

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Miss Hazel Smith is employed at Green Gables, Lewistown at the present time.

Vinton McClellan went to Washington, D. C. beginning of the week, in search of employment.

John C. Bailey, of Philadelphia, is the guest of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kerlin.

Miss Lorraine Brungart, a nurse in training at the State hospital, Danville, is at her home in Centre Hall for a short rest.

Rev. W. K. Hosterman is attending Bible Conference at Central Oak Heights this week while Mrs. Hosterman is visiting with relatives at Anronsburg and Millheim.

For the fire company festival, Saturday of this week, "Bud" Cordon has arranged to have a gas stove, using Parafax gas, used in preparing the wieners, Mr. Cordon is agent for the sale of Parafax.

The Bartholomew entertained a bridge party Friday afternoon, providing for eight tables. The party was greatly enjoyed by the players. The refreshments served were commented on for their elegance.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ebbil of Shamokin, and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ross and daughter Jane, of Hershey, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Moore on Sunday, while Miss Jane expects to spend a week at their home.

Recent guests of the T. L. Moore home were Prof. Harold Reber, of Camden, N. J., and his mother and brother, of Shippensburg; also, Rev. and Mrs. J. Frederic Moore and two little sons, Ronald and Kenneth, of Selingsgrove.

Any farmers in the county who have neglected to file a work sheet to participate in the 1936 Agricultural Conservation program prior to July 31 can do so by calling at the County Agricultural Conservation office at Temple Court, Bellefonte, on or before August 15.

Personal from the Millburg Telegraph: Mrs. John H. Neff, of Tusseyville, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Whitely, Miss Minerva Neff, who had spent the past four weeks in the Whitley home, returned to her home in Tusseyville on Sunday.

Miriam Brooks, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brooks, on Friday boarded the Greyhound bus for Pittsburgh, where she became a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Irwin, her uncle and aunt, in Wilkinstown. The Irwins, accompanied by their niece, will spend a week at Conneaut Lake.

Mrs. Helen Brown, formerly Helen Decker, who experienced a long period of hospital attention, has been able to take care of her home in Bellefonte during the past few weeks. Mrs. Brown is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Decker, of near Centre Hall.

Make no engagement for Saturday evening except to attend the festival on the Centre Hall high school grounds sponsored by the Volunteer Fire company. There will be ample amusement for young couples, and also for those of more mature years. The Aaronburg band, with Prof. Barages as leader, will furnish music for the occasion.

During last week as well as this week, there has been much activity at the local school plant enlargement. Mechanics of all kinds have been on hand. Carpenters, bricklayers, furnace seters, ventilator installers, electricians, painters, plumbers, roofers, day laborers, were all represented, and hustling through their particular class of work.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bradford recently spent a week with Mr. and Mrs. John E. Smith, North Bradford, uncle and aunt of Mrs. Bradford. During their stay there numerous points of interest were visited, notably the Heinz 57-Variety plant, whose method of entertaining guests is unusual. The ball park at Pittsburgh was especially attractive to Jack, who has had a good ball record at bat and in the field since a youth of early teens.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Thompson, on Sunday, celebrated their twentieth wedding anniversary in a quiet way at their home in Centre Hall. The Thompson family consists of a full dozen, the ten children all being at home. They came here where Mr. Thompson is manager of the Snook grocery, about ten days ago, from Lewistown, Pa., where they were originally from Huntingdon county. Mrs. Thompson was formerly Miss Ella Cox, of Ordsionia.

Miss Amanda Sheeler, of Morrisstown, N. J., a guest for a week of Mrs. F. P. Geary, on returning home on Sunday was accompanied by Mrs. T. A. Hosterman and Miss Doris Moltz, as far as Philadelphia where the latter ladies remained for a few days and then went on to Atlantic City, and are due at their respective homes by the end of this week. Miss Sheeler, a classmate at University of Pennsylvania hospital, Philadelphia, of Mrs. Geary, is head of the Visiting Nurses' Association in New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. McCormick, on their way to Philadelphia, were accompanied by Mrs. Laura McCormick and Miss Caroline McCluskey as far as Phoenixville, where they became guests of Mrs. Marjory (Bible) Windolf. On the return Mr. and Mrs. McCormick brought home with them their daughter, Miss Laurabell, who had finished a six weeks' practice in dietitian work at the Friends Hospital, at Frankford. The institution is a private one and more or less exclusive. Miss Laurabell considers herself fortunate in having had training in such a completely equipped hospital.

Rebersburg.
