

Spring Mills

A Collection of News Happenings and Persons from Gregg Township's Metropolis.

Gregg Twp. Voc. School Commencement.—The 17th annual commencement exercises of Gregg Twp. Voc. school will be held in the Methodist church at Spring Mills this (Thursday) evening, at 8 o'clock. The general theme selected for discussion this year is "Looking Forward With Youth." Ellsworth Stover, the first class speaker, will talk on "The Graduate Views His High School Training." Evelyn Brooks will discuss "The Graduate Views His Responsibilities," and the final class speaker, Margaret Grenoble, "Youth Looks Beyond the Years."

Dr. C. H. Grodiner, ex-president of Millersville State Teachers' College, will address the audience. Music will be furnished by the Gregg Twp. Vocational school orchestra.

Dr. Clarence S. Anderson of the department of Rural Education, Penn State College, will present the diplomas to the class members. The class roll is Anna M. Barger, Daisy A. Boob, Evelyn L. Brooks, J. Adam Condo, Margaret E. Grenoble, Twila E. Hagen, Gerald M. Johnson, Wm. S. McCool, Dean C. Stover, S. Ellsworth Stover, Inez M. Zettle, Pauline I. Zettle and Kenneth W. Smith.

The Vocational school will bring the school term to a close on Friday of this week. The entire school will hold a picnic the last day at the Black Moshannon Dam.

Bonds Awarded to Millheim Bank.—The Gregg Twp. School Board awarded the $10,000 issue of school bonds to the Farmers' National Bank & Trust Co. of Millheim at a meeting Friday night. The above named bank offered the best bid among the seven banks and bonding companies who entered bids. The bids were as follows: Farmers' Nat. Bank & Trust Co., Millheim, 3 1/2% int. and $68 premium; S. K. Cunningham & Co., Pittsburgh, 3 1/2% int. and $65 premium; Leach Bros. Inc., Phila., 3 1/2% int. and $33 premium; Stroud & Co., Phila., 3 1/2% int. and $25.99 premium; First Nat. Bank, State College, 3 1/2% int., no premium; First Nat. Bank, Spring Mills, 3 1/2% int., no premium; Glover & McGregor, Inc., Pittsburgh, 3 1/2% int., $68 premium.

Mr. and Mrs. Pealer Rossman and son Hayes are visiting at the H. F. Rossman home.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Musser and family, of Muncy, visited among friends over the week end. They are well contented at their new home where Mr. Musser is employed in a large flouring mill, but there is no mistake about their enjoying their trips to the old home scenes and surroundings.

Dr. and Mrs. George C. Thomas motored to Sunbury where they remained over Memorial day.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnson and children and Mrs. James McDonald of Philadelphia, are visiting at the home of the parents of the ladies, Mr. and Mrs. Bright Bitner.

Mrs. Weaver Breaks Leg in Fall.—Mrs. George Weaver fell at her home and broke a bone in one of her limbs, close to the hip. The accident happened Friday at 6:30 p. m. at her home in Spring Mills but her plight was not discovered until 10 o'clock that night, when her son Samuel returned home. Mrs. D. H. Siegal gave Dr. Frank assistance in caring for the patient for the night and Saturday morning she was taken to the Centre County hospital.

Master Ray Bitting, of Loyalsville, is visiting his big brother, Wayne Bitting, at the home of A. B. Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. David E. Ream, of Penn Brook were guests from Friday to Sunday of H. F. Erdley.

Mrs. P. A. Fetzeroff was taken to Harrisburg by her son, H. W. Fetzeroff, and from there another son, H. C. Fetzeroff, connected with the State Vocational School Dept., took her on to Falling Waters, W. Va., to visit with a brother, D. P. Williamson. On completing her visit to W. Va. she will return to Spring Mills, where she makes her home with the son first named.

It is no longer D. H. Siegal and two sons who take contracts for plastering, but D. Fred Siegal & Co. the company being D. H. Siegal and youngest son, Robert, the elder son being the head of the contracting firm. They now have on their list of jobs four residences in State College and one in Boalsburg.

