

Spring Mills

A Collection of Newsy Happenings and Personals from Gregg Township's Metropolis.

(Held over from last week.)
Daily Vacation Bible School—The present popular week-day religious school is being carried on at Spring Mills for thesecond and last week under an efficient organization directed by Rev. Seth Russell and Rev. A. L. Wagner. There are 71 pupils. The grades run from one to four and do not correspond with public school grades of those numbers. The grades with the corresponding teachers and pupils are noted:

First Grade—Teachers, Misses Evelyn Brooks and Betty Lee; Isabelle Arlene Breon, James Bressler, Duane Cruger, Annette Seanson, Paul Zubler, Mae Heckman, Lois Johnson, Kathryn Myers Nancy Watts, Florence Miao Condo.

Second Grade—Teachers, Miss Twila Hagan and Miss Helen Zettie; Faye Heckman, Mary Linsie, Arlene Grove, Kenneth Barger, Dean Kerstetter, William Homan, Vera Meyers, Devin Meyer, Guy Homan, Virginia Decker.
 Third Grade—Teachers, Mrs. Ardell Myers and E. Josephine Stover; Walter Albright, Betty Auman, Roy Heckman, Francis Johnson, Lois Marie Meyer, Rex Seanson, Lois Zubler, Arlene Long, Carol Ann Noll, Robert Zerby, Elwood Heckman, Gerald Bressler, Raymond Swabb, Ralph Watts, Helen Grove, Louise Heckman, Martha Heckman, Dorothy Heckman, Geraldine Predix, Nancy J. Meyer, Ward Keller, Lawrence Condo.

Fourth Grade—Teachers: Mrs. Guy Corman and John Zubler; Betty Auman, Martha Barger, Eugene Bressler, Dolores Condo, Kenneth Albright, Barbara Feterolf, Bernice Feterolf, Earl Heckman, Mabel Johnson, Christine Noll, Marie Noll, Eugene Rossman, Lois Shook, Jean Watts, Sarah Zubler, Ruth Zubler, Leotta Houser, Mary Osman, Russell Houser, Gladys Shawver, Dean Harter, Roy Harter, Hazel McCool, Janet McCool, Betty McCool, Rosella Walker, Dean Zerby.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller Jamison and children, of Conestogville, visited the former's father, E. T. Jamison, who at this time is confined to bed for much of the time.

Miss Delcey Morris is at her home here, and since her return Mrs. C. A. Krape is back to her own home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bright Bitner visited with Mr. Bitner's sister, Mrs. Harry Mensch, at Milton, on Saturday.

Robert McCool, removed to a sanitarium for treatment, is back to his home.

Dr. H. F. Bliner, of Lewisburg, visited his sister, Mrs. Harry Long, in Newark, Ohio, and on returning to his home was accompanied by Mrs. Long. During the past week she has been visiting among her many relatives in and about Spring Mills. She returned home during the beginning of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stover, son and daughter, also Miss Dorothy Garrett, of Rebersburg, a friend of the son Ellsworth, motored to Hershey on Sunday. The famous park and other points of interest in the chocolate center were given the once over.
 Mrs. Henrietta Confer, of Milroy who was among friends about here for some time, was a guest for a few days of Mrs. Annie Smith. She expects to spend some time in Centre Hall before returning home. Mrs. Benjamin Gephart, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Kern and daughters, Lois Jane and Ruth, were also guests at the same home during the recent past.

Miss Margaret Grenoble is visiting her uncle, William Grenoble, in New Bloomfield, and will remain for a week or ten days.

Mrs. Amanda Bailey, who lives at the Clair Houser home, recently went to Youngstown Ohio, to visit with her son Frank also a daughter, and while at the home of one of them became ill from a heart condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Bolton and daughter, Miss Ruth Bolton, of Valley View, Schuylkill county, are occupying the H. F. Erdley lodge at the base of Slide Mountain, the top of which is the widely known Penns View. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Lee and Mr. Erdley will also be at the cabin for a part of the time the Boltons occupy it. Mr. Bolton is the publisher of the Valley View Citizen, a newspaper plant made profitable under his management.

