Only the Fence
A stranger addressed the farmer's boy across the fence.
"Young man, your corn looks kind o' yellow."
"Yes, that's the kind we planted."
"Don't look as if you would get more than half a crop."
"Don't expect to. The landlord gets the other half."
Then, after a pause, the man said:
"Boy, there isn't much difference between you and a fool."
"No," replied the boy, "only the fence."—Hoard's Dairyman.

Slightly Mixed
Jimson was relating his experiences in India.
"I was taking my usual morning dip when I spotted three gladiators making for me, so I had to swim for dear life!"
"You mean navigators—something like a crocodile" interposed Johnson.
"Well, what are gladiators?"
"Gladiators? Why, they're a sort of flower grown from bulba."—Stray Stories Magazine.

Uncle Phil Says:

It's Useless to Wish
Trouble not yourself with wishing that things may be just as you would have them; but be well pleased that they should be just as they are, and then you will be at ease.

In trying to make the world pleasant for other people, you find 90 per cent of them will reciprocate.

It is a sensible man who doesn't expect more than one expression of gratitude for a favor.

Don't Harbor Resentment
No person on earth can hope to advance while harboring in the heart a case of resentment toward his or her service.

Those who are "blunt" in their statements aren't very sensitive and they think others are not.
