If Pennsylvania turns Democratic in November, Governor George H. Earle will undoubtedly be a strong contender to succeed President Roosevelt. The change of the Keystone State's political complexion at the next National election is not at all improbable.

The Department of Commerce in its survey as to the manner of the World War veterans are spending bonus money, finds the veterans are making good use of their compensation checks. In Chicago, where the bonds were cashed to the extent of fifty per cent, purchases with such funds were reported to be extremely conservative. In Detroit, St. Louis, Los Angeles, Jacksonville and Charleston, business has been stimulated to a larger extent. The conservatism in spending is due to at least some extent to the caution and warnings of newspapers, magazines and radio appeals against reckless spending.

Washing "Dirty Linen."

Last fall when State College was making an effort to secure the right to sell beer in their town, an article in the Centre Daily Times made a plea that State College be given a chance "to wash their dirty linen at home." In the vernacular of the C. D. T., a party from that district has opened a "laundry" in Boalsburg and their "dirty linen" is coming to Boalsburg to be "soaked." The vulgarity and profanity connected with the joint is very disgusting to residents who have made an effort to keep the sale of beer, etc., out of Harris township.—(Contributed).

"CHEVY'S" BIG PRODUCTION
FOR FIRST 6 MOS. OF 1936

W. E. Holler, vice-president and general sales manager of Chevrolet Motor Co., announced that on June 12 the company's sales this year had surpassed 582,964 units a figure that has stood since 1925 as the company's all-time record for the entire first half of any year. By the end of June, said Mr. Holler, 1936 sales will have exceeded any previous record for the first six months by approximately 89,000 units.

Sales in the first half of last year were 436,569, a total that was passed this year before May 10. This figure will be exceeded by 50 per cent, it is estimated, during the same period this year.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. William B. Fiedler entertained the Sunday school class in the Evangelical church of which she is a member, at her home Tuesday evening.

A telegram received by the Shoop family from Mrs. Ralph J. Wright, of Crown Point, Indiana, announced she could not be present at the funeral of her father, Samuel Shoop, due to her physical condition.

Mrs. H. W. Musser was a business visitor in Centre Hall on Wednesday morning, having been accompanied by town from Rebersburg by George Walte, at whose home she has been living for some months.

Paul Fetterolf moved on Wednesday from the Lambert property into the new house built by William Lase and Miss Cora Lase. Perry Uber moved from the Brungart property to the Lambert property, and Harry Thompson, manager of the meat market, followed Uber in the Brungart house, now owned by Max Herr.

Deaths

SHOOP—Samuel Shoop passed out of this life Tuesday afternoon, from complications, at the age of 82 years, 1 month and 4 days, having been born in Potter township, May 26, 1854. He was a son of Christian and Mary Shoop, and was one of a family of thirteen children—eight sons and five daughters—all of whom, except two grew to maturity. He began life as a coachmaker, learning his trade with the Murrys, then doing a thriving business in the building now occupied by the Hagan garage.

He was twice married, first to Mary Ann Deining, to which union were born two children—Anna, now Mrs.
Ralph J. Wright, of Crown Point, Indiana, and William D., at home. Her death occurred in 1900. The second wife, who survives, was Mrs. Ella Allen, who most tenderly cared for him during his declining years.

Mr. Shoop lived in Centre Hall almost continuously since attaining manhood, having lived for a short time in the State of Indiana.

He was a member of the Order of Odd Fellows for fifty-two years, and of the Masonic order for forty-four years.

In addition to his two children and wife, there survive him two sisters, namely, Mrs. Kate Yarger, Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Lizzie Wherley, Altoona.

Funeral services will be held from the home on Friday at 2:30 p. m., Rev. D. R. Keener to officiate.

WAGNER—Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Wagner, wife of John H. Wagner of Colyer (Centre Hall, R. D.), died at her home shortly after noon on Monday following an attack of apoplexy.
Although suddenly stricken while seated on a log near her home sunning herself, Mrs. Wagner had been in ill health for the past several years.

Born in Haines township near Aar-onsburg, May 31, 1862, she was the daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth Hettinger Burrell, deceased. On November 13, 1883, she was united in marriage with John H. Wagner, who survives with the following children: Mrs. Maude Stump, Mt. Union; Harry R., State College; Paul, Watson-town; Miss Ruth Wagner, Halston; Mrs. Goldie Wagner, Lewistown; Charles and Vernon, at home. Two sisters, Mrs. Ida Stover, Aaronsburg and Mrs. Samuel Ulrich, Centre Hall, also survive.

Funeral services will be held this (Thursday) morning at 10 o'clock at Sprucetown, with the Rev. Seth Russell, pastor of the Spring Mills Methodist Episcopal church, officiating.
Burial in Heckman cemetery.

EVEY—Lynn Elwood Evey, son of Forrest and Bertha Bradford Evey, died Saturday night after an illness of almost a year.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon from the parental home at Lemont, Rev. Edward Jones and Rev. J. W. Zang officiating. Burial was made in the Branch cemetery.

The deceased was aged about 21 years, and had he lived would have become a senior in September at Penn State. He was grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Bradford, Centre Hall.

CRAMER—John Adam Cramer died at his home in Williamsport on Sunday, aged 63 years. Funeral services were held at the Koch funeral parlors and burial made at Pine Hall on Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Asendorf officiating.

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs.
J. S. Ramer, and a son, Robert, both of State College. Brothers and sisters living are Frank Cramer, Tusseyville; William Cramer, Lemont; and Jacob Cramer, State College; Mrs. Elsie Cori and Mrs. J. Hayes, State College.

