings in Rebersburg; Every day in CENTRE HALL and Friday and Saturday Evenings.