

Spring Mills

A Collection of Newsy Happenings and Personals from Gregg Township's Metropolis.

The bonds for $10,000, the proceeds from which will be used in the furnishing of the auditorium and gym now being constructed as an addition to the Gregg Twp. Vocational School plant, were approved by the Secretary of Internal Affairs, Thomas Logue.

Norman Rossman was named janitor for the Vocational school building for the next school term. At the letting of the bid, Mr. Rossman appeared the most advantageous to the members of the board.

Underwent Mastoid Operation.

William Heckman, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. A. Heckman, returned from the Sunbury hospital where he underwent a mastoid operation.

Visitors to the Bright Bitner home during the recent past included Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnson and two children, Mr. and Mrs. James McDonald and Verne McDonald, sister of Mr. McDonald, all of Philadelphia; Mrs. Blanche Wert, and daughter, Emma, and Clark Wilkinson, of Akron, O.

Mured Foot in Cast—William Zettle, a PWA worker, had his left foot placed in a plaster paris cast which he will be obliged to wear for eight or ten weeks. The injury was inflicted at the Vocational school project, when the young man fell through a floor and broke a bone in the heel. William is a son of Roland Zettle, of near Penn Hall.

Miss Mabel Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Johnson, is at her home again after visiting with Mrs. Park Stover, a cousin, near Millheim.

Mrs. David Wachstetter and daughters, Betty and Lucille, of Bethlehem, are visiting at the J.C. Lee home. Other visitors at the Lee home were their son, Eugene Lee, Mrs. Lee and their young son, of State College.

Miss Helen Zettle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Zettle, has accepted a position at Laurelton State Village and assumed duties there beginning of this week. Miss Zettle is a graduate of Gregg Twp. Vocational.

Stork Visits Local and Phila. Homes

The stork visited two homes, one in Spring Mills and another in Philadelphia in which regular readers of this column have an interest. A daughter was born July 21st to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Mark, the mother being the former Isabelle Swabik and likewise a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. James McDonald, Philadelphia, the mother being the former Geraldine Bitner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bright Bitner. The latter young lady has been named Sandra Marie.

Dan Bitner and son, Jacob and the latter's wife and two children, of Nebraska, are among friends in the valley, having been guests of the former's brother, Joseph, and sister, Mrs. Susan Meyer, and other relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Bitner and children went on to Conn., where Mrs. Bitner has relatives, but will return later to join the elder Mr. Bitner. Another of the Bitner brothers, R. Ursinus, of Avis, was here on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Burns and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Stafford, of Ashland, Ohio, visited at the Bright Bitner home.

Mrs. Rilla Davis, of Pittsburgh, has been a guest of her cousin, Mrs. Vera Myers.

Gerald M. Johnson, son of Miles Johnson, is assisting E. T. Jamison, insurance agent, in writing insurance policies and is doing other clerical work.

Sargeant Champion Killed While On Duty.—Mr. and Mrs. Homer Fetterolf recently attended the funeral of their nephew, Sargeant Joe B. Champion, who was killed while on duty and was buried at Paoli, the former home of his wife. Sargeant Champion, in charge of the Butler detail, and a fellow State Highway Patrolman, attempted to stop a speeder, when the two-car motorcycle was struck from the rear by the speeding automobile, resulting in the death of one of them. He was aged about 35 years and served in the Fifth Marine Corps during the World War, and was given a full Military funeral, which was attended by six or seven hundred patrolmen.

On returning home from the funeral Mr. and Mrs. Fetterolf brought with them Mrs. Annette Champion, widow of the deceased sargeant, and is their guest at this time. Other recent guests at the same home were Guy R. Savidge, and Winfield Estey, both of East Rochester, N. Y.

While in Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. Fetterolf visited Mrs. Anna Savidge, sister of Mr. Fetterolf, who is a hospital patient.

Mrs. Sara Erdley, Mrs. Mellie Herman and daughter Helen, of Lewisburg, were guests for a week of H. F. Erdley, a son of the former.

E. T. Jamison spent a few days last week at the Centre County hospital undergoing observation. He was sent home with but little encouragement, but when seen on the writer's Monday visit to Spring Mills, he was as chipper as ever. We hope to see the former Squire overcome his present ailment's regardless of professional predictions.

The Past Templars picnic held last Thursday at Ravensburg park, on the road between Carroll and Rauchtown, was well attended. Both dinner and supper were served. Those present from Spring Mills were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Cornman, Mrs. Annie Smith, Mrs. Roy Seanson and son Rex.

Twenty or more from Spring Mills attended the Lutheran charge picnic on Grange Park last Thursday.

Baseball Schedule.—Pine Grove Mills at Spring Mills on Thursday; Spring Mills at Centre Hall on Saturday. In the game between Spring Mills and Pine Grove Mills played last week, Spring Mills were the victors.

