Shipping Heavy Timbers—Thomas J. Decker, at least for the present, is reviving the shipping of lumber from this section. After the L. & T. was built, lumber, ties and props were the chief items shipped out over it. During the past years there were no shipments of this character until recently. On Monday some choice sawed sticks of oak, 12x12 inches, 28 feet long, were hauled to the local station to make up a part of the first of four cars of like lumber to be shipped to some point for use by the P. R. R. The sticks had all been previously inspected. A car load of paper wood and one of railroad ties were also sent out recently.

Mr. Decker is cutting timber on a large tract located near Woodward Cave.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lee and daughter, Miss Betty Lee, spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Phillip C. Bradford. Of course, the chief topic discussed by the two veteran railroad station masters related to railroading on the L. & T., when "we were young."

FOR TOP PERFORMANCE...
WHITE FLASH MOTOR OIL and LUBRICATION!
YOU'LL SPIN ALONG • Like a top—with Atlantic—because these are the products that were proved best for your car, in the most remarkable road test in motoring history, when in less than five months six stock automobiles were driven 100,000 miles each, in the famous Toms River Road Test, without carbon removal and without repairs to a single lubricated engine part—thanks to Atlantic White Flash, Atlantic Motor Oil and Atlantic Lubrication. Use all three for top performance.