Daily Vacation Bible School Pupils Picnic—The first grade pupils of the Daily Vacation Bible school taught by Miss Evelyn Brooks and Betty Lee, were given a picnic on Thursday on the Vocational school grounds, and on Friday all the other pupils joined in a basket picnic held on Hecla Park. The occasion was a most delightful ending of a two weeks' Bible school. The pupils are indebted to Ardell Meyer, Mrs. Martha Corman, Josephine Stover, John Zubler, Evelyn Brooks and Rev. L. A. Wagner for transportation to and from the park.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Myers and the former's mother, Mrs. Vera Myers, on Saturday motored to Pittsburgh and on returning on Sunday brought with them Mrs. Aurella Davis, a cousin of Mrs. Myers.

The 4-H Club at their meeting at the Vocational school were given cooking instructions bearing especially on preparing and baking muffins and preparing eggs—poaching, baking and scrambling. Scrambling, the future housewives declare, is the easiest method of preparation and "that's what he'll get" when that time comes.
 Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shook and daughter Lois, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Ohi and sons Richard and Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Godshall and son Theodore, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Long, Miss Marie Long, Glenn Long, Mrs. Mabel Musser, Miss Isabel Musser and Allison Musser comprised a party which took a picnic supper on Hecla Park on Sunday.

The rebuilding and enlarging of the ice plant at the Sheffield Farms Milk plant is about completed, and Thursday Thomas Webb, who had the work in charge will leave for his home in Bridgeport, Conn.

The schedule for the Spring Mills baseball team this week is: Rebersburg at Spring Mills, Thursday; Spring Mills at Pine Grove Mills, Saturday.

Future Farmers of America from Spring Mills Vocational who joined the 1400 high school students of Vocational Agriculture at State College, last week were Messrs. Elsworth Stover, Adam Condo, Spurgeon Condo and John Shook.

E. E. Ardery and daughter, Miss Verma, and the former's sister, Mrs. Lizzie Reed, of Clearfield, were evening dinner guests of Mrs. Annie Smith on Saturday.

Joseph Swabb and family, B. G. Meyer and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Stover, and Miss Josephine Stover, on Sunday, motored to Bowling Green park, and on returning took supper at Hairy John's park.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Corman, Mrs. Sarah Corman, and Mrs. Annie Smith motored to Milton where they called on the Christ Musser family and later went on to Muncy and Montgomery. Luther Royer, accompanied by Mrs. Sylvia Grenoble on Sunday motored to Chambersburg where they visited an aunt of Mr. Royer, Mrs. Lou Hafer.

Mrs. Pearl Decker is about to have her dwelling house re-roofed. The work will be done by W. S. Heisey.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Haney, of Rising Sun, Md., were guests of Mrs. Mabel Smith and Mrs. Paul Grove, sisters of Mrs. Haney, on Sunday.

George Krape and wife, Willis Fisher and wife, of Johnstown, and C. F. Leitzell, of Lewistown, were recent guests at the G. C. King home. Other friends who called were Mrs. Jerry Confer, Milroy; Mrs. Harry Long, of Newark Ohio; Mrs. Shaffer, Milflinburg; Mrs. William Bressler and Mrs. Harry Hoy.

Mrs. Harry Long, of Newark, Ohio, visited with her sister, Mrs. Susan Meyer, of near town, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Snyder and family were entertained on Sunday at a birthday dinner given by Mrs. Blaine Bitner at the Bitner mountain lodge on the Garry road. The birthday of Mr. Bitner and Mrs. Bailey, a neighbor of the Bitners, both falling on the same day, were fittingly observed.

Part of Route 45 May be Rebuilt—Rebuilding of two miles of State Highway Route No. 45, beginning at the Stover place west to Spring Mills, a distance of approximately two miles, is again said to be assured. The western terminus of this section is said to be at the Segal home, the route from there being undetermined. No definite time for beginning the construction is announced. The type of road is to be similar to that rebuilt to the Union county line a few years ago.

Rebersburg.
