The Tree Crocodile
The customer proved most exacting and the clerk was growing impatient. "Now are you sure this is genuine crocodile skin?" the customer inquired, critically examining a handbag. "Quite sure, madam," was the reply. "You see, I know the man who shot that crocodile." "It looks rather dirty," remarked the customer. "Well, yes," replied the assistant. "That's where the animal struck the ground when it fell out of the tree."—The Automobileist.

Lost for Good
"Mummy," said little Joan pleadingly, "can I please have another piece of toffee?" "I've only just given you a piece," said mother. "What happened to it?" "I've lost it," the child replied. "Where did you lose it?" mother inquired. "I just put it in my mouth and it went right down," Joan informed her. —Pearson's Weekly.

Pure Exhilaration

THE amount of pure exhilaration that is inherent in an obstacle and a difficulty has never been adequately estimated. There is really no such stimulus known elsewhere. It is like a ladder set up that one may climb. It is a tacit invitation to command the outlook. It is the open door of opportunity. It is the intimation to look within and discover one's latent powers and use them. It is one of the most forcible intimations of immortality.—Lillian Whiting.

Practical View

Truth is beautiful to contemplate but it is sometimes inconvenient.

Cardui During Middle Life

Women who are entering middle life will be interested in the experience of Mrs. L. C. McDonald, of Paragould, Ark., who writes: "I took Cardui during change of life. I was so weak, so nervous, I could hardly go. I just dragged around. I had fainting spells and would just give down. My back and head hurt. I read of Cardui. I took about seven bottles. It gave me relief and strength. I am now 60 years past and can do a pretty good day's work in the house and garden." Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.
