LETTER FROM GAINESVILLE, FLORIDA, IS OF INTEREST

Gainesville, Fla., May 22, 1936. Editor, Centre Reporter:

Invitations to the high school graduating exercises of the P. K. Yonge Laboratory School are about to be sent out. The exercises are to be held June 5th in the school auditorium. Among those graduating will be Erdman West, Jr., who is president of the senior class and senior representative to the school government council. Erdman Jr. claims Centre Hall as his birthplace and is the only grandson of H. J. and the late Mrs. Lambert, of Centre Hall.

"I am enclosing a program of the recent May Day 1936 held in the Yonge Laboratory school. Both Erdman Jr. and his sister, Betty, 9 years old, took important parts in the play. Betty took part in the Dutch dance with other children in the third grade, of which she is a member, while Erdman Jr. had the honor of crowning the Queen of the May. Erdman Jr. sings tenor in the double quartet and is also a member of the boys' glee club in the Laboratory School.

"The notes in the Reporter which I have read from time to time concerning the Boy Scout movement in Centre Hall, are of great interest to us. Mr. West has been chairman of the Court of Review for the Scouts in Gainesville, as well as examiner for all Nature Study merit badges, for several years. Erdman Jr. has been an Eagle Scout since September 1934 and at present lacks one merit badge of having his Gold Palm. He has spent the past six summers at Camp Echo-clotee, the official Boy Scout camp, at Jacksonville, Florida. Last year he was Junior Leader at camp and along with his regular duties he earned his Senior Red Cross Life Saving and Scout Life Guard. He trained more than thirty boys in a course in Forestry, culminating in the Forestry Merit Badge.

Erdman Jr. plans to enter the Forestry School in the University of Florida in September.

"Sincerely yours,
"MRS. ERDMAN WEST."

LOWELL YOUNG, 24 COMMITS SUICIDE, THURSDAY MORNING NEAR "BROWNIE'S PLACE"

Lowell Young, aged 24 years, died 19 days, of Colyer, Potter township, died in the Centre County hospital at 2:20 o'clock Thursday morning, twenty minutes after he was admitted, suffering from a self-inflicted bullet wound in the left temple.

Young had been with a party of friends at "Brownie's Place," a roadhouse in the Seven Mountains, near Potters Mills, and with the group left the dance hall at 1 o'clock that morning. The young people had driven some little distance in George Bubb's car when the girls decided to return for another dance. Young suddenly got out of the car and walked to the rear where he shot himself.

Young had been acting strangely recently, according to report reputed to have been made by a brother, and a short time before he shot himself, had told one of the members of the party to "stick around and see some fun."

One of the cars at the roadhouse started with Young to meet the ambulance from Bellefonte, which had been called.

Dr. W. R. Heaton, of Philipsburg, Centre county coroner, decided that no inquest would be necessary.

Young was employed as a laborer and is survived by his father, David Young, of Colyer, and a brother, Frank, a resident of Farmers Mills, and Fred, living near Tusseyville.

Private funeral services were held at the Goodhart Funeral Home in Centre Hall, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with interment in the Zion hill cemetery, Rev. W. K. Hosterman, of the Evangelical church officiating.

The young people who made up the group in the party were Young, George Deering and George Bubb, all of Potter township; Dorothy Dalby Young's "girl friend"; Beatrice Dalby, a sister, both of Reynoldsville, and Dorothy Pantz, Lewistown.

Rev. Danie G. Glass, for the past forty years pastor of the Faith Reformed church, Lancaster, was elected president of the Eastern Synod of the Reformed church, in a session held in Philadelphia, at which every one of the 249 classes was represented by a minister; there were also 124 elders.

The Synod by action put itself on record as opposed to gambling; appointed a committee to appear at a hearing of House Bill No. 35, concerning the establishing of state-wide lotteries; expressed dissatisfaction with a resolution on War and Peace, and appointed a committee of younger men to formulate a definite program in the subject, favored more and better students for the ministry.

Miss Nelle Weber has the distinction to be the first woman delegate to Eastern Synod, representing the Nittany Valley Charge, Howard. The Rev. George R. Johnston is pastor.

Jim Farley may become the Democratic candidate for governor of New York. On attaining the governorship of the Empire State, the Postmaster General would be in line to succeed President Roosevelt after he has served his second term.

MASS DEORATION OF GRAVES OF VETERANS BY A. L. P. 443

Under the direction of American Legion Post No. 444, Millheim, a mass decoration of graves of soldiers of all wars was made in the Centre Hall Lutheran and Reformed cemetery on Sunday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock, with further services in the Lutheran church.

A parade was formed at the Reformed church with about fifty veterans, largely from CCC camp 65, in line, the East Penna Valley high school band being the musical organization to quicken and time the step of the World War veterans.

At the cemetery the service was brief, opening with a selection by the band, prayer by the Chaplain, G. A. Crawford, the ritual service by Samuel McMullen, salute, taps, and finally placing flowers on the grave of one of the three World War veterans resting in the cemetery.

At the church the male choir of the Millheim Lutheran church opened the service with an appropriate selection. The service was conducted by Rev. L. A. Wagner of the Lutheran church, with Rev. Seth Russell, pastor of the Methodist church, as the speaker. Rev. Russell directed his address to a large extent to the veterans before him, giving them due credit for their valiant patriotic services. His remarks were of great interest and indicated the minister had made proper preparation for the occasion.

