WEST PENN POWER CO. TO HAVE ELECTRICAL EXHIBIT AT ENCAMPMENT & FAIR

Plans are being made by West Penn Power Company to have a most interesting and novel electrical exhibit at the Centre County Grange Encampment, August 29th to Sept. 4th, this year...

Considerable time and effort is being devoted to the creation of this large display, and it is felt that those attending the Fair will enjoy the interesting demonstrations as to how electricity may be used in the home and on the farm today.

"Too many things to do," says the President, consequently a moratorium on political speeches until October. In the meantime the President will devote much of his time to the welfare of farmers and others in the drought-stricken areas in a half-dozen States.

ROWE HOME SOLD.

The Rowe property, at the foot of Nittany Mountain, in the north section of Centre Hall, was sold by the Rowe heirs to Lewis H. Garbrick, who has been engaged in producing and delivering milk to customers in town. Mr. Garbrick, it is understood, expects to erect a cooling and bottling plant on the newly acquired property, as soon as possible. He will make sale of his farm stock and implements of this fall, but will not get possession of the Rowe place until next spring, when it will be vacated by Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Jamison.

ZEBBY-DELANEY.

A young couple from Centre Hall married at Reading, on Monday, 17th inst., by Rev. D. R. Keener, was Henry W. Zerby and Miss Margaret Delaney. They were unattended, and met the minister while on vacation. Before returning home the couple spent several days at Gettysburg, Hershey and Harrisburg.

Both of the contracting parties are favorably known about here, the bride having taught school in Potter township during the past term and was again selected, but recently resigned. Her educational career began in the local schools, graduating from Centre Hall high in 1931. She attended Juniata College for two years and graduated from Lock Haven Teachers College in '35. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Delaney, of near town.

The groom, a son of John W. Zerby, graduated from Gregg Township Vocational school in '26, and since assisted his father in conducting the large homestead farm. He is a young man of sterling qualities.

Mr. and Mrs. Zerby will begin housekeeping on one of the Zerby farms now tenanted by Robert Zerby, an elder brother of the groom, in Gregg township, and begin life on a farm.

The Reporter joins a large circle of friends of the couple in wishing them a most prosperous and happy life.

E. R. DICK TAYLOR ASSUMES DEM. CO. CHAIRMANSHIP

At a meeting of the Centre County executive committee of the Democratic party, held in the court house, on Friday evening, the resignation of County Chairman S. Claude Her was accepted, and E. R. Taylor named to assume the office of chairman until his term as chairman begins, which time is the beginning of 1937.

Other items of business transacted were the appointment of a committee to secure a room in Bellefonte suitable for party headquarters; also, to select a man to act as secretary and contact man.

A committee was also named to draft rules and regulations to conform to the State party rules and State primary laws.

FYE FAMILY OF COLYER, SIGHTSEEING IN MID-WEST

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Fye and children, Thresa, Evelyn, Leona, Marilyn, Curtie, and granddaughter, Joan, write the Reporter from Berrien Springs, Michigan, under date of August 19, giving a brief account of their trip through Ohio, Michigan, Illinois and Wisconsin. The letter follows:

"Just a few lines to tell you of our vacation trip. Our first stop was at Cleveland, Ohio, where we visited the Great Lakes Exposition. Part of the family had a ride in the dirigible. Our next stop was at Berrien Springs, Mich. The family stayed with Clarence Stovers, relatives of Mrs. Fye, formerly of Pennsylvania. We were sightseeing at Benton Harbor, St. Joe, and spent the afternoon at Silver Beach, on Lake Michigan.

"Tomorrow we expect to visit Chicago, Preepoot, and spend a day in Orangeville, Ill. with Mrs. John Clarke, who is an aunt of Mrs. Fye. Our last place we will visit is Madison, Wisconsin. We will then take the southern route to Pennsylvania.

"The drought has hit the places we visited, and the temperature has been very high.

"Of all the states we have gone through, we prefer Pennsylvania to live in.

"THE FYE FAMILY."

LUTHERAN CHURCHES IN ZION & SNYDERTOWN REDEDICATED

The Zion and Snydertown congregations of the Nittany Valley Lutheran parish held re-dedication services on Sunday, Rev. Ira Sasserman, D. D., president of the Synod, assisted in the services.

Both churches have had the ceiling, side-walk floor and wood-work of the auditorium refinished, and have been refurbished with new carpet, new chancel furniture and new pews for the choir and auditorium.

BRITCHER'S AUCTION SALE.

Floyd A. Britcher will hold auction sale at his auction barn, 2 miles north-east of Millifintown, on Wednesday, September 2.