4-H Club Elects Officers.—The next regular meeting of the 4H Club will be held next Wednesday evening, June 10, at 1:30 o'clock, in the Vocational school building, with Miss Eleanor Smith, home economics extension worker, in charge. At the last meeting held at the home of the Misses Zuber these officers were elected: President, Isabel Musser; vice-president, Dolores Condo; secretary, Barbara Fetzeroff; treasurer, Bernice Fetzeroff; song leader, Betty Auman; news reporter, Martha Barger.

Dolores Condo, 14, joined the younger group and will take dancing lessons from Miss Burner, Houtzdale, at the American Legion home in Bellefonte. They had their last lesson Monday evening.

Bright Bitner is operating a new Chevrolet sedan.

Mrs. Miles Bressler became seriously ill on Thursday afternoon. It is possible she will be taken to the Centre County hospital for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Corman and Mrs. Annie Smith during last week motored to Huntingdon by way of McAlevy's Fort where they visited with Prof. U. A. Moyer, who twenty-one years ago was principal of Gregg Vocational school, and is now teaching in the Huntingdon Industrial school.

Another person visited was Miss Mabel Shore, near Huntingdon, whose acquaintance Mrs. Corman formed when the two were students in Williamsport Commercial College.

The Baccalaureate sermon on Sunday night in the Methodist church delivered by Rev. L. V. Lisher, was largely attended. The talk was inspiring to the young people and appeared to make an impression which it is hoped will be lasting.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jones and sons Wm. and Robert, of Hollsopple, were guests at the C. B. Stover home on Sunday. On returning home they were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Stover, Miss Josephine Stover, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Swabb and children as far as Whispering Pines along the highway between Phillipsburg and Clearfield, where all enjoyed a supper.

D. M. McCool, Mrs. Grace I. McCool and Miss Lottie McCool, the latter of Millheim, are planning to spend a few days in Altoona.

Paul Grove, the automobile transport man, was at his home over the week-end.

A. C. Dunlap, the barber, is having his dwelling house repainted, the artistic work being done with a hand brush by Adam Keller.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Johnson and children Francis and Lois, on Friday motored to Hartleton where Mrs. Johnson and the children remained with Wm. Catherman, father of Mrs. Johnson, while Mr. Johnson went on to Sunbury to attend a gathering of railroad men called in for instruction. A member of the Catherman family is Mrs. Daniel Catherman, mother of William, who has attained the age of ninety-five years.

J. C. Lee was another station agent to be called to Sunbury and was accompanied by Samuel Brown. On returning they brought with them Mr. Brown's daughter, Miss Mabel.

A Children's Day service will be held in Salem Reformed church on Sunday evening, June 14.

A Grange Neighbor Night meeting held at Boalsburg was presided over by Wayne Bitting, who acted as master of ceremonies. A group of young people comprised of Frances Zorby, Margaret Grenoble, and Emanuel Eungard, all of Spring Mills, were the principals in a playlet entitled "Don't Tell a Soul," which was well received by an audience of about two hundred.

At the Corman-Smith home on Saturday evening the dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Overly, Clearfield; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Clemmon, Washington, D. C. Mr. Clemmon is employed by the city railway company and Mrs. Clemmon, a daughter of Mrs. Overly, is employed in one of the Government offices. Before leaving for the National Capital, Mr. and Mrs. Clemmon returned to Clearfield.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. King were guests on Sunday of a party from Millheim county who motored to Hairy Johns Park, taking the Kings with them. The host party comprised Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Leitzell, Harry Leitzell and Miss Freda Smith.

Mrs. Harry Bell and daughter Edna, and Mrs. Bell's mother, Mrs. John Geary, and twin sister, Miss Elvina Crader, all of Sunbury, were at the G. C. King home on Sunday. The twin sisters are aged between 84 and 85, but have the appearance of being much younger.

Paul W. Myers and Miss Gertie Bartges, also a second couple whose names were not learned, motored to Niagara Falls on Saturday, returning on Sunday.

On Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Guy Corman, Mrs. Annie Smith and Mrs. Sarah Corman attended memorial services at Martha Furnace, their particular interest being the fact that Mrs. Smith's father, John D. Wagner, a Civil War veteran, was buried in the cemetery where the services were held.

The score of 17 to 10 against Spring Mills won for Port Matilda the county high school championship. The game was the second between the winners of the western and the eastern divisions, and was played at Port Matilda, Monday afternoon.

Boalsburg.

Misses Lola Lonbarger and Thelma Smith are visiting the latter's sister, Mrs. Glenn, in Buffalo, N. Y.

The Civic Club will meet at the home of the pres., Mrs. M. W. Goheen, Friday evening, June 5, 8 o'clock. A full attendance of members is desired as an election of officers will be held.

Albert Meyer, of Pittsburgh, assisted by Chas. Segner, is painting his mother's residence on School St.

Richard Goheen and son, Richard, Jr., and Fred Lehler, of Indiana, were week-end visitors with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Harold Fisher and daughter Mary Lou, of Huntingdon, were recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Nelle Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Stuart and daughter Elizabeth and Mr. and Mrs. David Stuart, of Crafton, were among the visitors in town over the week-end.

Rev. Johnson, of Howard, conducted services in the Reformed church on Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kuhn and daughter Margaret, of Williamsport, Miss Blanche Rowe, of Harrisburg, and Miss Daisy Rowe, of State College, visited at the home of Mrs. Chas. Kuhn recently.

Dr. H. F. Bisher, of Lewisburg, spent a short time in town, Thursday.

Miss Anna Mary Hess, Mrs. Edgar Hess, Mrs. Wm. Houtz and daughter Barbara returned home Thursday after a ten days' visit with friends in Columbus and Cincinnati.

Mrs. E. W. Hies was admitted to the Centre County hospital, Monday.

J. D. Mayes, of Milton, was in town Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ruble and daughter Miss Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shugerts, of Lewistown, and Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Stover, of Yeagerstown, were among the Millheim county people who visited in town over Sunday.

Memorial Day was home-coming time for former residents of Boalsburg and vicinity, and the town was thronged with visitors, many remaining for a week-end visit.

Mrs. Rossmann and Mrs. Bitner, of Tusseyville spent several days at the home of their brother, S. J. Wagner. Cyrus Wagner and wife, of State College were also visitors at the home of their father.

At a meeting of the plot holders in the cemetery on Monday evening, C. M. Corl and A. E. Gingrich were the newly elected trustees. The board organized with L. K. Dele, pres.; A. E. Gingrich, vice-pres., and C. M. Corl, sec'y and treas.

Miss Dorothy Rissinger returned to her home in Newport Friday night. Miss Rissinger was a member of the high school faculty the past year.

Mrs. E. M. Kuhn is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Warren Cupp, and family at Naugatuck, Conn. The attraction, the new daughter, Sarah Stover Cupp.

The ambulance dates back 1900 years to the time of Tiberius, Emperor of Rome. It was in a spirit of mercy that Tiberius ordered a wagon for wounded to be attached to every camp of Roman legions—and baths, too.

HECLA PARK
7 MI. East of Bellefonte
Route 220

OPEN EVERY NITE DANCING
Mon. - Wed. - Thurs. - Sat.
Harold Cowher And HIS ORCHESTRA

SNOOK'S One-Stop Food Store ...
CENTRE HALL

ALL WEEK SPECIAL

CORN FLAKES box 6c
PEACHES 2 cans 25c
CERTO bottle 23c
MACARONI lb. 6c

MEAT SPECIAL

POT ROAST BEEF lb. 16c
CHUCK ROAST lb. 18c
TENDER ROUND STEAK lb. 25c

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

SUGAR 10 lbs. 49c
RINSO 2 large boxes 35c
PORK and BEANS can 4c
BANANAS 4 lbs. 19c
RING BOLOGNA lb. 14c
FRANKFURTS 2 lbs. 30c
BOILING BEEF 2 lbs. 25c
HAMBURG 2 lbs. 29c

SUMMER =

The month which usually starts Summer activity is here. Even the festival season has arrived. Sunshine and warm weather are with us.