BELL—Dr. J. Finley Bell, born in Aaronsburg in 1860, died at Englewood, N. J., where he had lived for many years. He was a son of Wm.
Bell and when a boy moved with his parents to Pleasant Gap. He graduated in 1883 from the University of the City of New York and began the practice of his profession at New Hope, Clearfield county. In 1888 he went to New Jersey, living at Englewood for most of the time since. He is survived by a wife and five children.

KARSTETTER—Albert Daniel Kar-stetter, aged 60, prominent lifelong resident of Loganton, died last Wednesday morning in the Danville hospital, where he had been a patient for six months.

Mr. Karstetter served as postmaster of Loganton for 33 years, retiring several years ago. He was a prominent Odd Fellow and long a member of the Evangelical church.

Surviving are his wife, a daughter, Katherine, at home; a son, Morris F.
Karstetter, Harrisburg, and a sister, Mrs. Emma Held, Loganton.

Burial was made at Loganton on Saturday.

HARRIS TWP. VOCATIONAL

SCHOOL WINS HONORS

Harris Township Vocational School's livestock judging team, composed of Fred Adleman, Frank Bailey and LeRoy Comly, placed third as a team out of 87 teams from all parts of the State participating in the contest held during Future Farmers Week at State College, June 22 to 25.

The contest consisted of judging two classes each of horses, beef cattle, sheep and swine. There were 1-466 boys entered in the various contests.

In the horseshoe pitching tournament, Carl Young placed second, and Leroy Kilinger third. Both boys are from Harris Township Vocational School.

HARTLEY-RISHEL

Lawrence Hartley, of Centre Hall, and Miss Gladys Rishel, of Spring Mills, R. D., were united in marriage Friday evening at the Methodist parsonage, Milesburg, by Rev. M. C. Piper, and immediately thereafter left on a honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rishel, and is a graduate of Gregg Township Vocational school, class of '33, and later entered the Centre County hospital for nurses where she studied for two years.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hartley, of Centre Hall, and is a graduate of the local high school, and is employed at the Kerlin poultry farm.

The young couple have the best wishes of a large circle of friends in their respective home communities.

WEAVER-BROOKS

On Saturday morning at 9:30 o'- clock, Fred Weaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Weaver, and Miss Martha J. Brooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
J. Brooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Weaver, were married at the Reformed parsonage by the Rev. D. R. Keener, using the ring ceremony of the Reformed church. The best wishes of their many friends are showered upon them.

WAGNER-GEISS

Miss Martha Geiss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Wagner Geiss, of Bellefonte, and Edgar M. Wagner, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wagner, of Milesburg, were united in marriage in Philadelphia, Saturday, June 20. The ceremony took place in the Arch street Presbyterian church and was performed at 11 a. m. by the Rev. Harry B.
Boyd, pastor of the church.

Attendants were Miss Beatrice Baumgardner, of Philadelphia, as maid of honor, and George Geiss, of Philadelphia, brother of the bride, as best man.

The couple will live in Bellefonte.

HACKENBERG-CRADER

Thursday of last week the marriage of Charles E. Hackenberg and Emma J. Crader, both of Millheim, took place before C. W. Slack, J. P. at his office in Centre Hall. The hour was 10 P. M., and the witnesses were Miss Laura Runkle of Centre Hall, and her friend, Mrs. Maude Runkle, of Middleburg.

It was the couple's second marriage experience. The bridegroom is 41 and the bride 59 years old.

The wedding was the ninth performed by Squire Slack.

LUTHERAN S. S. CLASS

PICNICS AT HERSHEY

The class of young men in the Lutheran Sunday school taught for a number of years by Mrs. W. W. Kerlin, held its annual picnic at Hershey on Tuesday. The day opened with rain but that had no ill effects on the ardor of the youths. The members of the class, all of whom are reported to have been in attendance, included:

Kenneth Frank, Vinton McClellan, George Heckman, Robert Walker, Robert Gearhart, Dean Fetterolf, Je-dd Fetterolf, Paul Foust, George Homan, Kenneth Dutrow, Richard Luse, Wm. McClellan, Guy Kellerman, Geo.
Emerick, Eugene Emerick, Warren Homan.

Transportation was furnished by W. W. Kerlin, Fred Lase, Paul Foust, Harvey Fink, Ernest Frank. The group was accompanied by a few others, whose names were not learned.

A recent hail storm covering a section of Union county is said to have damaged much of the fruit.

FRED LUSE, Manager.

Here's One We Lose.

After a long term of uninterrupted victories, the Centre Hall baseball team dropped a hot one at Lemont, last Thursday evening, by a 4-3 score.
It was a spectacular finish. Centre Hall was leading in the 7th, and last inning, 3 to 1. Then Lemont opened on Durst. Ham Foster tripled to score Harpeter. Whitehill followed with a single to score Foster, and Ab-ramson came through with a home run clout that scored Whitehill with the winning run. Two were out when the winning run was scored.

Centre Hall, 6; Spring Mills, 2.

As a result of a 6-2 victory at Spring Mills, on Saturday, the Centre Hall club needs but one more game to assure title at the half-season post.
Jamison allowed the Spring Mills lads only 7 hits, while Centre Hall gathered 12 off Reider and Snyder. Harper and Breon led in the attack, Harper with 3 hits, one a triple, and Breon with a double and a triple.

Earl Motz, postmaster at Woodward, became suddenly seriously ill during last week, but is much improved at the present time. Mrs. Harris Stover is taking care of the post office during the absence of Mr. Motz.
