

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Miss Marie Andrews and brother Max Andrews, of Tyrone, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Andrews, and Miss Martha Turner, of West Virginia, are guests at the Andrews home at Earlstown.

In the letting for transportation of the township school pupils by the Potter school board, the Earlstown route is added this week. This is due to the resignation, on Monday, of the contractor.

The Ninth District Sabbath School association will hold its annual picnic Thursday, August 20, on Hecla Park. The district covers State College, College and Harris townships, and adjacent territory to the west.

Mrs. Lester McConahy, accompanied by her son and daughter, Eugene and Gail, are guests of Miss Carrielle Emerick. Mrs. McConahy is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Domes Emerick, and like her parents, lives in Altoona.

The Friendship Bible class in the Reformed Sunday school has set this (Thursday) afternoon to meet at the Erdley cabin, at the foot of Penns View, along Penns Creek. The ladies have provided that their husbands may join them in the covered dish luncheon in the evening.

Four students in aviation under Sherman Lutz, at the Oak Hill air field, successfully passed the federal government test. The young men are Robert Fisher, State College, Ray Ishler, Rodney Hirsch and Emerson Connor, Waynesburg. They qualified to pilot airplanes with non-paying passengers.

Rev. and Mrs. L. A. Wagner and children will spend their vacation at the home of Rev. Wagner's father, E. C. Wagner, Danville, R. D. 6, and Mrs. Wagner's sister, Mrs. R. H. Hockenbrought, at Elysburg, and among other relatives and friends. They will be on vacation two weeks.

R. M. Smith, Daniel Daup, Sr., Mrs. Lola Person and mother, Mrs. Margaret Strohm, on Sunday, much enjoyed a motor trip to Spruce Creek, Obitonia, Fort Loudon, Chambersburg, reaching Carlisle for supper. The party returned home by way of New Bloomfield and Lewistown.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Steinger and daughter, Miss Betty, called on Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Smith, on Tuesday, on their way to Rebersburg where the daughter will visit relatives to recuperate her health following a recent appendicitis operation. Mr. Steinger holds a position in a business office in Harrisburg.

The second night of the "Elks Charity Fair" will be held next Wednesday night, 12th inst., to the rear of their home. A stage was erected for the first night's performance, and this will again be used. Booths, refreshments, amusements, and entertainment will be assured the patrons. There will be no admission charge.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Rely and son, Jack, of Pittsburgh, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Potter. Mr. Rely is employed in the drafting department of the United Engineering Company, Pittsburgh. He and Mr. Potter became friends prior to their going to the State of Washington, some years ago.

Guests of Miss Miriam Moore during the week were Prof. John Neill and sister, Miss Mary Neill, of Lewistown, and Miss Mae Burkholder, of Ephrata. Mr. Neill is principal of the grade schools in Lewistown while his sister is a teacher in the Hershey schools. Miss Burkholder is one of the high school teachers in Quakertown.

Harry Frederick Burkholder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burkholder, of Sewickley, is at the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Burkholder. Other guests at the same home on Sunday were their daughter, Mrs. Robert Hess, and son, Neal Burk. Mr. Hess and the latter's employer, Robert Reitz, of Winfield.

Mrs. Kenneth Statter and six-year-old daughter, Joan, of Haverstraw, N. Y., are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Hartley, their grandparents, and will remain for a month. Mrs. Statter was the former Catharine Hartley, who for much of the time during her childhood and girlhood, was a member of the Hartley family here. She is a cousin of Misses Ruth and Dorothy Hartley, at the Hartley home.

Eugene Weaver, 17, Florence, 14, and Daniel, 3, of Centre Hall, were treated at the Mercy hospital, Altoona, on Sunday, 26th, for lacerations and bruises sustained when the car operated by their brother, Wm. Weaver, collided with a bee truck in Altoona, being driven by Charles Pagliana. Other occupants in the car were Mr. and Mrs. Grover Weaver. The family car was driven to Altoona to afford the Weaver family a visit with relatives.

W. G. Skiles and brother, Marvin, of Spring Mills, were both injured when the motorcycle they were riding plunged into the rear of a car driven by Boyd A. Sampsell, of Zion, as the latter was turning off Route 220 into a lane leading to his home. The Skiles brothers were treated at the Centre County hospital. The operator sustained a broken nose, lacerations and several teeth broken out. The brothers' injuries were less severe, consisting of lacerations on the head.

Alber Hessick, accompanied by his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Garner, and two grandchildren, Miss Evelyn Hessick and James Smith, all of Green Springs, O., were guests of Mrs. Clement Luse and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Luse, on Tuesday. While not related, the families have been friends for some time. Mr. Hessick and Mr. Garner are well-to-do farmers and are touring Central Pa. The former is 74 years of age, and at the age of twelve years went with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hessick, from near Colyer, to the vicinity they now live in, in Ohio.

From June 1st, 1935, to May 31, 1936, Centre county trappers drew from the State treasury as bounties on noxious animals the sum of $2,955.00, on two wildcats, 401 gray foxes, 121 weasels and 16 goshawks. During the fifteen days open season for beaver, in March, Centre county trappers captured 67 of the furry tribe. The pelt of a beaver brings an average of $10.00, which added the above bounties, makes $3,625.00, and this does not include the price received for the fox and weasel pelts, as well as the pelts of red foxes killed on which there is no bounty. Hence the total income to trappers would probably be between five and six thousand dollars.

Christian Endeavor Picnic.
The East Branch of Christian Endeavor will hold a picnic at the Woodward Cave on August 11. A good time is planned for every minute for everyone attending. Basket lunch at noon and in the evening.

electric ranges

JUST THE right speed THE FOODS REQUIRE CHANGE to the Electric Range if you want true speed and new "short cuts" in cooking!

With an Electric Range, little or no water is used, so that steaming begins almost at once. From the start of the cooking to the finish an Electric Range takes less time—in baking beans, for instance, it actually saves several hours.

Busy housewives prefer this superior, automatic cooking method. Like them, you won't go back to old-style methods, once you really know how an electric range cuts down your kitchen hours!

COOK FAST without wasting time

JANET, YOUR ELECTRIC OVEN ISN'T HOT ENOUGH FOR THAT CAKE YET, IS IT?
INDEED YES! I CAN PRE-HEAT THE OVEN OF MY NEW ELECTRIC RANGE FASTER THAN ANY OVEN I HAVE EVER USED.
