LOCALS.

Mrs. Thomas Alters and grandson, of Williamsport, are visiting with the former's sister, Mrs. Samuel Gross, and family.

Mrs. Jerry Confer is a guest at the C. E. Bradford home. She is a sister of the late James Smetzer and lives in Milroy.

Guests on Sunday at the John DeLaney home included Mr. and Mrs. Milton Gussalus and sons, and Mr. and Mrs. Thall Beardsley, Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Baubridge, of Pittsburgh are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ritter, uncle and aunt of Mrs. Baubridge, who is a daughter of the late Mrs. Pearl Brown.

Mrs. Della Reiber was suddenly stricken at her home on Monday, and was at once removed to a private hospital in Jersey Shore, where her daughter, Miss Mary, is a nurse.

United Lemke-Townsend Trail Blazers—Congressman Theodore L. Moritz, William H. Weir, Jr., and William H. Tucker will appear in the auditorium on Grange Park, Monday evening, August 3rd, at 8:00 o'clock sharp. Problems of government will be discussed. Admission free. The public is invited.

Mrs. Bertha Lette and Mrs. M. L. Winn and the latter's son, Joseph Winn, on a return trip from the Pacific coast covering a period of six weeks, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Grove at the Mrs. Mary Neff home. The ladies are now residents of Milton, Del., and were classmates at Penn State of Mrs. Grove.

Miss Marion Smith, a graduate of Jefferson hospital school for nurses, and now in charge of the nursery, has been granted a two weeks' vacation, beginning August 15, which will be spent at her home in Centre Hall. Mrs. Margaret Strohm and daughter, Mrs. Lola Person, are at the Strohm home in town at present.

James Farner, while assisting James Reeder, in Georges Valley, to haul grain, fell from a loaded wagon injuring but not breaking the shoulder blade. An X-ray was taken of the injured member at the Centre County hospital. The accident happened Friday afternoon. Mr. Farner is able to be about at this time.

The death of George B. Crawford, an uncle of Mrs. W. A. Odenkirk, interfered with an anticipated trip to Philadelphia by her today (Thursday). The attraction was a concert by a chorus of three hundred voices—students in the musical department of the University of Pa. One of the members of the chorus is Miss Sarah Odenkirk.

The first roasting ears picked from field corn reported to this office this season was snapped from a field on Honeyshade farm, tenanted by J. C. Brooks, Corn, by the way through-out Penns Valley, is far advanced for the latter part of July. And oats! It is remarkable to see almost the entire crop out and some of it housed before the end of this month.

Miss Agnes Delaney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Delaney, of Old Fort, underwent a tonsilectomy at the Centre County hospital, on Sunday.

Miss Margaret Delaney is a guest during this week of Miss Mary Hartman, in Philadelphia, expecting to return home by train to Lewistown, on Sunday. She accompanied Miss Hartman and brother, Ammon Hartman, to their city home on Sunday, traveling by motor. The young ladies both attended the summer sessions at Lock Haven State Teachers College where their acquaintance was formed.

VICTORY OVER REBERSBURG, 7-1.

By the one-sided score of 7 to 1, Centre Hall came off victorious in a diamond tilt with Rebersburg on the latter's grounds, last Thursday evening. Manager Durst again pitched a mastery game, holding the enemy to three singles, two of which came in the first inning to score Rebersburg's only run. The locals nicked Wert for 7 hits—3-baggers by Durst and Breon doing damage. Crawford had a brace of singles. The box score:

SOUTH MILLS SHUTOUT, 7-0.

Southpaw Roy Jamison toyed with the Spring Mills batters, on Saturday, allowed only 3 hits, and is credited with a 7-0 shutout for his good work. Centre Hall collected only 7 hits off "Bill" Snyder and Reider, but hits came at opportune times. Knarr was the only local player to have more than one hit; one of his cracks was good for three bases.
The victory put Centre Hall in first place in the league standing.

BEE KEEPERS' PICNIC.

The Centre county bee keepers will hold their annual picnic at White Pine Bee Farms, Rockton, Clearfield county, Thursday, August 6. It is planned to leave Bellefonte post office at 9:00 a. m.

The 16th annual reunion of the Von Nelda clan will be held at Hairy John's park, east of Woodward, on Saturday, August 8. In case of rain, Woodward Cave pavilion will be used.