The male choir sang several numbers in a most pleasing manner. The group was made up of the following: Albert S. Stover, director; S. Ward Gramley, Russell Cable, Joseph Reif-snyder, Leroy Foraythe, S. L. Hubler, Herbert Drylie, J. R. Miller, Bland Frankenberg, Sumner Frankenberg, T. K. Frank, Boyd Hazel, W. O. Stover, Harry Acker, with Mrs. Albert Stover as accompanist.

The band of thirty-five pieces, boys and girls, were directed and received all of their instruction in band music from Paul Bariges, a member of the school faculty from which the band members were selected. Their uniforms were white with capes of blue lined with gold and caps to match. They made a very pretty appearance.

The act is designed to extend power lines into rural areas with long term loans to farm groups, municipalities, and private companies.

While private concerns can borrow a provision of the new law says that the farm associations, co-operatives and other non-profit farm units should be given preference.

Troop I 103rd Cavalry, P. N. G., located at Boalsburg, will be disbanded on May 29th on the request of the Regimental Brigade and Division Commanders, who requested the Federal government to disband the troop.

A new troop bearing the same designation will probably be re-organized in the near future, and will probably be located near Philadelphia.

Two reasons were advanced for the disbandment of the troop, difficulty in obtaining the required officers and inaccessibility and difficulty in obtaining and retaining men who can and will attend drills weekly.

DRUNKEN DRIVERS HELD FOR TRIAL IN COURT

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS

HAPPENINGS OF LOCAL INTEREST FROM ALL PARTS

Paul Zimmerman, a part-time guard instructor at the Huntingdon Industrial School, moved his family from Millheim's Huntingdon.

A forest fire near Loganport believed to have been started by the sun's rays striking a discarded glass bottle burned over about fifty acres.

Miss Margie Acker, of Aaronsburg, who participated as a member of the All-State High School Band in a series of concerts in Indiana, was given second place among the saxophonists in the band.

Dr. E. M. Morgan, pastor of the Tyrone Lutheran church, was re-elected president of the Allegheny Lutheran Synod held at Meyersdale. Rev. E. Roy Houser, Clearfield, was named vice president.

The Centre Hall baseball club will sponsor a festival on the evening of Memorial Day, on the high school grounds. A full evening's entertainment and fun. The Aaronsburg Junior Band will furnish the music.

Miss Evelyn Colyer, who had been with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Colyer, for ten days, on Friday morning used the Greyhound bus as a means of transportation to New York City where she is employed.

Buy a poppy. They are made by permanently disabled war veterans who are confined to hospitals. The proceeds from the sales are used for rehabilitation purposes. Again, we say, buy a poppy; buy poppies.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Frazier and the former's mother, Mrs. Annie Frazier, motored to Philipsburg last week and took with them Don, 20-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frazier, to have a plaster Paris cast reset on the child.

Mr. and Mrs. Webster Irwin are accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. James Ruhl, of Lewistown, visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Irwin and Ralph Irwin, of State College, and with Mr. and Mrs. James Irwin, of Boalsburg.

L. G. Leshar, editor of the Huntingdon Monitor, who entered the newspaper business May 20, 1886, when he purchased the Selingsgrove Times, has rounded out fifty years of newspaper life with last week's issue of the Monitor.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren S. Kries and son Ben Kries, of Johnstown, on motoring back home from Lewistown where they visited the former's sister, Mrs. Elsie Reish, who is ill, stopped for a short chat with the Reporter. Mr. Kries, an attorney, a year ago was appointed registrar of vital statistics for the city of Johnstown, an appointment having a good monthly return.

The concrete sidewalk from Millheim to the East Penna Valley high school building, a stretch of over 1400 feet, is finished with the exception of a crossing to be made for entrance to the S. W. Gramley farm lands, the exact spot for the crossing as yet undecided. Grading from the sides of the walk has not been finished. PWA workmen engaged on the job are on the new time schedule of 105 hours per month at the wage rate of fifty cents per hour.

Work is well under way to making improvements on the Seven Mountain Scout Camp that will make the 1936 season, opening July 4, even more enjoyable than that of 1935. Increasing the camp capacity from one hundred to one hundred and fifty campers calls for considerable more equipment and the replacement of some old equipment which was not up to the high standards maintained by the Boy Scout organization.

Among the Reporter's faithful patrons to call on Saturday was G. H. Ripka, who lives close by the Lancaster Valley CCC camp, in Millifin county. Mr. Ripka left the former McCoy farm at Potters Mills twenty-seven years ago, and find on returning to Potter township that many of his former cronies have departed for the happy land. He was accompanied by a grandson, Bruce Ripka, his mission being to put graves of deceased dear ones in presentable condition for Memorial Day.

It cost Jack Wallin, of Philipsburg, $213.35 in his attempt to secure the Republican nomination for the Legislature, while Kenneth Haines, the successful candidate, spent $241.87. Hon. John W. Decker, who had no opposition for the Democratic nomination, spent less than fifty dollars. Senator Edward Jackson Thompson, spent $137.52 in his campaign for national delegate from the 23rd Congressional district, and received over 9,000 votes, or 3,900 more than the next highest candidate.

The Reporter is issued before Fred Fisher, manager of the Plaza Theatre, Bellefonte, endeavors to give away $200.00 prize money to some one having previously registered at the theatre, and present last night (Wednesday). Perhaps he got rid of it at last, but if he did not, we would suggest dividing the amount (which will be $225.00 for next Wednesday night's draw) into nine $25.00 prizes, and draw names from the cylinder until all the money is distributed. Advance notice of this plan would doubtless draw a record house, and Fred would be relieved of his nervousness.