Miss Margaret Grenoble, daughter of Mrs. Sylvia Grenoble, has finally selected Susquehanna University, Selinsgrove, as the college in which she will further pursue studies in music. Miss Margaret was the Valedictorian, last June, at the commencement of the '36 class, indicating she is a young person of more than average ability. The University will open the second week in September.

The festival held Saturday night by the baseball club was well attended. The gross receipts were around $225.

H. F. Erdley and niece, Mrs. Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Cornman and Mrs. Annie Smith recently spent a day with Mr. and Mrs. David Ream, of Harrisburg, who are camping along Penna Creek some distance south of Millheim.

Robert McCool Taken to Mont Alto.—On Tuesday, Robert McCool became a patient in Mont Alto, Franklin county, sanitarium. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Meyer. He is aged about 25. Mrs. McCool expects to find employment.

Mrs. Samuel Musser, of near here, who had been in delicate health for several years, is not showing any improvement at this time.

B. M. Stover with Frank Armagast and family as motor guests, passed through here on Sunday on their way to the From reunion on Grange Park.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Grace Reformed church will supper on Nittany Mt. Sunday, 26th. The families of the members are invited as guests.

Fred Vonada, Sumner Vonada and George Breen and their respective families visited Po Paddy park on Sunday.

The foundation for the new dwelling on Long street, to be erected by Ardel Myers was begun a few days ago by Gerald Johnson and Allison Musser.

Mrs. Grover Beaver and Frank Bailey, of Youngstown, O., are visiting their mother, Mrs. Amanda Bailey, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Houser.

Mrs. Carrie McClellan Valentine visited with Mr. and Mrs. G. C. King and later went on to her daughter, Mrs. George Fetterolf, of near Centre Hall. From there she returned to her home at Hartleton, Mrs. Lettie Goodhart Williams, of Barnes Corner, N. Y. was also a recent guest at King home.

Corman Store Property Sold.—The Corman stand, long occupied by Olie Corman and later by Mr. Barger, was recently sold to Calvin Ziegler, now living at Loganton. It is predicted Mr. Ziegler will remodel the interior for living purposes, and open a grocery in the store room. He is a former resident of Spring Mills and has a large acquaintance throughout the valley.

Dolores Conde returned on Wednesday from a two weeks' visit with Anna Mary Drumm, in Middleburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Godshall recently motored to Cornell University, Ithica, N. Y., on business and pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Martin and Mrs. James Hester, of Lewisburg, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Condo.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Bressler entertained their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bressler, at a Sunday dinner.

A deep-sea fishing party comprised of B. G. Myers, Joseph Swabik, Chas. Dress, Lester Condo and Alfred Crater had reasonably good success in making catches.

Visitors at the home of Mrs. Paul Noh were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Miller and daughter, Cordelia, of Jennette; Mrs. Eary Peacock and daughter Delores, Phillipsburg, and Mrs. W. F. Noll, Linden Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Siegal and Miss Catharine Siegal, of Fairfield, Conn., are at the parental home.

Joseph Bitner and Mrs. Paul Swabik spent Tuesday with Mrs. Susan Meyer, where Dan Bitner, a brother, of Nebraska, is a guest.

Tusseyville. Mrs. George Trevorow and children, of Phillipsburg, are spending some time at the J. B. Wert home.

Mrs. Lester Brouse and children, and Mrs. Phillips, of Boalsburg, spent Wednesday at the Rocky home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCormick and son visited on Sunday at the A. L. Slaterbeck home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Ramer, of State College, spent Sunday at the former's home.

Mrs. Wm. Rokey and daughters, of Altoona, are spending the week with Mrs. Jennie Rokey.

Miss Anna Fortney has gone to Potters Mills where she will spend some time with Miss Lizzie Slack.

Miss Melissa Holderman is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Fred Garrett, at State College.

TRANSFERS OF REAL ESTATE. Bertha Houser, et ux. to Kenneth Mark, of Millheim, tract in Millheim; $1,825.

Archie S. King to Howard W. Hauck, of Aronsburg, tract in Penn township; $150.

Annie M. Guiswite to Flet'a Orndorf, of Woodward, tract in Haines township; $50.

WATER NOTICE. Residents are requested not to use water for sprinkling purposes or for other than necessary purposes.—The Borough Council.

KLINFELTER—HARTLEY. The marriage of Alvin Eugene Klinfelter and Miss Violetta Rhoda Hartley, both of Centre Hall, was consummated Saturday evening at the Methodist parsonage, Milesburg, Rev. M. C. Piper performing the ceremony.

