A Collection of News Happenings and Personals from Gregg Township's Metropolis.

Bierly-Wagner Church Wedding—The setting of the Bierly-Wagner wedding in St. Mark's Lutheran church, Spring Mills, on Friday evening, was unusually pretty, and was witnessed by a large number of persons. In addition to the immediate friends and relatives who received invitations, a general invitation was extended to all members of the Lutheran congregation of which the bride was a part, and a considerable number availed themselves of the opportunity to witness the ceremony, and when the hour—4:00 o'clock—arrived, the church, decorated for the occasion by the Bellefonte florist, was comfortably filled.

The bride, Miss Phyllis Wagner, a daughter of Mrs. Kathryn Wagner, wore a gown of ivory satin, lace veil, and carried lilies. Mrs. Adam Turnbull, a sister of the bride, the maid of honor, was dressed in a gown of pink tulle with a hat to match, and carried roses and blue larkspur. The bridesmaids, Miss Rebecca Robinson and Miss Orle Wagner, the latter also a sister of the bride, wore gowns of yellow and blue mousseline-de-soir and large leghorn hats. Their bouquets were of pink and blue larkspur and baby breath. Mr. Donald Dreisbaugh, of Williamsport, was best man, and the ushers, Mr. Paul Bierly and Mr. Woodrow Bierly, are brothers of the groom. Virginia Decker, 7, was train bearer.

As the wedding march was being played by Miss Bernice Smith, the bridal party approached the altar, and on reaching the officiating minister, Rev. L. A. Wagner, Mr. Theodore R. Wagner presented the bride to the man in waiting, Mr. Stanley Bierly. The beautiful ring ceremony of the Lutheran church was used.

Prior to the ceremony proper, Miss Sarah Odenkirk sang, "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly."

The groom is a resident of Rebersburg, a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bierly. He is a graduate of Penn State, class of '31, and majored in electrical engineering. The bride is a graduate of Gregg Township Vocational School and Healey's Business College.

The couple after their honeymoon trip will go to housekeeping in Millheim where Mr. Bierly is in business.

A reception was tendered the wedding party and a few guests by Mr. and Mrs. John W. Decker, the latter a sister of the bride, at their delightful home in Spring Mills. In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Bierly, those present were Mrs. Kathryn Wagner, Centre Hall; Mr. and Mrs. Theodore R. Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Trumbull, Harrisburg; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Detwiler and daughter, Shirley Ann, Cochransville; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dreisbaugh, Williamsport; Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bierly, Misses Edith and Ruth, Centre Hall; Paul and Woodrow Bierly, Rebersburg; Miss Orle Wagner, Lester Rote, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Robinson; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wise, Centre Hall; Miss Rebecca Robinson, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. James Langle, Madisonburg; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Small, Smulton; Rev. and Mrs. L. Arthur Wagner, Centre Hall; Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Pruy, Morrisdale; Rev. and Mrs. M. C. Drumm and daughter, Mary Anna, Middleburg.