Tex Rickard will have a carload of horses and colts. A load of good dairy cows for sale. E. L. Swartz will have a load of Centre county cows. D. D. Kauffman a truck load of good Bedford county cows. George Swartz a load of very good Juniata county cows. C. M. Smith will be there with a load of good Bedford county cows and heifers. Also a number of local cows, heifers and bulls.

Stanley Webb will be there again with 400 extra good pigs and shoats, averaging from 50 to 125 lbs. These hogs are double treated.

NOTICE

A special representative trained in fitting and measuring for men's suits, will be at Neman's Store, Millheim, all day, Friday and Saturday, August 28 and 29. No charge for measuring or for consultation on fitting problems.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS

HAPPENINGS OF LOCAL INTEREST FROM ALL PARTS

Frank Shutt, who is an extensive farmer, is driving a new Chevrolet sedan.

Ray Gilliland, of State College, holding a political appointment in Harrisburg, visited Mrs. Lizzie Jacobs.

Lester W. Witmer, of Bellefonte, has been appointed a guard at Rockview penitentiary at a salary of $1,620 a year.

R. S. Hagan, proprietor of the Hagan garage, was tied up in bed for four days, and probably should have remained longer.

Skunks with their stingers—we mean stinkers—removed, are now being sold by a Centre county man, who declares you can have a "barrel of fun with them."

Marriage licenses were issued in Clearfield to James S. Hornbeck and Mary Helen Miller, both of state college, and Russell J. Nelson, of Bellefonte, and Esther Ennist, of Potters Mills.

R. M. Smith and daughter Roberta motored to Philadelphia, last Thursday, returning the following day with the former's sister, Miss Jennie Smith, who will remain for a short time while recovering from a slight illness.

Miss Louise Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Meyer, of Bellefonte, and an employee in the executive offices of The Philadelphia Record, left a Philadelphia hospital where she had been undergoing treatment, to convalesce at the home of her parents.

The construction of a chapel for funeral services is under way at the undertaking establishment of Neff & Son, in Millheim. When completed, the room will seat about seventy-five persons and afford a modern setting for the conducting of funeral rites.

Florence Franke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Franke, of Baltimore, is with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kühr, and will remain until after the Grange fair. She came here on completing a visit with relatives in Flemington.

Maynard Barger, the Potter township thresherman, purchased a Case threshing outfit to take the place of the one burned when the Calvin Vonada barn was struck by lightning. He has been operating the machine during the past ten days.

Mrs. Louise Goll and daughter, Charity, of Leona, Beaver county, was a guest of Mrs. Levan Smith, recently. The ladies have been friends since early girlhood days. Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. Nancy Henderson, of State College, is at the Smith-Smith home at this time.

William Miller is making recovery from a gallstone operation in the Centre County hospital. Mr. Miller is from Altoona and is employed in the P. R. R. shops. His wife and daughter are at present with the latter's grandmother, Mrs. Robert Bloom, west of town.

Mr. Shields, an auditor from the PWA, at Washington, D. C., was in Centre Hall for a few days last week checking on disbursements relative to the new high school addition, preparatory to the federal government making another 10 per cent. grant to the local district. There are two per cent grants still owing the district on its total of 45 per cent allowance.

Mr. and Mrs. Gross R. Allison and children, Dorothy Jane and John Runkle, of New Castle, Kentucky, were guests of their aunt, Miss Laura Rankle, at the Centre Hall hotel. Mr. Allison, a son of the late Dr. J. R. G. Allison, is interested in the manufacture of road material from Kentucky asphalt, a rock formation, which is becoming a popular product for top-surfacing highways.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Irwin, of Greensburg, are at present guests at the Packier-Brooks home, in town, and on coming here brought with them Miriam Brooks, who had been entertained by them for a month or more. Mr. Irwin is employed in the printing department, having held an important position there for a number of years. Mrs. Irwin is a daughter of Prof. L. O. Packier.

Mrs. O. A. Jamison and sons Rufus and Grey, of Millifintown, were Sunday dinner guests of the former's son, R. S. Jamison, and Mrs. Jamison. While at the family dinner table, the younger Mrs. Jamison received a telephone message summoning her to Berwick, where her uncle, Thomas Buck, was in a most precarious condition in the Berwick hospital. Although she started almost immediately, death overtook him a short time prior to her arrival.

Wilbur Decker, a Penn township road supervisor, recently was surprised when Sheriff Keeler read to him a summons sworn to by an Allegheny county man, charged with having owned a Chevrolet truck, operated by Daniel Snyder, which truck did him injuries sustained by the aggrieved to represent $50,000. Mr. Decker was asked to appear before the Allegheny county in September, but the supervisor is slightly alarmed since he does not own a Chevrolet truck and the one he does own has not been anywhere except in three townships in lower Penns Valley.