The young couple were accompanied by the bride's brother, Lawrence Hartley and wife, only recently married. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hartley and the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Klinfelter. No plans for the future have been announced.

Boalsburg. Rev. H. L. Wink spent a short time last week with his wife and children who are visiting friends in Gettysburg.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hazel and daughters Jane and Mrs. Margaret Faxon, drove to Slingerland, N. Y., on Thursday to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Maxwell.

Misses Virginia Hess and Nannie Belle Stuart are spending some time at the Paul Coxy home in Greensburg.

Mrs. George Homan and daughters have returned home from a visit of several weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Raymond in Wilkingsburg.

The Stuart home near the diamond has been treated to a coat of ivory and green paint. Mrs. Laura Struble is having her residence on Academy street painted white.

The concert by the Loysville Orphans' Home band on Wednesday evening was enjoyed by a large and attentive audience. The band received $50.00 and the Live-wire S. S. class realized about $125.00 from the festival.

Miss June Orr of Washington, D. C., is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Swank, and Dr. P. L. Swank.

Mrs. M. A. Clark has been named on a committee for the Pennsylvania Folk Festival to be held at Bucknell University at Lewisburg, July 30 to August 2.

The Troopers sent to Boalsburg to dismantle Boal Camp spent a night of hilarity, visiting the beer shops and other places of interest.

Mrs. Pearl Patterson and Misses Mary Helen and Catherine Tussey enjoyed a week-end visit among friends in Philadelphia.

After growing tomatoes in Union county for the Heinz company very Advertisement for Clover Farm Store, Centre Hall, Pa. Specials include Clover Farm Salad Dressing, Macaroni, Spaghetti, Sandwich Spread, Light or Dark Mustard, Peanut Butter, and Salad Dressing or Sandwich Spread.

Advertisement for Full Day's Program of the Clover Farm Picnic at Blands' Park—Thurs., Aug 6. Includes fresh meats and quality food products.

Advertisement for Insurance and Real Estate by C. D. Bartholomew, Centre Hall, Pa. Services include life, fire, and accident insurance.

Advertisement for the Mifflin County Fair in Lewistown, Pa. Features include 75,000 invited for Kiddie's Day, bicycle races, stage shows, and auto races.

Large advertisement for NIEMAN'S JULY CLEARANCE SALE. Text includes 'CONTINUED FOR ONE MORE WEEK' and 'Where Your Dollars Go the Farthest'. Located at MILLHEIM, PA.

NOTICE OF TERMINATION OF SHAREHOLDERS' LIABILITY. Section 394 of the Banking Act of 1935, which amended Section 22 of the Banking Act of 1935, provides that the additional liability imposed upon shareholders in national banking associations by the provisions of Section 5151, U. S. Revised Statutes, as amended, and Section 23 of the Federal Reserve Act, as amended, shall cease on July 1, 1937, with respect to all shares issued by any association which shall be transacting the business of banking on July 1, 1937.

Special Notice. The First National Bank, Centre Hall, Pa. Pursuant to the provisions of Section 394 of the Banking Act of 1935, notice is hereby given by The First National Bank of Centre Hall, in the Borough of Centre Hall, State of Pennsylvania, that the liability imposed upon the holders of shares of its common stock by the provisions of Section 5151, U. S. Revised Statutes, as amended, and Section 23 of the Federal Reserve Act, as amended, shall cease on July 1, 1937.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE. In the Estate of ANNIE E. HOMAN, late of Centre Hall Borough, deceased. Letters testamentary on the above estate

Advertisement for 'Folks in the Next County are as near as Next Door by TELEPHONE'. Call 30 Miles for 25 cents. 5-minute connection. THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Advertisement for MUNICIPAL Theatre, MILLHEIM Shows 7:30 & 9:30. This week featuring 'BOULDER DAM' and 'Connecticut Yankee'.

Advertisement for SNOOK'S One-Stop Food Store. All-Week SPECIALS including Puffed Wheat, Camay Soap, Oxydol, Jar Tops, Jar Gums, Parawax, Root Beer Extract, Apple Butter, Round Steak, Beef Liver, Ring Bologna, Minced Ham, Weiners, Salmon, Apricots, Flour, Brooms, Spearmint Leaves, Peanut Butter, Pineapple, Pork Chops, Veal Chops, and Hamburg.

Advertisement for THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK, CENTRE HALL, PA. Features include Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation membership and a 5-minute telephone connection.

Advertisement for Planing Mill Work. LUMBER, ROOFING, Nails, All Kinds Building Material. Call at Garrett's Planing Mill, Rebersburg, Pa.

Advertisement for Warren A. Homan, Attorney, Centre Hall, Pa. Having been duly granted the undersigned all persons knowing themselves indebted to the estate are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the same to present them duly authenticated for settlement.