

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Frank Wion, of Bellefonte, is at the home of his sister, Mrs. Richard Brooks, since Monday.

Mrs. Millie Robeson, of Sinking Valley, Blair county, spent a few days the past week with her niece, Miss Cora Homan.

Miss Betty Seanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Seanson, of town, underwent a tonsilectomy in Dr. Allis' private hospital, Lewistown, Tuesday of last week. She is now at her home, practically recovered from the ordeal.

Misses Hazel Smith, Dorothy Blazer and the former's brother, Philip Smith, all of near Centre Hall, are employed at Green Gables, Lewistown. Phil is a bell-hop and makes a fine appearance in the gaudy costume of the stylish hostess.

Miss Alice Burkholder is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Burkholder, west of town, and expects to remain for about a month. She is a graduate of the Methodist Episcopal hospital, Philadelphia, and since so doing has been active in private nursing.

Donald Rubie, employed in Lewistown since early spring by the Penn Central Light and Power company, is out of employment and is at his home here. He is consulting himself because of the fact that his job lasted three or four times the length of the original agreement.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Durst, the former's mother, Mrs. J. H. Durst, and Mrs. Wm. McClellan, motored to Altoona on Sunday where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stover, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stover and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Meyer. Mrs. Orvis Weaver also accompanied those from here to Altoona.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hamby, of Philadelphia, after visiting for two weeks at the George Seanson home in Centre Hall, returned to their home on Friday. They took with them Rex Seanson, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Seanson, who will visit for a week with the Hambys. Mr. Hamby is a diamond setter in the John Wannamaker store.

Robert Keller, of Ingram, son of the late Peter F. Keller, motored to Centre Hall on Monday for a week's vacation amid the scenes of his youth. He has been extremely busy since the March flood, when the Pittsburgh business district was badly damaged. His work is restoring store-rooms, his specialty being show-case construction, at which he is a master mechanic.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peacock, of Cleveland, Ohio, spent the week-end on their farm at Centre Hill, tenanted by George Hackett. The couple drove here from Warren, this state, where Mr. Peacock was performing a service as a special agent in the tax department of the Erie Railroad company, and returned to that place on Monday morning to begin work for the week.

Mrs. Russell Zacharias spent the past week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hackenbush, Rebersburg. Mr. Zacharias joined her there for the week-end, leaving for their home in Allentown Sunday evening. Other guests at the same place on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Casper and the former's mother, Mrs. Katharine Casper, from Hamburg.

Andrew Zettle, children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, on Sunday, motored to Mifflinburg where they took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stover, and supper at near Hartleton with Mr. and Mrs. Morris Nale. The group in addition to Mr. Zettle included Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Frank, Kenneth Frank, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Zettle and granddaughter, Dorothy Jane. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Frank and son, Junior, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fetterolf and son Drew.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fisher and Rev. and Mrs. E. R. Cornan are at the Nell Ann cottage along a lake near Edinboro, Erie county, where they will be located for two weeks. They have been going to the lakes in Northwest Pennsylvania during the past few years, and find conditions there for a vacation period much to their liking. The cottage they occupy is along the water edge; an electrically operated boat is at their full disposal, good fishing, and every day is market day at their door.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Jacobs and children, Miss Frances, Guy Jr., and Rose Ann, of Seubenville, Ohio, arrived at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. Lizzie Jacobs, on Saturday evening. Sunday evening, Mr. Jacobs boarded the train at Lewistown for the Pacific Coast, where in company with several other business men he will go to the larger cities in California, Oregon and Washington. Mrs. Jacobs and children, on Tuesday, went by motor to Ocean City, N. J., where they will live in a cottage for a month.

A highly enjoyable feature of the O. E. Bailey family's vacation in Centre Hall was an airplane ride at 2500 feet altitude, which was taken from the Oak Hall airport with Sherman Lutz piloting his new Waco plane. Kenneth Bailey, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Bailey, who is an air-minded and reflects it in his numerous model planes he has built, took keen delight in his first air trip which covered a distance of 50 to 75 miles over Central Pennsylvania. Passengers in the plane were W. W. Kerlin, Centre Hall; J. C. Bailey, of Philadelphia; O. E. Bailey and son Kenneth, of Baltimore, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur McClellan, of Lock Haven, next week, expect to become students at Mensch Mill camp for a period of two weeks. Both are graduates of Camp Kenesatake, on Spruce Creek, but desire to continue their studies.

