PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT TO VISIT PENNSYLVANIA THURS.

President Roosevelt completed plans for a three-day inspection swing through the Pennsylvania and New York areas which were swept by floods last spring, and scheduled two speeches for the week.

A formal address will be delivered at 8 p. m. Friday, from Chautauqua, N. Y., and will deal with foreign affairs. It will be broadcast.

President Roosevelt will speak informally at noon Friday when he will be the honor guest at a luncheon at the Great Lakes Exposition in Cleveland.

The Johnstown flood area will be inspected on Thursday afternoon. Scranton and Wilkesbarre will also be looked over.

FIRE CAUSES $8000 DAMAGE TO P. S. C. LABORATORY

Fire of an undetermined origin broke out in soil research laboratories in the agriculture administration building at Penn State College at 1:30 o'clock Monday morning, completely gutting one room and destroying equipment valued at $5000. Total cost of the blaze will probably reach $8,000, including 10,000 agriculture extension circulars value at $300 which were ruined by water.

An investigation leads some of the officials to believe that the fire's origin was due to chemicals spontaneously igniting to start the blaze.

Deaths

DR. W. E. FISCHER.

Dr. W. E. Fischer, a former beloved pastor of the local Lutheran church, died on Monday, close to noon, at his home in Shamokin, following two paralytic strokes, one on Friday and another on Saturday, lapsing into a coma following the second. Funeral services were held at Shamokin on Wednesday, and on Thursday the body was conveyed to Berlin, near his birthplace, and laid by the side of his wife.

The two daughters of Dr. Fischer, Mrs. Marian Keene and Mrs. Charles E. Beury, both of Philadelphia, had been with him for a week, returning home Friday evening. They had scarcely reached their destination when they received a message informing them of the fate of their father. They at once returned to Shamokin.

Dr. Fischer came to Centre Hall in September, 1875, and assumed the pastorate of the Penna Valley Lutheran charge Nov. 14, 1875. He was pastor during the building of both the second and third Lutheran churches in Centre Hall. His pastorate closed here September 9, 1893, at which time he went to Shamokin and almost to the time of his death served as pastor of Trinity Lutheran church, a few months ago having been made pastor emeritus.

Dr. Fischer was long one of the best-known ministers in the Synod to which he belonged, and was frequently named to represent it on higher official bodies. He was a forceful speaker in the pulpit, and capable of taking his place in any assignment, religious or social.

He had attained his 85th year. During the last days of his life he frequently spoke of his pastorate here, and especially of the enjoyable days in mid-June, on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of the present Lutheran church, at which he was the central figure.

Rev. Fischer was married at Berlin in 1877 to Miss Judith Ann Philson and together they occupied the Lutheran parsonage in Shamokin until the death of Mrs. Fischer in 1926.

Surviving Dr. Fischer are two daughters, Mrs. Ella Beury, wife of Dr. Charles E. Beury, president of Temple University, Philadelphia, and Mrs. Marion Keene, in charge of the student house at the same institution. Also, six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. An only son, William B. Fischer, preceded his parents in death a number of years ago.

GILLILAND.—Mrs. Nannie Campbell Gilliland died at her home in Oak Hall, Thursday night at 10:30 at the age of 74 years, 3 months and 18 days.

Mrs. Gilliland was the daughter of Washington and Eliza Mitchell Campbell, both of whom are now deceased, and was born at Linden Hall April 15, 1862. She received her education in the Boalsburg Academy and Birmingham Seminary and was a teacher in the public schools of the county for several years before her marriage, December 25, 1894, to James Gilliland, who succumbed in 1912. She was a member of the Spring Creek Presbyterian church of Lemont.

The deceased is survived by six children, David, James, John, Eliza and Alice, all of Oak Hall, and Mrs. Sara Alexanders, of Unionville. One sister, Mrs. Sarah Stine, of Allentown also survives.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from her late home, in charge of Rev. J. Max Kirkpatrick of Centre Hall. Burial was made in the Branch cemetery.

Michael D. Kelley, born in Snow Shoe, died in Altoona Monday night. He was a well-known coal operator, a member of the firm of Kelley Brothers. He was president of the Central Coke and Coal Company.

ANOTHER EASY VICTORY OVER P. G. MILLS, 9-3

Pine Grove Mills again fell before the superior playing of Centre Hall, in Saturday's game at P. G. Mills. The one-sided score of 9 to 3 was due largely to misplays on the part of the home team, five errors being responsible in large measure for their downfall.

Lynn Breen, who has been hitting 'em hard and often all summer, had a perfect day at bat, with three hits, Jamison, on the mound for Centre Hall, was found for eight hits, which however were widely scattered, while Centre Hall's seven bingles off Neidigh and Kline came at opportune moments.

VICTORY OVER GAP, 8-4.

In a postponed game played at Pleasant Gap, Tuesday evening, Centre Hall defeated their worthy rivals 8 to 4. Best allowed eight hits, while Centre Hall collected 9 off Spicher and Lee. Rimmer and Crawford, for the locals, had extra-base drives, each collecting a double.

A PWA project in State College calling for paving on Pugh street and alley improvements at an expenditure of $54,546, has been favorably passed on. The national government will contribute $24,545 toward the cost of the project.

Judge Fleming ruled that beverage license fees must be paid to the county treasurer and by him, to the proper township agencies. The ruling applies only to the manner of handling the funds and makes no other changes.
