Sager-Zettle.—Charles R. Sager, of Bellefonte, and Miss Pauline Zettle, of Penn Hall, were united in marriage in the Little Church 'Round the Corner in Hagerstown, Md., on the last day of July...

A Most Hospitable Home.—One of the most hospitable homes in all this section is that of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Zettle, at Penn Hall, and few homes have more guests on a Sunday afternoon...

Among the callers at the Zettle home on Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. John Gray, of Milton, also their son, John Gray, Jr., and Mrs. Gray and two children, of Danbury, Conn. The elder Mrs. Gray and Mr. Zettle are sister and brother. Both the Mr. Grays are railroad men. The elder has been in the employ of the P. R. R. for fifty-five years, having entered the service at fifteen. When the L. & T. was built to Spring Mills, he was a section man, and finished a ten-year period in 1888, living at Spring Mills. He is now a track foreman, at a bit over 70, and is well able to direct the men under him.

The junior Mr. Gray is assistant supervisor of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, and is now on vacation. Another railroad man at the Zettle home at the same time was Robert Peacock, special agent in the tax department of the Erie Railroad, and Mrs. Peacock, of Cleveland, Ohio.

Three young people from the reformed church, Spring Mills, and one from Centre Hall, are attending the Young People's camp at Mensch Mill, conducted by the Evangelical-Reformed church denomination. The young people from here are Misses Mabel Eungard, Margaret Grenoble, Evelyn Brooks and John Grenoble, and from Centre Hall, Miss Margaret Fogelman. The two weeks' sessions began on Monday.

Mrs. Doris Goodhart, of Copenhagen, N. Y., is at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Zeigler, and later expects to make her home here. It is reported she has taken a contract to operate the Bell exchange at Spring Mills.

Miss Deslie Morris is spending some time at Asbury Park, N. J.

Misses Bernice and Barbara Fetterolf, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Fetterolf, are guests of the Prof. C. M. Waks family at their camp at Hammersley Fork, for a few days' vacation.

Russell Weaver on Friday left for his home in Milwaukee, Wis., after having visited his sister, Mrs. Blaine Bitner, his parents and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Swabb and son Raymond, of Spring Mills, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Petcher and two sons of Bellefonte, motored to Atlantic City, where they took in the sights as well as deep-sea fishing.

Mrs. Bright Bitner returned to her home on Tuesday from Philadelphia, where she visited with her daughter.

Mrs. Mary (Sinkabine) Longbeam and son Benjamin of Berryville, Va., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Meyer. Last week they were at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Braucht in Coalport, and were brought here by them on Sunday. Mrs. Longbeam, Mrs. Braucht and Mrs. Meyer are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Condo expect to attend the picnic at Hecla Park, on Friday, to be held by the workmen at Titan Metal Works plant. The assembly will include the families of the 500 or more employes.

Two Go to Hospital.—E. T. Jamison suffered a rupture close to noon on Monday, and was at once rushed to the Centre County hospital. His condition was pronounced critical.

Mrs. Ardell Myers was taken to the Geisinger hospital, Danville, on Sunday, for observation.

Richard Thomas Beaton Arrives.—The first child born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beaton arrived on Monday of last week. The youth was named Richard Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Corman, on Monday, attended the funeral of Mrs. James Gilliland, at Oak Hill. Mrs. Corman and Miss Eliza, daughter of the deceased, have been close friends since they attended the same business college in Williamsport.

Mrs. Vera Myers is repainting the retail meat market on the exterior. The work is being done by her son, Carl Myers. Two homes in the same section being repainted are those of Ralph Shook and Blaine Bitner. The Shook home is being covered with lead colored paint by Vernon Godshall and Allison Musser. The Bitner home will likely be repainted in its present color, white. Adam Keller is now painting the elaborate new porch just completed.

The Walker sisters will occupy their new quarters in the former post office building beginning of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. King were motor guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Leitzel, who took them to their home at Vira, in Mifflin county. Mr. King especially enjoyed the ride over the Seven Mile, since it was his first sight of the big fill and cut through the mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Corman, Mrs. Annie Smith and their guest, Mrs.

Margaret Overly, on Sunday were evening dinner guests of Dr. G. C. Thomas at the OCC camp in 14-mile narrows.

Miss Anna Mary Drumm was a week-end guest of Miss Dolores Condo. She was taken to her home on Monday by her father, Rev. M. C. Drumm, of Middleburg. She expressed great delight over the trip to Miami, to begin the next day.

A. M. Grove Property Sold.—The A. M. Grove property, located on the Hill, occupied by the widow of A. M. Grove, was sold to Ivan Lingle, a son-in-law of Mrs. Grove, for $2900.

H. H. Stover and wife, of Smulpton, also J. T. McCool and family, were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. John Stover, Spring Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Condo, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Condo, son Richard, Misses Anna Mary Drumm and Dolores Condo motored through mountainous sections on Sunday. Their first stop was at Penns View, then to Po-Paddy Park, Juniata Valley Scout Camp on Garry's road, Petersburg, Greenwood Furnace, and home. At Petersburg Prof. and Mrs. Conley Hayes and their 3-months-old daughter were visited. Prof. Hayes, formerly connected with the Spring Mills Vocational school, is now supervisor of agriculture in the Petersburg Vocational.

4-H Club Activities.—The twenty members of the local 4-H Club held their last meeting at the Vocational school building, last Thursday, with Miss Eleanor Smith, home economics extension worker for Centre county in charge, and were given instruction on how to prepare cucumbers.

Misses Isabel Musser, Dolores Condo and Marie Long were elected delegates to the 4H Club to meet at State College, Wednesday to Saturday, both days included, of this week.

The Club will hold its annual picnic on Tuesday, 25th inst., at the "Kettle," a local point. The members of the club ranging in age from ten to fifteen years include Marie Noll, Lois Zuber, Martha Barger, Lois Shook, Barbara Fetterolf, Jean Watts, Bernice Fetterolf, Leotta Houser, Mary Zettle, Betty Auman, Rosella Walker, Sara Zabler, Ruth Zuber, Dorothy Rossman, Mabel Johnson, Isabelle Musser, Marie Long, Dolores Condo, Marian Long, Gladys Shalner.

Wagner Reunion at Stephen's Park.—The children of John D. and Phoebe Ardery Wagner held a reunion on Saturday at Stephen's Park, Tyrone, which some forty of the descendants attended. Among these were six of the seven living daughters, namely: Mrs. Jennie Isenberg, Mrs. Bell Weaver Altoona; Mrs. Annie Smith, Spring Mills; Mrs. Margaret Overly, Clearfield; Mrs. Martha Richards, Martha Furnace; Mrs. Virgie Adams, Bigler. The eldest sister, 81, Mrs. Mary Goodling, of Woodland, was unable to attend. Mrs. Guy Corman accompanied her mother to the gathering.