Formal opening of the G. C. Murphy Company's new $100,000 store building, on the former Benner property, West High street, Bellefonte, will take place at 9 o'clock Friday morning. August 14, officials of the company have announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wells are improving their home at Oak Hall with a covering of slate asphalt siding, building a kitchen, porch and garage. The Wells are former residents of near Centre Hall, and recently purchased their property from Clayton Eiters.

Mrs. J. E. Rishel had for week-end tourist guests Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Myles, New Cumberland, W. Va.; Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Smith, of Weirton, W. Va.; Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Long-ware and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy L. Ingraham, of Herminie, this state.

Mrs. James J. Heaney, 52 Ernest Ave., Bloomfield, N. J., and sister, Mrs. John V. Kline of Pleasant Gap, were callers at this office during last week. The ladies were looking up a family tree, headed by forefathers of the late H.W. D. English, Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Amelia King, Centre Hall.

Mrs. Walter Kerlin, of Bellevue, Kentucky, and her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Shuey, of Lemont, were guests at the home of their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Kern, during the forepart of the week. Mrs. Kerlin is the former Anna Kern, of Millheim.

C. H. Kline, of State College, called on the Reporter one day last week. Mr. Kline is an electric engineer and for thirty-one years has been an employee in the plant furnishing light and power for Penn State College. He is in his 78th year, yet able to fill his place every day in the week.

Donald Horner, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Orvis Horner, of Colyer, after being a patient in St. Mary's hospital, Philadelphia for some weeks, was brought to his home last week, showing improvement from a very serious operation for a malignant growth in the head. Dr. J. V. Foster is now looking after the lad.

Rev. Louis V. Lesher, pastor of the Aaronsburg Lutheran charge, with Mrs. Lesher and their daughter, Marlan, left on Monday for Yeagertown to spend several days at the home of Rev. Lesher's father. The minister started on a month's vacation at the beginning of the week and will enjoy much of the time at a mountain camp.

At a hearing before justice of the peace S. Kline Woodring, George T. Carous, of Lewistown, operator of the car which was wrecked near State College on July 28th, resulting in the death of Mrs. Lulu Garman, was held in $2,000 bail on a charge of involuntary manslaughter. Unable to furnish bond he was remanded to the county jail to await trial at the next term of court.

This (Thursday) evening the Young Men's and Young Women's classes in the Evangelical Sunday school will hold a festival on the high school athletic field. The East Centre County Junior Band will be present to furnish the music. Bingo, fish ponds, are attractions, and ice cream, cake, soft drinks, hamburgers and hot dogs will be on sale. A pleasant evening's entertainment is guaranteed.

C. H. HOMAN Successor to H. G. STROHMEIER Centre Hall Marble & Granite Works, Centre Hall

Burgess Hardman P. Harris is now a salaried officer of Bellefonte borough. It appears the change from a non-salaried to a salaried official was not announced to newspaper men who usually attend the council sessions, but the action was discovered in the perusal of the minutes. The salary is the modest sum of $200 per annum. Since becoming a paid Burgess all fines and costs collected by him must be paid into the borough treasury.

When the worries, noise, confusion, high-tension work, or hectic pleasures of your waking hours "get on your nerves," here is a simple time-tested preparation that will bring a feeling of calm and relaxation and allow you to get a good night's sleep. Dr. Miles Nervine quiets your nerves. It is not habit-forming and does not depress the heart. Why take chances with dangerous habit-forming drugs? Why use narcotics that make you dull and depressed?

Millions have found relief, relaxation, sleep, by using Dr. Miles Nervine. Although first used more than fifty years ago, Dr. Miles Nervine is as up to date as today's newspaper. Nothing better for the home treatment of overtaxed nerves has ever been discovered. Your druggist sells Dr. Miles Nervine. We guarantee relief, or your money back, with the first bottle or package.