Large Shipments of NEW SUMMER DRESSES are constantly Arriving. Be prepared for Warm Weather.

NEW WHITE SHOES

—for every member of the family. We have received NEW STYLES and PATTERNS in WHITE to give you different and varied styles for the "Mid-Summer" Season.

NIEMAN'S Dep't Store

"Where Your Dollars Go the Farthest"
MILLHEIM, PA.

STORE OPEN Every Evening Except Tuesday and Thursday, When We Close at 6:00 P. M.

STORE OPEN Every Evening Except Tuesday and Thursday, When We Close at 6:00 P. M.

MUNICIPAL Theatre

MILLHEIM Shows 7 & 9 P. M.

FRIDAY & SATURDAY
June 5 and 6

AL JOLSON in:
"THE SINGING KID"
Best of Short Subjects.

MONDAY & TUESDAY
June 8 and 9

Dick Powell Ruby Keeler Joan Blondell and Jack Oakie in:
"COLLEEN" the show of shows

NOTICE—We wish to inform our patrons that this theatre will close down MONDAYS & TUESDAYS after June 9th, until further notice. We will however continue to present only the latest attractions each week on Friday and Saturday evenings.

SHOW TIME STARTING JUNE 5TH and on further notice—
EVENINGS—7:15 & 9:30 P. M.

ADMINISTRATRIX'S NOTICE

In the Estate of FLORA A. ROSS, late of Harris Township, Centre county Pa., deceased.

Letters of administration on above estate having been duly granted the undersigned all persons knowing themselves indebted to the estate are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the same to present them duly authenticated for settlement.

MRS. RUTH DURST, Administratrix
John G. Love, Attorney, x28 Centre Hall, Pa.

ADMINISTRATRIX'S NOTICE

In the Estate of J. HALE ROSS, late of Centre Hall Borough, Centre county, Pa., deceased.

Letters of administration on above estate having been duly granted the undersigned all persons knowing themselves indebted to the estate are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the same to present them duly authenticated for settlement.

MRS. RUTH DURST, Administratrix
John G. Love, Attorney, x28 Centre Hall, Pa.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE

In the Estate of ANNA B. SHUNK, late of Centre Hall Boro, Centre county, Pa., deceased.

Letters of administration on above estate having been duly granted the undersigned all persons knowing themselves indebted to the estate are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the same to present them duly authenticated for settlement.

Authenticated for settlement.
H. L. EBRIGT, Adm.,
Centre Hall, Pa. x23

TRANSFERS OF REAL ESTATE
The Viscose Company to the Foreman's Club of the Viscose Co., of Lewistown; tract in Potter twp.; $1. Hassell Hurwitz to F. B. Cole, et ux of State College; tract in State College; $725.
Laura J. Fultz to Raymond A. Johnson, of Lewistown; tract in Potter twp.; $500.

WHEN IN NEED OF Planing Mill Work
of any kind,
LUMBER, ROOFING, Nails,
All Kinds Building Material,
CALL AT—
Garrett's Planing Mill
GOOD MATERIAL AND HONEST PRICES
Rebersburg, Pa.
Phone 161R42

Will your stove do this?

... maintain an even heat that is Exactly right?

.. an Electric Range will!

HOW often have you had a failure with a cake or pie, just because your oven wouldn't maintain the right heat? You have a decided advantage when you bake with an Electric Range. You merely set the Oven Temperature Control for the degree that is called for in the cook book—and turn the switch. In quick time the heat is right (an indicator tells you just when) and you place the cake or pie in the oven.

When the baking is finished, you have a superior food product—superior in looks, texture and flavor. For throughout the baking operation, this accurate, controlled heat is MAINTAINED.

Investigate the advantages of an electric range. You'll be surprised at the extra service it can give you.

MONTHLY PAYMENTS

Investigate the low terms that are available on the purchase of the electric ranges now displayed by West Penn and other Electric Range Dealers.

The Electricity Averages Only $2.20 a Month

ELECTRIC COOKING Cool.. Clean.. Fast.. Economical Better Results